EDITORIAL MENTION.
The golden trust color of the New York Democratic State Convention is causing no little thought.

The Democrats would smash the trusts by wrecking all industries and that would throw practically all labor out of employment.

The Democrats declare that the country is dangerously prosperous and promise to remove that danger in the event of their success.

As usual the Democratic campaign committee has to exercise a great deal of care in circulating literature, that which might do good in the East must be kept out of the West.

With neither a leader nor an issue the Democracy still hopes that things may go their way, i. e., to the bow-wows. They might then have some chance of success.

Have the Democrats again scuttled and left their paramount issue to be defeated by others? It begins to look that way. In 1900 the Democratic National Convention declared "the burning issue of imperialism, growing out of the Spanish war, involving the very existence of the Republic and the destruction of our free institutions we regard as the paramount issue of the campaign."

All through the long session of the Congress, from December to July last the Democratic Senators discussed little else than this paramount issue. It mattered not what proposed legislation was before the Senate, Crum and Teller and Culberson and Rawlins and Petterson and Tillman and other Democratic leaders, harked back to the paramount issue and belabored the Administration for destroying our free institutions and converting the Republic of Washington and Jefferson into an Empire with militarism for its chief corner stone.

The Democratic party was even at that late day, loyal to their last national platform, for more than 100 pages of that Democratic Bible are given to the discussions of imperialism. But since then something has happened. The Democrats have again scuttled and left their paramount issue as they did in 1896 when they turned their backs on Cleveland's free trade record and began to cry for free silver, and in 1900 when they tried to drop silver for anti-imperialism. The Democratic orators have flunked on the paramount issue and left it to the defense of that little band of professional mugmumps headed by Charles Francis Adams and Carl Schurz. These chronic malcontents are doing what they can to save the Republic and prevent the crowing of Roosevelt as Emperor, but they have as long been engaged in saving the country from imaginary ills that they no longer are taken seriously even by their friends.

But the Democratic orators are silent. They have scuttled from imperialism as though it were an infectious or contagious disease. They have discovered that there are American soldiers in every part of the country who have been in the Philippines or in Cuba or Porto Rico and that these soldiers have a very direct and even abrupt way of meeting this paramount issue. They issue rests on malicious slander of the army and the men who have been connected with the Army are ready to resent that slander. They are no longer soldiers but they are citizen defenders of the honor of the Army and the flag even more zealous of what they fought for than when they were fighting. And what is more to the point the men who were soldiers have the confidence of their neighbors and the general public so that their direct contradictions are enough to overthrow any inflammatory statements of professional orators or professional reformers.

Still it is sad to see the Democrats scuttling from their latest issue as they urged the government to scuttle from the Philippines. The party should change its name to that of Scuttle and Skeddadle.

No Gloss Carriage Paint Made
Will wear as long as Devoe's. No others are as heavy bodied, because Devoe's weigh 3 to 8 ounces more to the pint. Sold by Murry & Copper-smith.

Six hundred French market gardeners have gone on a strike at Nantes, and no fresh vegetables of any sort can be obtained in the town.

For Female Complaints and diseases arising from an impure state of the blood Lichty's Celery Nerve Compound is an invaluable specific. Sold by L. Taggart.

Letter to B. W. Green.
Emporium, Pa.

Dear Sir: If you own several houses, your reason for painting Devoe lead and zinc should be several times as strong as the man who owns but one. Lead and oil was good enough paint till the merits of zinc were found out. It was profitable to paint lead and oil—it was then—but not now.

The addition of zinc to lead makes Devoe lead and zinc twice as long and cost no more; costs less—a trifle less, not much. Lead and oil is mixed by hand; Devoe lead and zinc by machinery. Might as well make one's shirts by hand as mix paints. Say it costs $100 a house a paint lead and oil; and it lasts three years.

Say it costs the same for Devoe; which lasts six years—it will last ten years, in favorable conditions, unless you want to repaint to change the color.

The costs; lead and oil about $30 a year; Devoe $15—probably less.

F. W. DEVOE & Co.
P. S.—Murry & Copper-smith sell our paint.

Our Brother, George.

(To the memory of Geo. H. Dickenson who was killed in a nitro-glycerine explosion on Sept. 3rd, 1902, at Emporium, Pa.)
Midst mountainous hills so wild and drear,
A place from which one shrinks in fear,
The factory building stood,

'Twas there he toiled for his daily bread,
Ambitious, striving to forge ahead;
Our Brother kind and good.

'Twas there he toiled for his daily bread,
Ambitious, striving to forge ahead;
Our Brother kind and good.

'Twas there he toiled for his daily bread,
Ambitious, striving to forge ahead;
Our Brother kind and good.

Without time for prayer. No kith or kin
Nor loved ones near, to cheer and comfort him,
He died in that lonely gorge.

Let's pray to God, that hence for evermore,
Our brother's with the best.

LABOR LEADERS
ATTACK PATTISON

Knights of Labor Publish Him as the Foe of Workingmen.

VETOED THE EDUCATIONAL BILL

He is Also Charged By Them With Helping to Form the Coal Trust Despite the Protests of Railroad Men. An Article That is Attracting Attention.

(From a Special Correspondent.)

Washington, Oct. 7. — Not only is organized labor in Pennsylvania opposing the election of Robert E. Pattison, but laboring men all over the country appear to be keeping a very close eye on the outcome of the Pennsylvania campaign. The Knights of Labor in particular are fighting Ex-Governor Pattison by every means in their power.

The last issue of "The Journal," the official organ of the Knights of Labor, contained a page article from the pen of John W. Hayes, general secretary-treasurer of the order. It is a direct attack upon Ex-Governor Pattison for his hostility to laboring men and labor unions while he was governor before. The article goes on to prove that Mr. Pattison is an enemy to popular education as shown in his vetoing of the Compulsory Education Bill when he sat in the executive chair. Mr. Hayes in his article on Pattison's hostility to education says:

VETOED EDUCATIONAL BILL.

"The legislative committee of the organization (Knights of Labor) had this matter before it for consideration. A bill was prepared and introduced, juggled with for some time, and altered and amended, but finally passed both houses of the legislature. True it was not all that we desired; but it was a bill that, once a law could be amended from time to time until all that was desired in the way of a good law had been secured. In this, as in all former cases, Pattison was pleaded with to sign the bill as it came from the legislature. But in this he was obdurate. His interest in having children at the coal breakers instead of in the school-room was paramount and he vetoed the bill."

The general master workman of the Knights of Labor writing at this time on the action of Governor Pattison said:

"If Governor Pattison could have traveled through the state and loitered awhile by the roadside he might have heard the hiss of the serpent that is coiling itself around children of the poor and fastening its poisonous fangs upon the vitals of the commonwealth. Whether he knew it or not his action pleased those who would make the children of men hewers of wood and drawers of water until oblivion, which comes only through drink or death, which would ease the strain."

In an editorial in "The Journal of the Knights of Labor" the following appears:

WEIGHED AND FOUND WANTING.

"Ex-Governor Pattison is again a candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, and the question of his fitness, his honesty, and his friendship for the cause of the toiler is to be weighed and decided by the voters, and especially by those voters who are workingmen. When he was last a candidate for the same important office, he had the strong support of organized labor and was elected, and he failed us in our hour of need!

"He is the sponsor for the coal trust and was at its baptism, and he probably still favors it in the prolonged strike now proceeding.

"Every friend of labor and those who exist by the well doing of the toilers should be united in one phalanx against the coal combine. They are united to crush organized labor, and all who love fair play and fair pay must unite against them and those who side with them.

FAVORED THE COAL TRUST.

"Judging the present by the past, it is fair to assume that Pattison is a side partner of the coal combine, or, at all events, is favorable to it, as he was in 1891-2. He evidently favored the coal barons then, in spite of his oath to support the constitution of the state of Pennsylvania, which was nullified when the combine was organized, and the fact was officially called to his attention. He was furnished with evidence and maps showing that competition was being wiped out and the law, which was quoted, evaded and disobeyed.

"President Roosevelt said in an interview, published in the Philadelphia Record, Sept. 6, 1902, that 'There is a remedy' for the settlement of the great coal strike. This is doubtless true, for the president must be well informed on the legal and political aspect of the strike. What chance would there be to end a strike if Pattison was governor or one that might occur during his term of office? If the coal barons wanted to end it, Pattison would surely be on hand to obey their desires.

LABOR WOULD PLEAD IN VAIN.

"But labor might plead in vain, as it did on former occasions. His ear was deaf to the pleadings of labor and would be again. If a man cheats you once it is his fault; if he cheats you the second time, you are to blame for giving him the opportunity. Pattison has been tried and found to be an unfaithful friend. His face was turned from us when we asked his aid to do an act of justice. He has been weighed in the balance and found wanting. No workingman should give him a vote. Bury him under such an avalanche of ballots that his name will never be whispered again in either state or national politics."

The above is the severest arraignment by labor leaders of any candidate for governor of Pennsylvania in recent years, and is attracting general attention in every centre of organized labor in the country.

First Fork.
Fred Logue and family are up from Harrisburg on a visit and perhaps policeing a little.

Mrs. Wm. Mahon and Mrs. R. M. Williams are spending a few days at Costello.

Mrs. Sternberg, of St. Marys, and Mrs. A. J. Moore, of Emporium, have been visiting their brothers' Geo. B. and R. R. Goss for a couple of weeks, at this place.

The pipe liners have been camped near Malvin Logue's a few days, brushing out the line and moved this morning over to the head of Hammersley Fork.

Albert Hussey has accepted a position as weighmaster at the Costello Tannery, and expects to move in a few days, when Dr. Colcord will move back into the house occupied by Mr. Hussey.

And now we are to have mills galore, in this section, Dr. Colcord having leased a site for a heading and shingle mill, near the mouth of Norcross Run, to a Mr. Beals from Packer, Potter county.
