R. SEGER & SON,
Next to Bank, Emporium, Pa.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Ferguson Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by L. Taggart.

It is a vain hope that the chains of habit will rust off.

The peculiar cough which indicates croup, is usually well known to the mothers of croupy children. No time should be lost in the treatment of it, and for this purpose no medicine has received more universal approval than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Do not waste valuable time in experimenting with untried remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended, but give this medicine as directed and all symptoms of croup will quickly disappear. For sale by L. Taggart.

The Gospel would soon reach all men if we were as anxious to tell the virtues of Christ as we are to publish the faults of others.

A Scientific Discovery.

Kodol does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. R. C. Dodson.

He who was often weary can always give us rest.

Unconscious From Croup.

During a sudden and terrible attack of croup our little girl was unconscious from strangulation, says A. L. Spafford, postmaster, Chester, Mich., and a dose of One Minute Cough Cure was administered and repeated often. It reduced the swelling and inflammation, cut the mucus and shortly the child was resting easy and speedily recovered. It cures Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, and all Throat and Lung troubles. One Minute Cough Cure lingers in the throat and chest and enables the lungs to contribute pure, health-giving oxygen to the blood. R. C. Dodson.

To be at our best to-morrow we must be at our best to-day.

Don't Worry.

This is easier said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. If the cause is something over which you have no control it is obvious that worrying will not help the matter in the least. On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When you have a cold and fear an attack of pneumonia, buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously and all cause for worry as to the outcome will quickly disappear. There is no danger of pneumonia when it is used. For sale by L. Taggart.

First Fork.

Grant Johnson, of Arkhill had a rather thrilling experience in bear hunting on Saturday morning. Having heard that a bear had crossed the ridge the night before, above his camp he loaded his Winchester and started after him. After traveling till he was pretty tired he found the bear had swung around and gone back the way he had come. So he turned back and after traveling about two hundred yards, saw a place where the steam was coming up through the snow, at some little distance. On investigating he found the bear had "hold up." Getting down on his hands and knees he could see the bears eyes, and put a bullet in between them. After waiting some time for him to die, he got a dry chestnut pole and punched him with it, which proved him to be much alive yet. Calling some men who were working on the side hill in hearing distance they made a torch and Grant took the torch in one hand and his gun in the other, and crawled into the den, after crawling in a short distance he planted another bullet in the bear's head. By this time the bear had reached the back end of the cavern, and was still quite lively. Grant gave him the third shot in the head which "stopped him." The cavern at this place was quite roomy and he got hold of the bear and dragged him out to the entrance, where he cut a stick that had a hook on it, and "skidded" him down to camp. He was evidently a two year old, and weighed about two hundred pounds.

Benjamin B. Logue one of the old settlers of this place passed away last Friday morning at the age of 76 years. Funeral services were held Tuesday at Miller school house. Rev. Foss delivered an able sermon to a large gathering of friends and neighbors.

A special train of Pullman cars came down the B. & S. R. R. last Wednesday and laid all night at this place, the directors and stockholders of the Buffalo Susquehanna and Southern R. R. Co., accompanied by ex-president Grover Cleveland were on the train. At 8:30 Thursday morning train left for DuBois and Pittsburg.

The surprise party and sleigh ride by members of camp No. 122 Patriotic Americans up at Logue's last week was a success. xxx
