Ex-Governor Hastings at Rest.

Bellefonte, January 13.—Though the thermometer to-day was almost down to zero, five thousand persons attended the funeral of ex Governor Hastings here this afternoon. In addition to Governor Stone and party, who came on a special train at noon, prominent men from all over the state were here.

This forenoon the Centre County Bar held memorial services and many friends paid tributes of respect to the deceased. The funeral took place at two o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Wilford P.Shriner, of the Methodist church, was in charge of the services and was assisted by Revs. Geo. Israel Brown, William Laurie and H. C. Holloway, of this place; Rev. W. A. Houck, of Hazelton; Dr. George Edward Reed, and Presiding Elder J. Ellis Bell of Altoona. In the procession from the house to the cemetery, Company B. National Guard. marched in a hollow square around the hearse as guard of honor. At the grave the Masons concluded the services which were conducted by Acting Wor-shipful Master Wilbur F. Reeder, asisted by Chaplain George Israel Brown.

A Strenuous Deer.

William Fairman, Esq., of this place, has a herd of ten deer, among them being a large specimen who annually celebrates the first day of January by doing something strenuous. On that day it has been his custom for four years to plow up the earth, charge trees and fences and attack his rivals in the deer pen. Three and four years ago, respectively, he lost a pair of antlers by charging into the earth and butting into fences and trees, thus tearing off his horns. On January 1st of last year, and again on the anniversary of that date this year, he celebrated the event by goring to death one of his younger rivals. Last year the encounter was in the nature of a fight to the death in which the buck in question came out of the deal without a scratch, the result this year being still more one-sided, as the surviving buck's superior strength enabled him to dispose of his adversary with the greatest of ease. The encounter last Thursday was most brutal and blood thirsty and the vanquished deer was jabbed full of holes and literally torn to pieces. The phenomenal behavior of this antlered monster is perhaps due to his efforts to rid himself of his horns, but just why he selects New Year's day for the purpose is a problem that is puzzling in the extreme.-Punxsutawney Spirit.

Dined Together on the Eve of Death BELLEFONTE, Jan, 12.—Three distinguished Pennsylvanians who on New Year's day dined together at the Union League, in Philadelphia, have since, within the short space of nine days, been claimed by death, Ex-Governor Daniel H. Hastings of this place was the last of them to die.

The little League party included, besides General Hastings, General A. L. Pearson and George M. Von Bonnhorst of Pittsburg. They all went home with colds. General Pearsons died last Monday from pneumonia, Mr. Von Bonnhorst on Tuesday and General Hastings Friday, from the same disease

Our Policy.

The Monroe Doctrine is really not open to argument in the United States. The country is wedded to it. We have taken it for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, and there is no divorce. Whatever Europe may think of it, Europe will not challenge the doctrine at this time, and we clearly understand that the security of the doctrine in the future will depend on our ability to defend it. The necessities of the case are well appreciated. We are strengthening our navy year by year and the spirit of nationality is firmly established in the bosoms of the people.—Washington Star. Will Reconvene Jan. 19,

HARRISBURG, Jan. 13-The standing committees will be announced and the officers and employes of both branches chosen when the legislature reconvenes on January 19. The following day Governor-elect Pennypacker will be inducted into office and the Senate and House will ballot separately for United States Senator. The two bodies will meet in joint convention on the 20th to canvass the vote and to formally announce the results. The Republicans have a decid ed majority in both houses and it is conceded that Senator Boise Penrose, the unanimous choice of the Republican caucus will be elected to succeed him. self. The Democrats will vote for Col. James M. Guffey of Pittsburg, member of the National Democratic committee. nominee of the party caucus. After these matters have been disposed of it is expected the General Assembly will immediately settle down to routine work in order to adjourn finally on April 16. Six bills have already been introduced in the Senate and three in the House and these will be enacted upon as soon as the committees are appointed. Several ballot reform bills are being prepared for the introduction early in the session in order that this question may be disposed of before the appropriation bills are taken up.

Speaker Walton says in order to adjourn on April 16 it will be necessary for the House to hold Saturday sessions from the start and that he will make a special effort to see that members are present at these sessions. He does not anticipate a prolonged debate on any legislation with the possible exception of the ballot reform bills, and is confident it will not be necessary to extend she time of final adjournment.

Thomas N. Garvin of Delaware, and Charles Johnson of Montgomery, the present chief clerk and resident clerk respectively, of the House, have been notified by the Republican Slate Committee that they will be retained. Ex-Representative James N. Moore of But-

Representative James N. Moore of Butler, will probably be chosen journal clerk to succeed N. C. Shaner of Butler. Rev. William McNally of Harrisburg, expects to be elected chaplain.

Edward W. Smiley of Venango, and Herman P. Miller of Douphin, chief clerk and Senace librarian, respectively, expect to be re-elected by the Senate. Rev. F. W. Stailey of Dauphin will be selected by the Slate Committee for chaplain of the Senate. The Democrats will nominate candidates for all the offices to be filled by the Senate and House although it is conceded that none of these nominees will be elected.

A Scientific Discovery

Kodol does for the stomach that which is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol supplies the natural juices of diges tion and does the work of the stomach, re laxing the nervous tension, while the in-flamed museles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. R. C. Dodson.

Great Story of Standard Oil

"Miss Tarbell's work is of unequalled importance as a 'document' of the day. Her story has live men in it; they suffer and work and win and lose their battles with the verisimilitude that removes the tale from the dry statement and clothes it with the color of human interest and the vivid rainbow garmet of human sympathy. * * * The results of her work are likely to be far-reaching; she is writing unfinished history."—Boston Globe.
