Rev. W. A. Pugsley is spending a few days in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Will S. Walker, of Austin, is visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Miss Louise Holman, of Oberlin, Ohio, is the guest of the Misses Taggart, Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shedden of Kansas, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. McQuay.

Mrs. C. W. Beldin of Sinnamahoning and Mrs. Chas. Ross of More Hill were Press visitors on Saturday.

Mrs. Philip Dixon, of St. Marys, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Garrity, of this place.

Mrs. Dornish and two little sons, of St. Marys, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Renninger, Fourth street, the past week.

Dr. DeLong and wife, who have been spending several months in the north, returned last Thursday to their Florida home.

B. L. Spence made a hurried trip to Clarion county on Tuesday, to inform his brothers of the death of H. P. Spence.

Rev. Robert McCaslin returned Saturday from Pennville, Pa., where he assisted in conducting evangelistic meetings.

P. H. Fitzpatrick, formerly a citizen of this place visited in town on Tuesday. He has the brick contract on St. Marys opera house.

A. H. Barr and wife, of Huston Hill, were visitors in Emporium yesterday, having been called here to attend the funeral of Daniel Barr.

John Dodge was severely burned about the face by acid at Keystone Powder works last Thursday but is now able to resume his duties.

The wise editor of the Youngsville Citizen asserts that the easiest way to keep a good hired girl in the farm home is to get a good looking hired man.

E. W. Stone, of Port Allegany, came over on Saturday, remaining until Monday, with his brother Dan Stone, who is quite feeble at the residence of N. J. Swartz.

Dr. and Mrs. Baker returned yesterday from a short visit to Williamsport friends.

C. G. Schmidt and wife are visiting friends and relatives at Berwick. We are sorry to learn that friend Schmidt has met with a mishap that somewhat mars his visit, by falling down stairs. It is hoped that no serious results will follow.

A dispatch from Wellsville says: Work will begin this week on the Southern extension of the Buffalo & Susquehanna railroad from Sinnamahoning, in Potter county, Pa., to DuBois, Clearfield county, Pa., a distance of 45 miles. Goodyear Brothers have given the contract for the work to Frank Greco of Galeton. The North-western extension of the road from Wellsville to Buffalo, will be started early in the spring.

Humor of Boys and Girls.
From twelve on an increasing percentage of the children relinquish the idea that self is necessary in the joke and give more impersonal accounts. Girls more frequently than boys quote the humor of the refined adult and in personal experiences often describe occasions of their own timidity. This is probably due to the different home training a girl receives. She is continually drilled "to be a lady," which in most cases means to drop her natural instincts and to imitate the adults of her environment. About twelve she loses the fearlessness she has hitherto shared with her brothers and becomes good prey for their "scaring" schemes. This seems to develop the boys' teasing abilities, for, while before almost all their tricks were on their own sex, now the acme of their fun as recorded is to frighten some girl or to make her look ridiculous. A boy of twelve illustrates this tendency and by his mixed clauses gives further material for smiles. "The best joke I saw played was putting a bunch of firecrackers by a lady that were not lit, and they scared her."—Century.

A Score.
Twenty is called a score because it represents the whole man, ten fingers and ten toes. Etymologically it means a cut or mark. In very early times, when men could not count beyond twenty, or "one man," it was usual to cut a notch in a stick and begin again, and so it went on, one man, two men, and so on. This is why sheep are still counted by the score. Now, a tally (French taille, cut or nicked) means an account kept by means of a notched stick, and until the end of the eighteenth century such sticks were given as exchequer receipts, accompanied by a written document. This was also the usual way of keeping accounts in the luns of the middle ages. The number of drinks or meals a customer had were scored against him on what was called a tally stick, and when it reached twenty, or a "whole man," he was expected to pay. In some English country inns scores are still kept on a slate, four chalk marks and one across—five—and four of these make twenty, or a score.

For His Sovereign's Sake.
The shah of Persia when in France suffered from a toothache, and so a dentist was summoned to remove the offending tooth. But, like less exalted mortals, the shah, when he found himself face to face with the dentist, discovered that his toothache had disappeared, and so absolutely refused to be operated on. However, his majesty declared that he did not wish the dentist to lose his time, and so commanded that a tooth should be extracted from each of his suit. He said this with his eyes fixed on the ground, and then, suddenly looking up, found, to his intense amusement, that all his ministers and staff had quietly slipped away except the grand vizier, whom he complimented upon being the only one faithful enough to undergo a little discomfort for his sovereign's sake. Then he dismissed the dentist with a present.

A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Keller, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by L. Taggart.

The Best Remedy for Croup.

(From the Atchison, Kan., Daily Globe.)

This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old fashioned remedy for croup known as hive syrup and tolu' but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by L. Taggart.

There is a long step from "My Father," to "Our Father."

For a Bad Cold.
If you have a bad cold you need a good reliable medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to loosen and relieve it, and to allay the irritation and inflammation of the throat and lungs. For sale by L. Taggart.
