CALL FOR STATE CONVENTION.

TO THE REPUBLICAN ELECTORS OF PENNSYLVANIA:
 I am directed by the Republican State Committee to announce that the Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen Representatives, will meet in convention at the Opera House, in the city of Harrisburg, on Wednesday, May 27th, 1903, at 10:30 o'clock, a.m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, to-wit:
 One person for the office of State Treasurer.
 One person for the office of Auditor General.
 Two persons for the office of Judge of the Superior Court.
 In accordance with the rules governing the organization, the representation in the State Convention will be based on the vote polled at the last Presidential election. Under the rules each legislative district is entitled to one delegate for every two thousand votes cast for the Presidential Electors in 1900, and additional delegates for every fraction of two thousand votes polled in excess of one thousand.
 By order of the Republican State Committee.
 M. S. QUAY, Chairman.
 W. R. ANDREWS, Secretary.

EDITORIAL MENTION.

Senator Hanna says both treaties will be ratified.
 Senator Morgan still blocks the progress of the Senate.
 Senator Reed Smoot of Utah regards as very securely seated.
 Senator Tillman the South Carolina steers, has been chosen a member of the democratic steering committee.
 A notorious ex-senator threatens to Billy-Mason-ize the Chicago municipal campaign.
 It looks as if Arthur Pue Gorman's return to the Senate meant a total eclipse of William Jennings Bryan.
 Apparently the law forbidding the sale of liquor in the Capitol had a string to it.
 General Miles is preparing to give his enemies another opening. He is about to write a book.
 The new Senator from Delaware has already earned the soubriquet of "The Hon. Hi-Ball."
 The Ex-Queen of Hawaii and Secretary Cortelyou are now in position to sympathize with each other over the stinginess of Congress.
 Senator Allee of Delaware shows resentment when referred to as "Senator Allee-Samee-Addicks."
 The short session of Congress accomplished a good deal in spite of the democratic filibusters.
 The people of New York are still waiting with interest for the first appearance of Dr. Parkhurst's ideal newspaper.
 The special session of the Senate and the Crum and Byrne nominations demonstrate that President Roosevelt is a man of his word.
 Senator Hanna may yet have to accept the second place on the presidential ticket. Mr. Roosevelt didn't want it.
 There is already talk of a financial stringency and the democrats must be prepared to tell why the Aldrich bill was not passed.
 Secretary Cortelyou has already made a lunge at monopoly. He has sent a man to Japan to import terrapin.
 There was something very peculiar about the democratic free trade arguments against the Philippine tariff bill.
 Far be it from us to refer to the Hon. John T. Morgan as a legislative road-agent. But he has held up the United States Senate.
 There are 56 republican votes pledged to the ratification of the Cuban treaty out of a necessary 60.

A Bit of Diplomacy.
 An American from Texas got into trouble with a gendarme in the City of Mexico during the Spanish-American war, when foreign and local sentiment was against the United States. The offense consisted largely in the fact that the stranger was an American, but he landed in jail nevertheless. Not wishing to see the Texan spend the night in jail, his friends sallied forth to obtain his release. First they visited the home of the American ambassador and found he was out of the city. Then they went to the home of the English minister and found him in bed. By dint of insistence they succeeded in getting into the house and were met on the staircase by the minister himself, arrayed in official pajamas. Carefully disguising the fact that their imprisoned friend was an American, they appealed for assistance. "Ah," said the minister cautiously, "your man is in jail, is he? But tell me, is he a British subject?" "Your excellency," said General Agremonte, who acted as spokesman, "the prisoner speaks English perfectly." "Ah," said the minister, "then the presumption is in his favor!" Half an hour later, thanks to the personal intervention of the British minister, the Texan was released from the Mexican jail.

The Tune Was Familiar.
 An interesting anecdote is told of the old tune to which a well known song is now sung. The story runs that when the army of the first Napoleon was in Egypt in 1799 the camp for a while was near the pyramids. One afternoon about sunset the band was playing, and the natives of the desert had collected and were listening to the music. Nothing unusual happened until the band struck up a tune which we now hear under the name of "We Won't Go Home Till Morning." Instantly there were the wildest demonstrations of joy among the Bedouins. They embraced each other and shouted and danced in the delirium of their pleasure. The reason was that they were listening to the favorite and oldest tune of their people. The tune had been taken to Europe from Africa in the eleventh century and had lived separately in both countries for over 700 years.

What is Happiness?
 Happiness is the greatest paradox in nature. It can grow in any soil, live under any conditions. It defies environment. It comes from within. It is the revelation of the depths of the inner life as light and heat proclaim the sun from which they radiate. Happiness consist: not of having, but of being; not of possessing, but of enjoying. It is the warm glow of a heart at peace within itself. A martyr, at the stake may have happiness that a king on his throne might envy. Man is the creator of his own happiness. It is the aroma of a life lived in harmony with high ideals. For what a man has he may be dependent on others; what he rests with him alone. What he obtains in life is but acquisition; what he attains is growth. Happiness is the soul's joy in the possession of the intangible.
 —William George Jordan.

Cheerfulness.
 It is said there is nothing which diffuses itself more quickly in a family than the coolness, indifference and discontent which manifest themselves in the countenances of one of its members. This thought is not absolutely true. There are some things which communicate themselves with as much rapidity and more force. They are a bright smile, a frank and open manner, a cheerful face, a happy heart.—Selected.

The many friends of John Blount will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of rheumatism. Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in the town (Monon Ind.) had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by L. Taggart.

Public sins need public censure.
More Riots.
 Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the Liver or Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nerve and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by L. Taggart, Druggist.

How often you hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Sold by L. Taggart.
 Rhetoric cannot produce a revival in religion.
Wakeful Children.
 For a long time the two year old child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 59 N. Tenth St., Harrisburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by L. Taggart.
 Women wish for long life minus old age.

READ IT THROUGH.
 "Would Spoil This Story to Tell It in the Headlines."
 To use an eighteenth century phrase, this is an "over true tale." Having happened in a small Virginia town in the winter of 1902, it is a story very much of the present. Up to a short time ago Mrs. John E. Harmon of Melfa Station, Va., had no personal knowledge of the rare curative properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "Last January," she says, "my baby took a dreadful cold and at one time I feared she would have pneumonia, but one of my neighbors told me how this remedy had cured her little boy and I began giving it to my baby at once and it soon cured her. I heartily thank the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for placing so great a cure within my reach. I cannot recommend it too highly or say too much in its favor. I hope all who read this will try and be convinced as I was." For sale by L. Taggart.
 Obscurity lasts much longer than fame.

Tragedy Averted.
 "Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved" writes Mrs. W. Watkins, of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung diseases. Guaranteed by L. Taggart Druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Do You Want To Be Strong?

We Have Proof at Hand that Vinol is all that is Claimed For It.
 A good many of us have to go "to the city" to get certain things. We will save our friends and customers the trouble of a trip, at least so far as buying Vinol is concerned. It is one of the greatest tonic rebuilders that has ever been brought to our attention. Large quantities of it are sold in all of the large cities of our state and elsewhere. Now we have been appointed sole agents for this place. Vinol is better than cod liver oil for everything for which this greasy mixture was prescribed. The following from Chillicothe, Ohio, written by Mr. George Burgoon, who says: "My wife was very much run down in flesh and strength. Commenced taking VINOL and she felt the beneficial results of it before the first bottle was gone. She took four bottles in all and received wonderful benefit. Her strength returned and she gained materially in weight. I am happy to state that she is now in perfect health and we give VINOL the entire credit for this happy result." Won't you please call on us and let us tell you how VINOL does good or let us send you a book that tells all about it. We sell Vinol under a guarantee that if it doesn't help you we will return your money.
