BANNER SALVE

The most healing salve in the world.

Made a Fast Run.

Engineer Thomas Jones made a remarkably fast run from Driftwood to Renovo yesterday afternoon with train No. 6. The distance is about 27 miles and the train arrived in Driftwood twenty minutes late. There are many small stations between Driftwood and Renovo at which nearly all accommodation trains may be stopped. Besides these, work on new bridges compels a slow down at each of these structures. With the Penna. Railroad company, good time consistent with safety to passengers is everything. Yesterday Mr. Jones made up fifteen minutes between Driftwood and Renovo, arriving here only five minutes late. This included all of the stops between the two points as well as slow over bridges. A reporter for The News was on the train when this remarkable run was made and had his attention called to the fact that a record was being made. In some places a mile was reeled off in less than a minute, yet the tracks are in such an excellent condition that many of the passengers did not know it. Conductor Geo. H. Moore had charge of the train.—Renovo News, 5th.

An Interesting Transaction.

The Cross Fork News tells of a Tame-rack man who closed up a startling deal the other day. It seems this man had a mule for which he had no particular use. Finally he found which he could trade the animal for a young lady, plump and pretty, but the father of this charming armful of divinity decided that he should have some difference and knowing that the owner of the mule had a quantity of turnips he concluded that he could dispense with his daughter in exchange for the mule, provided he could get ten bushels of the aforesaid turnips to boot. This was a staggerer for the owner of the mule, but after due deliberation he made up his mind that five bushels and the mule was all he cared to part with to secure the dear sweet thing, and here the deal stood for some time. Finally, each being anxious to make the exchange, they agreed to split the difference and so seven and one-half bushels of turnips and the mule were given the papa of the girl while she accompanied the former mule owner to his home.

The December Woman's Home Companion is full of good fiction. Besides the very interesting serial, "The Flight of Penelope," there are six short stories, "The Prodigal's Christmas," "A Brother to Foodles," "A Congressional Episode," "A Game of Love," "Stans and Kobold" and "Gentleman Jack." A feature of especial interest is the "Christmas Cantata," a little play especially intended for presentation by children. In "The Strange Origin of Familiar Toys," Stewart Culin tells how some of the most ordinary playthings have a history that goes back thousands of years. The departments are devoted to matter of reasonable interest—the making of Christmas presents, the holiday book reviews and excellent cooking and fashion articles. Published by The Crowell Publishing Company, Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year; ten cents a copy; sample copy free.

"Durer," by John La Farge, in the December McClure's, is the last paper in a series that began a year ago with "Michelangelo." These articles have been recognized by critics as the most important contribution to art criticism in recent years, and they have also been extremely popular. During the coming year Mr. La Farge will write for McClure's of great artists of the nineteenth century. Between the two series he will also contribute a paper on Hogarth.

What's in a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered, some years ago, how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a pacifier for Piles. For Blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Biles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. R. C. Dodson.

Sinnamahoning Liars' Club.

Sinnamahoning Liars met Saturday night in Pap Blodget's shop with Harry Ward in the chair. A hot time for four hours was the result. Two shining lights in the organization locked horns, F. E. Jordan and Pap Berfield tried for supremacy, Pap came out best and won the laurels, Jordan got mad and threw a side of sole leather at the barber. Order was retained with difficulty. Handsome told a whopper and was awarded for bravery and took one of those free drinks advertised in paper "Pigs Ear." Anson Logue's application for membership was refused on the ground of refusing to take a social drink with members of this Club. Pap Blodget was asked under the head of good of the order for a speech, which was granted in a few words. While visiting or canvassing the county he happened to meet a good many of the organization. He held his own in Driftwood and by the help of George W. Gentry faced the president and secretary of the club at Cameron. The post master not excepted, and held his own and a little better but election day knocked the old man clear off his feet and has been lame in the left hind leg ever since. DeShetler here dropped in a consoling word and told the old man he would have been elected Commissioner if he had had votes enough; that appeared to settle the matter. We will visit Cameron some of these fine evenings when sleighing gets good and bring the cornet band with us and will be prepared to meet all comers. Club adjourned in good order. FIDE.

Would you like to feel Young Again?

Many old people are lame, nearly all are weak. Worst of all, is that feeling of languor, of inability to act, of weariness at trifling exertion. Nothing will make the old young again, but Vinol will prevent 99 out of 100 old people from feeling so old.

There is no humbug about it. We found out about Vinol, and tried it every way before we decided to put it on the market and guarantee it. Now we believe that almost any tired, discouraged old person who will take a bottle of Vinol and use it as directed will feel better right away.

It will increase their strength, relieve their lameness and brighten their spirits.

It does this by nourishing. Don't blame the old folks for being blue and cross. Take home a bottle of Vinol.
