EDITORIAL MENTION.

The weather man is introducing all kinds of weather this year.

The New Year is very much like its predecessors. The bills all arrive on time.

General Hatou is pushing right ahead with the revelation business in Venezuela.

The Monroe Doctrine has lived a long time, and is stronger now than ever before. Beware of the boys of the new uniform.

President Castro is not over-confident regarding the Hague; he would rather have Roosevelt as the arbitrator.

The cable is completed and you can now send a wire to Honoluly when you desire.

Washington has once been victor-ious, and arbitration will settle the Venezuela matter.

President Castro seems to be taking things as they come these days, January bills included.

Carrie Nation realized $5,000 on her recent trip east. She can get it as easily as the saloon can.

The valentine business is air and beginning to brighten up. Dealers are ordering large quanities this year.

It is suggested that when Laura Bigger returnes to the vaudeville stage, she take her jury along with her.

Marconi thinks it possible to send messages across the water for one cent a word. If possible let the deed be done.

It was a good year and a friend of many, but we welcome 1903 with a hope that many good things will be ours before another New Year.

The prediction reads. "Fair tomor-And then we find it raining in row." the morning. It costs Uncle Sam $1,250,000 annually to give us this misleading information.

Marconi made the stockholders in his company feel good at Christmas time. His success certainly means much to the civilized world.

Governor Bailey, of Kansas, is still in hot water. He is continually receiving letters and photos from ladies who think he wants to marry.

Don't Worry. This is easier said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. It the cause is something over which you have no control it is obvious that worrying will not help the matter in the least. On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When your have a cold and fear an attack of pneumonia, buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously and all cause for worry as to the outcome will quickly disappear. There is no danger of pneumonia when it is used. For sale by L. Taggart.

Presents occasionally make the heart grow founder.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by L. Taggart.

No, Cordelia, horses are not foundered at a foundry.

The peculiar cough which indicates croup, is usually well known to the mothers of croupy children. No time should be lost in the treatment of it, and for this purpose no medicine has receiued more universal approval than Chamber-lain's Cough Remedy. Do not waste valuable time in experimenting with untried remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended, but give this medicine as directed and all symptons of croup will quickly disappear. For sale by L. Taggart.

Sinnamahoning Liars' Club.

Liars' Club met in regular session Sun day morning in Pap Blodget's shop with Mont. Peasley in the chair. G.W. Gore, Frank Jordan, and Pap Berfield locked horns with John Clontz and came very near knocking him out but John is long near knocking him out but John is long winded and by the help of Alex De-Shetler came out all right. George Chase took the second degree so is pre-pared to meet all comers. Clyde Jordan was expelled. He refused to tell a lie. The club don't want such members. Frank Buck reported that the young members were getting ahead of the old charter members. Chas. Snyder said that the young members have the ex-perience of the old members wit with their own instinct would defy the world their own instinct would defy the world to compete. We will hold our meeting hereafter on Sunday as nights are too short for good business. Pap Blodget had nothing to say since he was suspend ed, but is always ready to take refreshment. Pap brought charges against Frank Jordan for reporting that he cought a bark rack full of trout in one day and two of them eat them for break fast besides three rattle snakes. John Clentz caught with a fly hook lots of foxes, and black bear by the hundred was killed during the session. The officers for the current term were installed, G. W. Gore holds the chair for the next six months, Frank Jordan secretary, Charles Snyder treasurer. No furtherbusiness the club adjourned for better weather. A. J. Barclay elected representative to the grand lodge.

Tried to Conceal It.

It's the old story of "murder will out" only in this case there's no crime. A woman feels run down, has backache or dyspepsia and thinks it's nothing and tries to hide it until she finally breaks tries to hide it until she finally breaks down. Don't deceive yourself. Take Electric Bitters at once. It has a repu-tation for curing Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles and will revivify your whole system. The worst forms of those maladies will quickly yield to the cur-ative power of Electric Bitters. Only 50, and guaranteed by L. Taggart Drug-rist. gist.

46.1-ly.

46-1-ly. A little church in Pennsylvania re-cently celebrated the one thousand mill-ionth minute since Christ's coming to earth. In an article on "Pierpont Mor-gan, His Advisers and His Organiza-tion," John Brishen Walker mentions that Mr. Rockefeller is popularly sup posed to control one thousand million dollars, and that one thousand million dollars would represent the labor of ten thousand men since Christ's coming to earth, calculated at the average scale of wages paid during the past two thous-and years. In the same number of The Cosmopolitan, a very interesting cal-culation is made as to what the one thousand million could accomplish in the hands of a thoroughly ambitious man.

man. In fiction the January number of the Woman's Home Companion is especi-ally rich. "A January Elopement" is a timely winter story. "Uncle Toby's Inheritance" is a story of the South by T. C. Harbaugh, and "The New Leaf," by Frederick M Smith, gives a glimpse of Betty Mallard on New Year's eve. A feature article of especial intetest is on "The Great Work of the Presbyter-ian Church of America." This is the first of the series which will deal with all denominations. Other litles are "The Girl Who Wants to Come to New York," 'Holiday Festivities in Cosmo-politan Washington," "The Auranian War of 1902,.' and there is a stirring historical picture by F. C. Yohn, called "The Last Stand of the Patriots at Bunker Hill." The Fashions and the Departments are as helpful as always, and complete a number which gives great promise for the year of 1903. Published by The Crowell Publishing Co., Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year; ten cents a copy; sample copy free. Golden Gate Tour. man. "Don't Know How I Got Such a Cold"

Most of us have heard this expression many times.

Did you ever notice that the Don't know how I got it cold is a bad one to get over? That before you are through with the hoarseness, the cough, the "tight feeling," the general discomfort, and the out of sorts sensations, you are apt to have another such cold, and so on until it hangs on for weeks ?

These colds mean that your system is out of gear. They usually precede serious diseases like consumption, bronchitis. They are dangerous.

We have found a remedy for all sorts of colds, coughs, that is not a so-called cough-cure. It does not stupefy with opium, nor fill the system with vicious drugs. It is Vinol. We are perfectly willing to tell any inquirers at our store what it is made of and how we came to take hold of it.

It certainly does the work. Old coughs go off like magic. It even relieves people far gone in consumption. People right in town have proved it. We sell it subject to guarantee - money back if it doesn't help you. Isn't it foolish to put the matter off ?

Unconscious From Croup.

During a sudden and terrible attack of croup our little girl was unconscious from strangulatiou, says A. L. Spafford, post-master, Chester, Mich., and a dose of One Minute Cough Cure was administered and repeated often. It reduced the swelling and inflammation, cut the mucus and shortly the child was resting easy and speedily recovered. It cures Coughs, Colds, LaGrippi, and all Throat and Lung troubles. One Minute Cough Cure lingers in the throat and chest and enables the lungs to contribute pure, health-giv-ing oxygen to the blood. R. C. Dodson.
