

CAMERON COUNTY PRESS.

H. H. MULLIN, Editor.

Published Every Thursday.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Per year in advance $2.00. If paid in advance $1.50.

ADVERTISING RATES: Advertisements are published at the rate of one dollar per square for one insertion and fifty cents per square for each subsequent insertion.

Legal and Official Advertising per square, three times or less, $2; each subsequent insertion 50 cents per square.

Obituary notices over five lines, 10 cents per line. Simple announcements of births, marriages and deaths will be inserted free.

Business cards, five lines or less, 45¢ per year; over five lines, at the regular rates of advertising.

Whether one takes the practical or the artistic point of view, the modern Old-Time Handicrafts revival of old-time crafts revived the restoration of "village industries" in different parts of the country are interesting matters.

The materials were dyed at home with the old-time vegetable dyes, the goods were woven by hand, and when offered for sale commanded a market and a price which plainly indicated the establishment of an industry by which home-keeping women could earn a respectable income.

T. P. O'Connor publishes a remarkable conversation which he had with The Burden of Andrew Carnegie's Great Wealth. London cable to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. He says: "As we drove down to the station I was saying how I envied him his wealth."

The fine points of the law are somewhat involved by the statement in a divorce suit that the offending lady and a clerical admirer went to a restaurant where "they had ham and eggs and Scotch whisky served in little flasks."

The world is against mules and newspapers. Mules are about the best behaved animals we know anything about. They work hard and live on half that a horse requires.

THE BAD REPUBLICANS.

Characterized by Blatant Democrats as Conspirators Against the Nation's Weal.

Persons who fail to read the numerous recipes for democratic harmony that are being offered by the party leaders nowadays miss a great deal of amusement and some solemn instruction.

THE CABINET WILL WORK.

Heads of Governmental Departments Are to Take an Active Part in the Campaign.

Whether there has been any definite plan for a stumping tour on the part of the members of the cabinet this fall or not, the reception given to the suggestion by the press is sufficient to warrant such a plan now.

THE UMBRELLAS CAUSED ALL THE TROUBLE.

GOOD MEMORY OF NEGROES.

The Race Seems to Be Endowed with a Special Aptitude for Not Forgetting.

"Speaking of the negro race, I am inclined to believe that some scientist would find an extremely profitable field in the negro's faculty for remembering things," said a traveling man, according to the New Orleans Times-Democrat.

mistake, giving each man every dish he ordered.

"I met a negro at Texarkana about a year ago. My name is not easily remembered. A few days ago I met the negro in a Texas town, but did not remember him until he recalled a little incident of our former meeting."

His Business.

"I thought she was a woman of unbreakable will," said the man with the job-tailed coat.

Lacked Hospitality There.

Col. Bluegrass—Didn't you tell me, sub, that Mistah Brown always treated his callers like gentlemen?

NOT THE BIG FIGHT

But just a picture of what would happen if Grover and Bryan were to meet on the Same Harmony Platform.

tion would probably think it fine writing, says the Indianapolis Journal.

Mr. Bryan in his speech at Nantasket diagnosed the case somewhat differently, with practically the same result. He pointed out that the two great political parties of the country represented two opposing ideas—aristocracy and democracy—the former being represented by the republican party and the latter by democracy with a big D.

There is some consolation for republicans in knowing that even in the opinion of the great and only friend of democracy as a form of government and the peerless leader of democracy with a big D, republicans are not wholly bad, at least not intentionally so.

Speaking of the congressional outlook in Ohio, Gen. Grosvenor said: "There is nothing that I can see to operate against the belief that the republicans will elect 16 and probably 17 congressional representatives this fall."

The world is against mules and newspapers. Mules are about the best behaved animals we know anything about. They work hard and live on half that a horse requires.

discussion. Secretary Root will doubtless be pleased to speak of the work of the war department in the Philippines, as any part of the public will be to hear him, and nothing that can be done will conduce to a better understanding of conditions as they now exist and of plans for the future than to have him visit various parts of the United States and talk freely of what his department has done and is doing.

President Roosevelt will make a trip through the west, but will not, with reference to party issues, talk politics. It will be impossible for him, however, to avoid discussing the duties and responsibilities of the government.

It is well for the people to see their president when they can, to hear him, or to read what he says on such occasions. Our country is big. Our population is enormous and widely scattered.

Public officials cannot do much to intentionally promote their own political fortunes. The more they try the less they seem to succeed. It is perfectly safe to allow them all the latitude they desire.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Bryan speech in Boston was for "harmony in two groups," each group armed with clubs.—Indianapolis Journal.

Members of congress who oppose the things which the president favored have returned home to learn that the country is with the president.—Cleveland Leader.

With corn and oats at 70 cents a bushel, the farmers of Missouri are not likely to reaffirm the silver theories with which they were bombarded six years ago.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Some of the men who have stepped forward to assist in the "reorganization" of the democratic party would be more appropriate embellishments to a funeral.—Cincinnati Enquirer (Dem.).

The presidential boom of Tom L. Johnson has been successfully launched at Cleveland, the fear that it would cause the earth to tip up on its axis proving unfounded.—Anaconda (Mont.) Standard.

The Currency We Need

By HON. A. B. HEPBURN, Ex-Comptroller of the Treasury—Chairman of American Bankers' Association.

OUR currency laws certainly need amendment. Their rigidity is a constant menace to the business of the country. Present laws and our present currency properly serve public interests in normal conditions, when nothing disturbs public confidence.

THE TIME HAS GONE BY WHEN THE CLEARING HOUSE CERTIFICATE MAY BE AVOIDED OF WITH SAFETY. Their future use would materially impair our national prestige as a money power in the world of finance.

WHAT WE REQUIRE IS NOT CLEARING HOUSE CERTIFICATES, good only in the settlement of balances between banks, BUT CURRENCY GOOD IN THE HANDS OF THE PEOPLE FOR ANY BUSINESS PURPOSE.

During the recent financial crisis in Germany, the Imperial bank prevented a serious panic, with all its distressing consequences, by issuing a very large amount of emergency or asset currency, upon which it paid into the imperial treasury a tax of five per cent.

What the Union Pacific is doing in engineering improvements is commended to other companies that operate in parts of the country where no such difficulties are encountered as in the West.

There is probably nothing more pointed than the finger of scorn.—Chicago Daily News.

Ladies Can Wear Shoes

One size smaller after using Allen's Foot-Ease. A certain cure for swollen, sweating, hot, aching feet.

Self-reverence, self-knowledge, self-control; these three alone lead life to sovereign power.—Tennyson.

I am sure Piso's Cure for Consumption saved my life three years ago.—Mrs. Thos. Robbins, Maple Street, Norwich, N. Y., Feb. 17, 1900.

The man who is always calling for the fool-killer would be the first to hide if he saw him coming.—Chicago Daily News.

Stops the Cough and works off the cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets. Price 25 cents.

Audacity is the stepfather of success.—Chicago Daily News.

Advertisement for Libby's Natural Flavor Foods, featuring an illustration of a man holding a loaf of bread and text describing the product's quality and availability.

Advertisement for 'Boys Who Make Money' featuring a small illustration of a boy and text about a booklet for sale.

Advertisement for The University of Notre Dame, listing various courses and departments available to students.

Advertisement for Hanson Truss Co. featuring an illustration of a truss and text describing its benefits for hernia and other conditions.

Advertisement for Henry C. Blair's Free Teething Necklace, featuring an illustration of the necklace and text about its use for infants.

Advertisement for Hamlin's Wizard Oil featuring an illustration of a bottle and text describing its medicinal properties.

Advertisement for Piso's Cure for Consumption featuring an illustration of a bottle and text describing its effectiveness for respiratory ailments.