Two Inky Ways.

There was a man who advertised But once—a single time. In spot obscure placed he his ad. And paid for it a dime. And just because it didn't bring Him customers by the score, "All advertising is a fake," He said, or rather, swore. He seemed to think one hammer tap Would drive a nail clear in; That from a bit of tiny thread A weaver tents could spin. If he this reasoning bright applied To eating, doubtless he Would claim one little bite would feed Ten men a century. Some day, though, he will learn that to Make advertising pay, He'll have to add ads, to his ad, And advertise each day. —E. G. Townsend, in National Advertiser.

F. P. Sykes, of Galeton is transacting business in town to-day. Edward Huff, one of our force has been "enjoying" a vacation the past week, nursing a felon on his right thumb. Messrs.
