Evils of Antipyrine. The use of antipyrine for the relief and cure of headaches has depressing influence on the heart, and causes a derangement of the kidneys. Krause's Headache Capsules contain no antipyrine, chloral, morphine or any injurious ingredient. They cure quickly and leave the head clear and cool. Price 25c. Sold by L. Taggart.

The world is profited nothing by the pleasure-seeking life.

Physician and Druggists. Ford & Sturgeon a prominent drug firm at Rocky Hill Station, Ky., write "We were requested by Dr. C. B. Snigley to send for Herbine for the benefit of our customers. We ordered three dozen in December, and we were glad to say, Herbine has given such great satisfaction that we have duplicated this order three times, and to-day we gave your salesman another order. We beg to say Dr. G. B. Snigley takes pleasure in recommending Herbine." 50c bottle at L. Taggart's.

The sorrow of death is not in their going but in our staying.

Cured Paralysis. W. S. Bailey, P. O. Prue, Texas, writes: "My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was persuaded to use Ballard's Snow Liniment, which cured her all right. I have also used it for old sores, frost bites, and skin eruptions. It does the work." 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle at L. Taggart's.

You cannot serve God with tools invented by the devil.

A Physician Healed. Dr. Geo. Ewing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure: "For years I had been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles. I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success." L. Taggart.

No man can both measure his work and do it at the same time.

Many persons in this community are suffering from kidney complaint who could avoid fatal results by using Foley's Kidney Cure.

When law and legislations are respectable they will be respected.

"I had diabetes in the worst form," writes Marian Lee of Dunreth, Ind., "I tried eight physicians without relief. Only three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made me a well man."

It is not our fault if temptations call on us; but it is if we entertain them.

Foley's Kidney Cure is a medicine free from poisons and will cure any cases of kidney disease that is not beyond the reach of medicine.

The true servant is discovered in his master's absence.

It Needs a Tonic. There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. De Witt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland ave., Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. R. C. Dodson.

Some men are born with a reverse gear and nothing else.

His Sight Threatened. "While picnicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Ia. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever," for skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is sure cure. It relieves piles at once. Beware of counterfeits. R. C. Dodson.

The Tramp Ready For Any Job.

The gay cat applies for a job where he hears men are wanted, he knows not for what. "Can you drive four?" asks the boss. It may be the hobo doesn't know whether it is four nails or four tent stakes he is to drive, but he confidently answers: "Sure thing! Had a job driving four last month at—" (any of the 10,000 places he has been to, so he can answer questions if the boss is inclined to put them), and the next morning, finding the "four" he is to drive are horses, he confidentially approaches a fellow employee with, "Say, Bud, show me how to put the harness on the plugs, will you?" Asked if he knew how to make watches or dynamite cartridges, he would doubtless say he did. He might fall at either, but he would not weakly deny himself an opportunity to try. This is not true of all, but it is a distinctive trait born of necessity in men that seek employment in many and various fields. —Leslie's Monthly.

Toad Stones. Most readers have no doubt heard of the precious jewels which the toad carries in his brain box, and so called toadstones, which were in reality the teeth of fossil fish, were formerly worn in finger rings as a protection against poison.

It was thought that the best stones were those voluntarily ejected by the living toads; but, as the latter were not addicted to freely giving up their treasures in that way, it was necessary to procure the coveted articles by other means, and the recognized method was to decapitate the hapless batrachian at the instant he swallows his breath. The feat naturally demanded considerable celerity, such as could only be acquired by constant practice, and it is not reasonable, therefore, to assume that, although the endeavors to gain possession of the jewels were perhaps numerous, they must have invariably been unsatisfactory, especially to the toads.

Dressing a Hog. It is told of the late P. D. Armour that on one occasion he made a present of a suit of clothes to each of his employees in a certain department. Each man was told that he might order his own suit and send the bill to Mr. Armour, no restrictions being made as to price. In order to avail himself fully of this liberality one young man ordered evening clothes costing $80. When the bill was sent in, Mr. Armour sent for the clerk to vouch for its accuracy and, finding it right, assured the man it would be paid. As the clerk was leaving, however, Mr. Armour said to him: "I wish to say to you that I have packed a great many hogs in my time, but I never dressed one before!" —New York Times.

Aristocratic Ants. The slaveholding ants are of several kinds and differ greatly in the manner in which they treat their vassals. Some make them do all the work under the direction of overseers; others share their labors, while still others have fallen into such habits of luxury as to be unable or unwilling to wait upon or even to feed themselves and are carried about and provided with food by their body servants. In many cases this sybaritism is the mere ostentatious love of being served. The incapacity is not physical, but moral, and arises from an aristocratic aversion to any kind of menial labor.

Missed the Lobby Barrel. Considerable amusement was caused when the legislature first went into session by a member from the counties arriving and promptly asking to be shown the lobby. When that place was pointed out to him, he nosed around for awhile and then remarked in the hearing of some bystanders: "I've been fooled!" he declared disgustedly. "They told me I could find a bar'l of money loose in the lobby, but I see now that it's a dinged lie!" —Baltimore Herald.

Before and After. Single Man (to himself)—I am sure that darling little angel loves me. She takes me into her confidence and tells me all her troubles. Same Man (some years later)—Consarn it all! From morning till night and night till morning, when I'm at home, I hear nothing but tales about the servants, the butcher, the butler, the baker, the candlestick maker and all the rest of 'em! —New York Weekly.

Misunderstood. "And we have one baby," said the meek man who was applying for board. "Will you mind it?" "Mind it?" snapped the rich faced landlady. "Of course not. Do you think I'm a nurse?" —Chicago News.

A Mann Reflection. Buggins—See here, porier. This mirror is so dusty I can't see myself in it. Hotel Porter (who has not been tipped by Buggins)—Strikes me yo' ought to be mighty thankful 'stid o' makin' a fuss about it. —London Tit-Bits.

Women and Babies. Did you ever notice that when a baby, an old woman and a young woman are together the baby, which belongs to the young woman, is always carried by the old woman? —Acheson Globe.

Retort Photographic. The photographer was drying his plates in the warm sunlight. "What are you doing there?" asked a friend. "Oh!" was the reply, "Just airing my views."
