Cures Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble. L. Taggart.

Christ is the center in which the radii of all denominations must meet.

Foley's Kidney Cure makes the diseased kidneys sound so they will eliminate the poisons from the blood. L. Taggart.

The proud man is likely to need our pity more than the humble.

Feet Swollen to Immense Size.

"I had kidney trouble so bad," says J. J. Cox of Valley View, Ky., "that I could not work, my feet were swollen to immense size and I was confined to my bed and physicians were unable to give me any relief. My doctor finally prescribed Foley's Kidney Cure which made a well man of me." L. Taggart.

We would not dare pray at all if our prayers were answered.

Croup.

Usually begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Gives frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, (the child will cry for it) and at the first sign of a croupy cough, apply frequently Ballard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat. 50c at L. Taggart's.

The churches are the creatures and not the creators of Christianity.

21 Years a Dyspeptic.

R. H. Foster, 318 S. 2d St., Salt Lake City, writes: "I have been bothered with dyspepsia or indigestion for 21 years, tried many doctors without relief; recently I got a bottle of Herbine. One bottle cured me, I am now tapering off on the second. I have recommended it to my friends; it is curing them, too." 50c at L. Taggart's.

God made men like Himself that they might make earth more like heaven.

Devoured by Worms.

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from inanition, their food is not assimilated, but devoured worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once, very much to the surprise and joy of the mother. 25c at L. Taggart's.

Christ submitted to the sting of death that He might secure the death of sin.

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for chronic throat troubles and will positively cure bronchitis, hoarseness and all bronchial diseases. Refuse substitutes. L. Taggart.

It is a poor brand of piety that must be preserved in a refrigerator church.

Used for Pneumonia.

Dr. J. C. Bishop, of Agnew, Mich., says, "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." Refuse substitutes. L. Taggart.

The joy of the Lord belongs to those who have done the work of the Lord.

A New Jersey Editor's Testimonial.

M. T. Lynch, Editor of the Phillipsburg N. J. Daily Post, writes: "I have used many kinds of medicines for coughs and colds in my family but never anything so good as Foley's Honey and Tar. I cannot say too much in praise of it." L. Taggart.

Every page of the Old Testament has a star of promise for the world's night of sin.

Raised From the Dead.

C. W. Landis, "Porter", for the Oriental Hotel, Chanute, Kan., says: "I know what it was to suffer with neuralgia indeed I did; I got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and I was 'raised from the dead.' I tried to get some more, but before I had 'deposed' my bottle, I was cured entirely. I am telling de truth too." 25c, 50c and $1.00 at L. Taggart's.

Some hope of a genuine heaven who do not hesitate to put a dishonest dollar in the offering.

A Pocket Cold Cure.

Krause's Cold Cure is prepared in capsule form and will cure cold in the head, throat, chest or any portion of the body in 24 hours. You don't have to stop work either. Price 25c. Sold by L. Taggart.

Ballot Reform.

The campaign in Pennsylvania, like campaigns in all other states must turn upon National issues, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. We think that the average voter understands that thoroughly. Under Republican rule the United States has taken the leading position in world affairs. What is of more importance, there is very general prosperity. It would be supreme folly to risk the continuance of this prosperity by handing control over to a party which, under Cleveland, brought the country almost to the verge of bankruptcy.

Naturally, the Democrats of Pennsylvania are not anxious to discuss such issues. They ignore them. They declare that the coming contest ought to be fought out on local questions exclusively. They tell us that ballot reform is the real issue.

Very well, the Republican party will meet them upon that ground. Our Democratic friends may preach ballot reform in the abstract, but the Republican State Committee has appointed committees to draw up bills not only for the amendment of the ballot law, but for the regulation of primary elections. These bills will be submitted to the voters. Every citizen will be able shortly to understand exactly what a Republican Legislature will give him.

With a candidate for Governor whose public record is above criticism with a National administration to protect through the elections of Congressman, with United States Senator involved, there does not seem to be any good reason why a Republican should vote anything but a straight ticket this year, especially as the Legislature will practically be pledged in advance to enact stringent ballot reform amendments.

The Law on Truancy.

The new law which was approved July 16, 1902 supercedes act of 1901 and 1897. It requires every parent or guardian to send all children between 6 and 16 years of age to a school where the common English branches are taught during the entire term, though the school directors may reduce the requirements to only 70 per cent. if they see fit. Pupils may be excused on account of mental, physical or other urgent reasons acceptable to the board, or pupils between 13 and 16 who can read and write the English language intelligently are exempt from the operation of the law, provided they are regularly engaged in some useful employment or service. Another provision is that in case there be no public school in session within two miles by the nearest traveled road of any person within the school district he or she shall not be liable to the provisions of the act.

The new law provides fines not only for the neglecting persons in parental relation; but also for teachers, school directors and others who fail to comply with its provisions. The law, in fact, is so comprehensive and important that interested persons should at once make themselves acquainted with all its provisions. Copies may be obtained by addressing the secretary of the commonwealth, W. W. Grist, Harrisburg.

In the State election of 1901, a Constitutional amendment was submitted to the voters authorizing the Legislature to provide a person-enrollment and thus do away with the chief grievance in election then complained of. Of the 260,000 voters recorded on this question, 214,000 were favorable to the adoption of the amendment and 46,000 were opposed. But the total vote of Pennsylvania at that election was 848,000 and 588,000 electors, therefore, expressed no concern on the question.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many millions of bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturer in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by L. Taggart.
