Of land in Ireland 7,700,00 acres are in grass, estimated to yield $10 acre, while 1,700,00 acres are tilled, yielding some $45 an acre. The total income of the Irish people is $200,000,-000, of which $160,000,000 come from the land. As the population is in round numbers four and a half millions, this means an average income of about $44.50, or $222.50 for a family of five persons.

The leaders in the last session of congress were mostly men who have served a number of terms. Senator Hoar has served 23 years; rlatt and Hoar has served 23 years; Platt and Hawley 27 and 23 respectively; Al-drich 27; Gallinger 15; Allison 37; Frye and Hall 33 and 31. In the house Cannon and Hitt have seen 14 and 10 terms respectively; Speaker Henderson 10; Grosvenor 8; Grow and Bingham 10 and 12; Dalzell 8.

Buffalo Bill and Senator William A. Clark, the Montana copper king, are great friends. When they first became acquainted Clark was peddling clocks and Cody was carrying out his contract to furnish buffalo meat for laborers who were building the Kansas Pacific railway. In a year and a half Cody killed over four thousand of the animals and earned the sobriquet by which he is now known.

King Victor Emanuel's gift of $20,coupled with an expression of his desire to see the Campanile reconstructed, has brought about a definite decision on the part of the city council to begin work. The councilors, however, are anxiously considering the condition of other public buildings and fear that their expenditure will not be confined to the bell tower, but that they may have to overhaul the neighboring basilica and ducal palace.

John D. Rockefeller dislikes auto mobiles, and, with a view of preventing them from trespassing on his vast domain, called Boxwood, at Pocantico Hills, has erected signs on his proper ty ordering automobile owners to keep off his land. The signs bear these words: "Automobiles are not allowed on these grounds." Mr. Rockefeller has fifty miles of private driveways on his estate, many of which cover serpentine trails and run along steel embankments.

Clinging to a narrow rock shelf on the bald acclivities of Cook Stove mountain, near Colorado Springs, Col., hungry, thirsty and suffering from cold, Samuel Lower, of Tipton, Ia., and Miss Goldie Mutchins, of Tip-pecanoe City, O., lived through 18 hours of terrible experience perched 12,000 feet above the sea level and 2,000 feet above a human habitation.

The couple undertook to climb the peaks and reached a ledge 100 feet above the point whence they started. When they wished to descend they found that they could not. All the afternoon and night they were imprisoned on the ledge until rescuers who had climbed to the top of the pool in their same for the peak in their search for the couple located them by Lower's cries for help.

It was necessary to return to camp for ropes with which to rescue them. When these arrived the couple were hauled up the face of the rock, only to fall fainting at the feet of their rescuers. The girl is but 17 years of age and delicate. How she survived the exposure is a mystery to her friends.
