EDITORIAL MENTION.

The parlor match is being boycotted by a number of American cities.

We have many things to be thankful for this year and so have the bears of Mississippi.

The Pennsylvania has commenced already raising freight rates to meet the increase of salaries.

The largest brickyard in the world will be established near St. Paul, Minn., and will cover 72 acres. Spurs and tacks will run all over the ground.

The man who leads President Roosevelt to believe that there were bears in Mississippi, stands a poor chance for an office under the present administration.

The independent coal operators are knocking against a settlement of the anthracite troubles now. They are not in favor of the compromise suggested.

A shooting match between Roosevelt and Cleveland would attract a large crowd. Some enterprising manager should take the matter in hand. Cleveland recently shot 80 ducks in seven hours.

An effort will be made at the session of Congress to have General Jacob Smith restored to the army. A general sentiment has been created at Washington in favor of General Smith.

Governor Odell has appointed a commission to find out why the New York courts have 15,000 untried cases on their dockets. He will find there have been too many Molineux cases and too few courts and justices.

Admiral Dewey is to command the greatest fleet in the history of America. At the winter manoeuvres he will have sixty-one vessels, comprising more than one-half the entire force of the Navy. There is work mapped out, but there will be little powder burned.

Large quantities of wheat are being shipped from Minneapolis to Puget Sound for shipment to Australia. The amount now under way is 300,000 bushels. It will be ground on the Pacific coast. There is a wheat shortage in Australia.

In his Philadelphia speech last week the President returned to the trust issue and more emphatically pledged his Administration to make the regulation of the trusts one of its chief purposes. Speaking of the problems which have been the outgrowth of our tremendous industrial developments he said the Administration would deal with them along the lines indicated in speech and action by that profound jurist and fearless public servant who represents Pennsylvania in the Cabinet—Attorney General Knox. We shall not act hastily or recklessly but we have firmly made up our minds that a solution and a right solution shall be found, and found it will be.

Lots for Sale.
 I have some desirable building lots for sale at a bargain.
 C. J. GOODENOUGH.

Mr. Cleveland labored with New Jersey and it went Republican. Mr. Bryan delivered scores of speeches in Nebraska and Colorado and they went Republican. Mr. Hill deluged New York with speeches and it went Republican. Mr. Gorman made a powerful still hunt in Maryland and it went Republican. But Col. Watterson carried Kentucky, and a county doctor in Rhode Island, named Garvin, captured Rhode Island for the Democrats. The logical ticket for 1904 is Watterson and Garvin.—Bradford Star.

What's In a Name?
