WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.) Washington, March 30, 1903.

President Roosevelt has, with the co-operation of the Postmaster General and his assistants, inaugurated one of the most thorough investigations ever conducted in a department of the government and one which, while it is only in the initial stage, has resulted in one resignation and gives promise of uncovering a series of the gravest irregularities. The investigation deal with the Divisions of Salaries and Allowances and of Free Delivery in the Postoffice Department. Repeated charges of corruption in these divisions convinced the Postmaster General that affairs were not as should be and when the matter was brought to the attention of the President he immediately authorized a most sweeping investigation.

The courage required to take this step can hardly be realized by persons unfamiliar with the inner working of the department. The heads of these divisions have long been in a position to grant favors, often of the utmost importance to almost every member of Congress fore the more to be dreaded. The imand by this means have acquired portant thing is to restore the stomach and by this incare a political "pull" of astonishing proportions. Often the favors so used than Chamberlain's Stomach and used than Chamberlain's Stomach and Chamberlain's St granted, while innocent from the Liver Tablets. For sale by L. But it is intimated that the officials involved have not been content with distributing funds and supplies in an extravagant manner but have gone further and organized a pool by which they have criminally profited by the sale of supplies to the government and it is claimed they have received a commission on every mail-box purchased, especially those used on rural routes, and have otherwise robbed the Government.

The President is receiving gratifying assurances of his popularity in the west. The latest harbinger of news of this character is Mr. Thomas H. Shevlin, national committeman for Minnesota who has just visited Washington. "I told the President that he would receive the largest labor vote next year of White House," said Mr. Shevlin burg, Pa.

after leaving the President. "I know whereof I speak for I an not only an employer of labor myself but I keep posted on what the various organization are doing. The labor leaders point with pride to the outcome of the great coal strike. They refer to the fact that for the first time in history a president of the United States undertook to settle a great controversy between capitol and labor by assuming the initiative and personally summoning representatives of each side to the White House. Heretofore the federal troops have been called out to preserve peace and order but in the coal strike the President used moral susasion and won a world wide victory." Referring to a certain opposition to Mr. Roosevelt in New York, Mr. Shelvin said, "I tell those gentlemen they dare not oppose the nomination of President Roosevelt in the convention and after he is nominated they connot afford, as practical business men, to vote Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, Editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the conghing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had nevertried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grig had bid me adieu. Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bit-ters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one seould fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at L. Taggart's drug store.

The April Cosmopolitan is a carefully balanced magazine. It appears to the individual tasts of the many, and the many tastes of the individual. There are 17 stories and articles—101 pictures. Chief place is given to a striking article on "The Americanization of the Cana dian Northwest," written by William R. Stewart. A personal sketch of Bjornsterne Bjornson, the prophet-poet of Norway, is most entertainingly written, and is illustrated with a number of beautiful photographs of the poet's home. "To Love or To Be Loved," is a philosophical essay, by Lavinia Hart, in the course of which she shows to love means increase of physical beauty—an end which may also be gained by physical exercise, as is shown in the same number by Bernarr McFadden, in an article entitled "Health Made and Preserved by Daily Exercise." Dr. Geo. F. Shears writes on "Medicine," as part of the series, "Making a Choice of a Profession." "Famous Cures and Humburgs of Europe," is by the late Julian Ralph. "Romances of the World's Great Mines" (Calumet and Hecla), by S. E. Moffett. There are also two sketches—one on the great financler, Jacob H. Schiff; and the other on the sugar king, H. O. Havemeyer. Fleidmashal Viscount Wolseley, K. P.; H. G. Wells, Henry Seton Merriman, Seumas MacManus, and several other well-known writers contribute to this number of the Cosmopolitan, which is particularly remarkable for the variety of its fiction.
