WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.) Washington, Sept. 8th, 1902. Editor Press

President Roosevelt, showing little effect of his recent serious accident apart from a bad bruise on his right cheek, passed through Washington on Friday on his way south. To-day he is spending with the locomotive firemen who are gathered in annual convention at Chattanooga, Tenn. To-morrow he will visit Knoxville, Wednesday he will spend at Asheville, N. C. and on Wednesday evening he will pass through Washington on his way to Oyster Bay where he will remain a little over a week resting and will then go west on his long anticipated western trip. The enthusiasm which greeted the President in Washington and, in fact, all along the line, must have proved most gratifying to him. The people in their desire to express their satisfaction that he had escaped with so little injury from his serious accident cheered him repeatedly and vociferously. Mr. Roosevelt declared that he was none the worse for his mishap but fate of "poor Craig" to whom he frequently referred. Apparently the sudden killing of his faithful attendant had saddened him.

The Democratic campaign book which was issued last week serves little bit silly for these same Democrats as another evidence of the degeneracy of the Democratic party from the high plane it once occupied in the councils of the country to an aggregation of quarrelsome malcontents who care nothing for the good of party or the welfare of country but are each tenacious of his own views irrespective of the effect on the whole. ' he prominence given to Senator Carmack's Philippine views furnishes an excellent example. Although the older and more respected members of the made its appearance, but the Republiparty are silent on this subject, a canselected the Governor by 36,000 large amount of space is devoted to the erratic views of the Tennessee senator and those who follow his lead. Bereft of legitimate grounds on which to base an argument, reon which to base an argument course has been had to the reports of the members of the War Depart-ment's board of surgeons and professional statements which are to- also Gertrude German's resignation of Shippen fessional statements which are to-tally unfit for reproduction in a pamphlet intended for general cir-culation are published and dilated upon and a series of entirely un-warranted deductions are made therefrom. The publication of such as the state of the series of the publication of such as the state of the series of the second seco therefrom. The publication of such and the second s absolute lack of sound reasons for appealing to the people for Democratic votes. The recently issued report of the auditor for the Interior Department gives ground for the statement that the pension rolls are decreasing, and that the country has seen the apex for the appropriations for that purpose. While no true Re-publican has ever begrudged the payment of the debt due to the brave men who came to support the Union in '60 '65, as with all other debts, it is pleasant to see the end in sight, and Republican leaders are gratified to learn that after a policy of the utmost liberality to disabled soldiers and those dependent on them the demands on the treasury are tending toward a de-crease. Certain Democratic opponents have seen fit to comment adversely upon the fact that the pension rolls included nearly a million names, but a more careful examination reveals the fact that notwithstanding the adjudication of between 200,000 and 300,000 new claims, there has been practically no increase in the list during the past year. Moreover, during the fiscal year of 1892-3 the total disbursements for pensions amounted to $156,806,537, whereas during the last fiscal year, the amount actually expended for pensions amounted to but $137,400,741 nearly $30,000,000, less. The burden has been a heavy one, but the people have borne it cheerfully and increased prosperity has at-tended their generosity.

Emporium Talent Entertains Austinites. A number of the best musical talent of Emporium came over to Austin Friday evening and entertained a representative class of people at Lynch's new opera house. The entertainment was in the form of a musicale and consisted of selections from some of the best comic operas, besides vocal and instrumental solos and male quartettes. The intention of the ladies and gentlemen was to raise funds for the benefit of the public library of Emporium. The entertainment was high grade in every respect, Their efforts showed that many days had been spent in rehearsals and they came to Austin well prepared to please our people, and succeeded well. It was an exceptionally fine entertainment, even though some of the "kids" in the gallery, did not appreciate the class of entertain-The work of the pianist, Miss ment. #### The First Guns.

The elections in Maine and Vermont on Monday resulted in favor of the Republicans. In Vermont there were several candidates for Governor and neither one of them had a majority of the votes. The Legislature, which elects the Governor, is overwhelmingly Republican. The prohibition question entered the contest.

In Maine the same trouble, as usual, majority and elected a solid Republican delegation to Congress.

Death of James Gorman.

Jas.Gorman, who was formerly a resi dent of this county, died at Johnsonburg last Wednesday, aged 79 years, from injuries inflicted by Mrs. Lizzie Schell. The Johnsouburg Press, says: "Jas. Gorman, one of the well known aged residents of this place, died [on Wednesday about one o'clock at the home of his son on south Center St. a few hours following an assault made upon him by Mrs. Lizzie Schell. The facts surrounding his death as near as they can be learned, and as the later developments at the coroner's jury showed, are about as follows:

Mr. Gorman, who is nearly eighty years of age and is quite feeble, came home Tuesday afternoon about five o'clock from a walk around town, and found his young grand-son, a boy six years of age, being abused by an older son of Mrs. Schell who resides in part of the same building with the Gorman family. He separated the youths and it is alleged slapped the Schell boy, whereupon the child's mother came to the rescue and in quite a forcible manner laid violent hands upon the old man, in consequence of which he was either thrown down or tripped himself. It is claimed Mrs. Schell hit him with a stone, but this was not proven at the inquest, while the autopsy failed to lay the blame for causing his death directly to the action of Mrs. Schell. The bruise on Mr. Gorman's left ear could have been caused by his fall when he was forcibly taken old of, and there was no evidence brought out at the inquest that would go to show conclusively that the stone thrown by Mrs. Schell actually struck

Mr. Gorman." His remains were taken to First Fork last Friday, for interment. The Coroner's inquest rendered a verdict that he "died from heart failure, superin-duced by an assult made by Mrs. Schell."

Mightier Than Steam.

Mighty as are steam and electricity in the domain of industry, they are but shadows of the mightier power of concentrated thought as expressed in type and spread before the world. To let the world know through type who and what and where you are and what you have that this great world wants is the secret of success, and the printing press is its mightiest machine to that end -

Thomas A. Edison. Has Left Us.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mankey and children, who for a number of years have been respected residents of this place departed last evening for Camden, N. J., where Mr. Mankey is connected with a furniture establishment, a line of business that he has been closely indentified with since a boy. The excellent satisfaction given by Emporium Laundry to its patrons should guarantee a large share of the public patronage. Five prisoners who are confined in

Last Thursday while Wm. Snyder was in the act of killing a pig at A. L. Ensign's, East Emporium, he was severely bitten on the left wrist. The wound is getting along nicely.

The Pittsburg Chronicle said: The Wild West was remarkable. no less wonderful were the skill of the riders and the daring of the broncho breakers in Pawnee Bill's Show the finest we have ever had here. Coming to Emporium Wednesday, Sept. 17, 1902.

Upon the trust question President Roosevelt is in line with enlighted public opinion everywhere iu the stand he is taking. He is consulting the interests of the country, and the Republican party cannot do otherwise than follow his lead while he leads so wisely and so well as he is now doing.

The Bedford Inquirer says there is a big difference besween a true reformer and a mere fault finder. The true reformer in the Republican ranks having secured the nomination of a clean, upright and able candidate for Governor, are not hanging around Democratic headquarters trying to cook up fusion tickets. Having obtained what they ask for they are getting kown to steady work for Pennypacker and victory.

Some of our Democratic contemporaries are claiming that S. R. Dresser has said that he would spend $50,000 to get elected to Congress from this district. During a conversation with Mr. Dresser last week we asked him to affirm or deny this claim, and he denied it in most emphatic terms. And he also stated that he only intends using what money is necessary to pay the expenses and is to be congratulated upon captur- be well for the Democrats to stick to the truth for a short time, at least .-

Pawnee Bill's Wild West,

The combined shows of Pawnee Bill, which exhibited here yesterday, is first-class in every respect; as a lifelike portrayal of savage modes, it has no equal, requiring 100 genuine Indians, brave cow boys, noted sconts, trappers and Pawnee Bill's humanely educated mustangs. The performances of the trained animals were excellent, and equal to any ever exhibited in this city. May Lillie's shooting is wonderful, and the riding and driving of 35 wild mustangs are all grand features. The wild buffaloes and long horned Texas steers, the grand Mexican Hippodrome races, by senors and senorits, are most wonderful and exciting. Taking it all in all it is one of the best shows that ever visited our city .- Charlestown, S. C., Sun.

Major Gordon W. Lillie, Pawnee Bill, has doubled the size of his splendid exhibition this year and added many new and startling features. Besides the thousand men and horses employed, he is introducing a new idea for the little people. It is a miniature Wild West with liliputian stage coaches, prairie schooners and harnessed to them Shetland ponies and burros ridden and driven by sturdy Indians, Arabs, Cossacks and Western boys.
