Mr. Thos. Sexton and wife of Clermont visited in Emporium last Saturday.

John C. Lynch stopped in town between trains on Monday, enroute for Gananoque, Ont.

Mrs. R. P. Bingeman made a business visit to Ridgway and St. Marys, Monday and Tuesday.

Dr. Sutzer, the veterinary surgeon, of Wellsville, N. Y., transacted business in town this week.

Daniel Webster, of East Ward, was a PRESS visitor on Wednesday and was very welcome—as he always is.

H. G. Dubendorf, who is log scaler for Emporium Lumber Company, at Portageville, N. Y., circulated among his friends here last week.

Ed. McClain, one of Ridgway's popular young men, transacted business in Emporium last Friday. While in town he made the PRESS sanctum a social call.

Mrs. Seth J. Hackett last Monday evening entertained her Sunday school class in honor of Miss Alice Burnell, who left for Buffalo on Tuesday where her parents now reside.

Mrs. C. E. Cobb, of Sherman, N. Y., who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Rhoda Russel, in town for several days, was a PRESS visitor on Tuesday, renewing her subscription.

John Howard of Emporium, Prof. Gramley of Boalsburg and Miss M. J. Saltsman of Renovo spent Sunday at the residence of J. G. Stewart at Island.—Lock Haven Republican.

R. P. Bingeman came home from Portageville, N. Y., and spent Sunday with his family. Mr. Bingeman is jobber for Emporium Lumber Company and has been engaged for several months in getting out pine timber.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Crawford of E. State street leave this week for South Carolina, where Mr. Crawford will visit his rice fields and where they will remain some time. They will be joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ford and little daughter of St. Louis, who will make their future home on the plantation.—Olean Times.

Cyrus H. Sage, of the Johnsonburg Machine Co., and Frank McDonald, also of this place, who is patentee of a process for extracting metallic gold from low grade ore, left Monday for Colorado Springs, where both gentlemen are interested in mines in which the process is being used.... The home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Clark, of Center street, was the scene of a merry crowd of young folks Wednesday evening who assembled for the purpose of spending a pleasant evening with their hostess, Miss Hazel Clarke. Card playing and other amusements were at their height when the rattle of dishes in the kitchen foretold the delicious repast that was in store for the v. About twelve o'clock the departed for their homes. All themselves well pleased.—Surg Press.

Mr. R. Seger for many years engaged in the merchant tailoring business at this place, was a PRESS business caller Tuesday evening. After leaving a nice order for printing, and pushing the date on his paper up to 1904 he bade us good night.

Any Church.

Or parsonage or institution supported by voluntary contribution will be given a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martinez Pure Paints whenever they paint.

NOTE: Have done so for twenty-seven years. Sales: tens of millions of gallons; painted nearly two million houses under guarantee to repaint if not satisfactory. The paint wears for periods up to eighteen years. Linseed Oil must be added to the paint (done in two minutes). Actual cost then about $1.25 a gallon. Samples free. Sold by our Agents. Harry S. Lloyd.

Everybody Satisfied.

"A sweeping victory for the miners!" exclaims one commentator upon the report of the President's commission on the Anthracite Coal Strike. "A boom in labor circles!" declares another with equal assurance. Both are wrong. The report gives victory to one of the parties to the controversy. But it is not the miners, nor is it the operators. It is rather the third party whose interests are paramount, though too often overlooked by both the others and their hot champions—the public. So far as the two parties first named are concerned, each has partly won and partly lost, as was to be expected. The public, whose demands were simply that justice to all should prevail, seems to have won on every point.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Sweeping Skirt.

From an article in American Medicine entitled "Problems of Preventative Medicine" we copy the following: "Women of the upper classes, who set the fashion for all other women, should also do much for the cause of preventative medicine by making certain changes in their manner of dressing, particularly in regard to the length of the skirt worn out of doors. To see a well dressed and attractive woman trailing a long skirt over a muddy side walk and sweeping up the filthy droppings of animals and the still more filthy human excretion which always lies there, is certainly a disgusting sight, and when that same woman goes home and shakes and brushes her skirt, the myriads of micro-organisms which she has collected during the afternoon's shopping are freely scattered about the house to be later perhaps inhaled by herself, her husband and her children. It can hardly be doubted that the germs of disease are thus frequently introduced into the home, and this danger would be lessened if women would never wear long skirts while walking out of doors. The educated and thoughtful women of our communities may in various ways be of immense service to the cause of preventative medicine, but they must first be made to realize the importance of the subject and how by a little intelligent and concerted action on their part they can assist in bringing about the various sanitary reforms which have been discussed in this essay."

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger for colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care be used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by L. Taggart.

Makes a Clean Sweep.

There's nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the Salves you ever heard of, Bucklen's Arnica calve is the best. It sweeps away and cures Burns, Sores, Bruises, Cuts, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It's only 25c, and guarantee by L. Taggart, druggist.

A Twenty Billion Dollar Country.

When about a dozen years ago the appropriations by a single Congress for two years amounted to a billion of dollars there was much criticism by the minority of such lavishness, and the reply was that this was a billion dollar country, says the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Figures just brought to light show that this estimate was forty times too small, as the internal commerce of the country as wholesale prices amounts to twenty billions a year—a sum impossible to grasp, but the enormity of which is undisputed. Last year the farmers furnished produce worth at farm prices five billions, the manufacturers turned out fourteen billion dollars' worth of material and the miners another billion. This product amounted to $250 for every man, woman or child in the country, or about $1,000 per head for each wage earner.

It must be remembered that this is the gross amount and does not represent profit, but the aggregate is large and astounding. It is true that there were many who did not come up to this average and many who got a great deal more, but it needs no figures to demonstrate to everyone that we are in the midst of a career of prosperity never before reached by any nation in the world and, fortunately, there is nothing to indicate that it is on the wane. The new Department of Commerce will look after this immense business in a general way, and much good is predicted from its workings. So enormous is our trade and so widespread our development that it would be possible to put a Chinese wall around the country and still permit us all to have practically every wish gratified. The foreign demand, however, is great and is becoming one of our chief factors of prosperity, since we are constantly producing a surplus.

Another item of cognate interest showing national development is furnished by the appropriations for the Postoffice Department which will spend next year $153,000,000. Postoffice receipts are always taken as an index of prosperity. It is business that uses the mails and the sum mentioned is more than twice the sum appropriated in 1891. The sum for next year is greater even than the pension roll, and it is expected that all but ten millions of this will be paid by the public for the service and there would be actual surplus except for the extension of the free rural mails. In the year before the Civil War the total expenses of the government for all purposes was not one half what the postoffice will use next year. These things are important and impressive.

An Interesting Fact.

A Canisteo observer said to the editor the other day: "It is amusing but it is true. Let a wide awake hustling merchant, who knows that advertising pays, put a list of low prices in the paper, and his competitors who do not believe in advertising will tumble over themselves to post a lot of old box covers in the windows of their stores on which are daubed signs offering goods at the same price. The merchant who says it don't pay to advertise is not only a back number, but his acts belie his statements every day he attempts to do business."—Times Republican.

Dear Sir: You'd strike it rich if you could find a way to shave your customers in less time, for less cost, and make the shave last twice or three times as long.
You wouldn't shave the same person so many times, no get so much of his money; but the whole town would be talking about you, and everybody would come to you for a shave.

Devoe lead and zinc is exactly that in paints. It takes fewer gallons, and it wears longer. Costs less for the job, and you don't have to do it again for years and years—six years at least.
"Fewer gallons; wears longer." Takes fewer gallons to paint a house with Devoe Lead and Zinc than with mixed paints; and it wears longer than mixed paints or lead and oil.

A Pitch Lake.

Trinidad, an island in the south Atlantic opposite the mouth of the Orinoco, is famous for its pitch. There are districts where there is pitch everywhere. The beach is pitch, and so are the "rocks," some of which have been carried off to supply Paris and New York with tar pavements. At La Brea pineapples grow to perfection in a brown soil which is half pitch. But the wonder of the Isle is the pitch lake a mile and a half in circumference. As it lies glittering in the sun it looks like a vast bed of monstrous mushrooms, all black and of all kinds of shape and size, some measuring as much as fifty feet across. The space between these unlovely objects is filled with oily water. In parts of the lake the pitch is quite liquid, and the ground all around is full of pitch and coaly stuff to a depth of hundreds of feet.

The Two Classes.
