Hermit Found Dead With Wealth in his Pockets.

At Philipsburg Saturday morning George S. Turner, an eccentric old man who had lived as a hermit in a house on Ninth street was found dead sitting upon a chair in the middle of the kitchen. The decomposed condition of the body indicated that death had occurred a week or ten days before the body was found. The Ledger says on his person was found a gold hunting-case watch and an open-face silver watch, $31.13 in cash, $400 in Clearfield fire brick bonds, $100 in Clearfield borough bonds, $500 in Clearfield Water company bonds, $500 in Wallaceton fire brick bonds; certificate of deposit in County National bank $700, certificate of deposit Clearfield county bank $1400. He was childless but his wife survives, confined, hopelessly mad, in an insane asylum. Several brothers are also living, the natural heirs to the brother's wealth, which is said to reach $10,000.

Oscar Mitchell of Clearfield, Turner's attorney, took charge of the dead man his effects.—Lock Haven Republican.

Letter to G. S. Allen.

Emporium, Pa.
Dear Sir:—The late president of the Croton River Bank, at Brewsters, N. Y., built the finest house in all that region, in 1884, and painted it with lead and oil at a cost of $400—the house cost $31,000.

In 1887—three years—he repainted it with Devoo at a cost of $350. In 1897 this Devoo was in good condition.

Lead and oil, $400, three years. Devoo $350, ten years.

West Branch Fire Brick Company.

Last Thursday's issue of the Renovo Evening News contained an extended article on this important industry, which is said to be one of the best equipped fire brick plants in the State, employing a large force of men and turning out first-class material. Mr. Chas. F. Barclay and Messrs. C. B. Howard Company, of this county, are largely interested in the enterprise, Mr. Barclay being President of the Company. The News, in speaking of the officers of the Company, has this to say in relation to Mr. Barclay, who is considered one of the best business men in this section of the State:

"Captain Chas. F. Barclay, of Sinnamahoning, the President of the company, is a gentleman known all over the state as one of the most honorable, public spirited and enterprising of the larger capitalists. Although he is worth his million, Captain Barclay earned his money by perseverance, integrity and an honorable regard for the rights of others. He is interested in every enterprise in Cameron county of note, and made Sinnamahoning a thriving and hustling town; his lumber interests in this and other states are prodigious; in Seattle, Washington, he is connected with large lime stone quarries and vast real estate deals; in Mexico he has big holdings in gold and silver mines, and only recently he acquired two hundred million feet of timber in Bradford county.

Captain Barclay is a broad man, a big, pleasant, congenial, liberal minded man who has endeared himself to every person, and who has made a friend of every man who has had the pleasure of meeting him. In 1889, the year of the big floods throughout the state, his losses were such as to swamp an ordinary capitalist. It was a hard blow, but Captain Barclay is used to hard blows, his experience in the war of the Rebellion proving him to be a fighter. Although only 58 years of age Captain Barclay has gone through experiences enough to kill an ordinary man. His iron constitution, indomitable pluck, and withal his polished, kindly, gentlemanly manners have made him a peer among men. In such men as America has its bulwarks. Captain Barclay enlisted as a private in the 149th Pa. 2nd Bucktails; he was a Libby, Dansville, Macon, Savannah, Charleston and Columbia prisoner, and went through those hells shattered in health but with the same pluck and spirit that made him what he is to-day—a man among men, a fearless, gentle, popular man."
