Mr. E. Blinzler has returned from Buffalo, where he took the final course of instruction in this popular treatment for ladies.

The Christiana Name.

The term "Christiana name" is used in England and America only. "Baptismal name" is used in other countries. The term seems to have been used first after the reformation, when Biblical names were used as a reaction against the use of the saints' names in the calendar. It is evident that all Biblical names are not Christian, but the reaction went so far as to consider everything in the Bible as Christian and everything not in the Bible as pagan or certainly non-Christian.

A Rough Criticism.

Lord Houghton's epigram on "Sordello," probably the most obscure of Browning's poems, though it has often gone the rounds, is worth recalling. Said Lord Houghton, then only Dicky Milnes, "There are but two lines in 'Sordello' I can understand—the first and last—'Who will hear Sordello's story told' and 'Who would hath heard Sordello's story told,' and both are false."

Exchange of Courtesies.

One of the keenest of journalists and wits, Moritz Gottlieb Saphir, had the better of the irate stranger against whom he ran by accident at the corner of a street in Munich. "Beast!" cried the offended person without waiting for an apology. "Thank you," said the journalist, "and mine is Saphir."

The Originator.

"I wonder who made the first after dinner speech?" asked the philosopher. "Adam," replied the wise guy promptly. "As soon as he got through with the core of that apple he said, 'The woman tempted me, didn't he?'"—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Forced to It.

"You ought not to beg," she said. "No, ma'am," admitted the tramp. "Why do you do it?" "Well, ma'am, I wouldn't if I could git people to give me money by jes bookin' sad."—Chicago Post.

The United States is said to have 9536 centenarians.

Letter to Judge Brennen.

Emporium, Pa.
Dear Sir: You are interested in the prosperity of your town, and every dollar anybody saves adds to the wealth of the place.

People can save half their money on paint—more than half. Devco Lead and Zinc takes fewer gallons than mixed paints to cover a house, and lasts twice or three times as long as lead and oil.

Paint is saved; labor is saved; and the "painting nuisance" is made half as frequent.

When Devco Lead and Zinc is established in Emporium, Emporium will get more out of it than we shall.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE, & Co.,
New York.

P. S. Murry & Coppersmith sell our paint.

Fewer gallons; wears longer; Devco.

All Smokers smoke the 'W. H. Mayer' hand made cigar, the best five cent cigar on the market. Be sure you ask for it. 24-tf.

Any Church.

Or parsonage or institution supported by voluntary contribution will be given a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martineau Pure Paints whenever they paint.

NOTE: Have done so for twenty-seven years. Sales: tens of millions of gallons; painted nearly two million houses under guarantee to repaint if not satisfactory. The paint wears for periods up to eighteen years. Linseed Oil must be added to the paint (done in two minutes). Actual cost then about $1.25 a gallon. Samples free. Sold by our Agents. Harry S. Lloyd.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger for colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care be used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by L. Taggart.

First Fork.

Will Gore has moved into Brooks Lorschbaugh's house.

Martin Bowen is able to be around again, after a long illness.

Geo. Beckner and son Irve are in Idaho, looking up timber lands.

Ezra Logue is able to sit up a short time and is gaining very slowly.

Amos Lorschbaugh has gone over on Kettle Creek to live with his daughters a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Beckner of Mississippi are here visiting relatives and friends.

Barclay Bro's got their first drive in, but the second drive "hung up" at Haynes.

On account of so much bad weather this month farmers are behind with their spring work.

Mr. Thomas, donated a part of a little finger to the trimmer a Tanner's mill, a few days ago.

The whistle blew yesterday on Mr. Brobst's mill, (formerly Beal's mill) and will be making shingles very shortly.

Fee Bros. have commenced moving their store from this place to Hulls. That is to be the "boom town" of Potter county, this season, and "red liquor" will flow freely.

Benj. Logue, formerly of this place, who fell from an engine and had a leg smashed, necessitating amputation and who died under the operation, was buried here last Thursday, services being conducted by Rev. Johnson, of Austin. Undertaken Haight, of same place, had charge of the funeral. There was a large turnout of relatives from Austin, as well as from this neighborhood, where deceased was born and brought up. His age was about 39 years. He leaves a widow, and two brothers (Thomas, of Brockwayville and Mac, of this place), and a sister Mrs. John Havens, of Potter Co., to mourn his death.

Due Notice is Served.

Due notice is hereby given on the public generally that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only salve on the market that is made from the pure unadulterated witch hazel. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of piles that would not yield to any other treatment, and this fact has brought out many worthless counterfeits. Those persons who get the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are never disappointed, because it cures. R. C. Dodson.

It's Worth While

Your reading this article BECAUSE it is an unbiased review of FACTS concerning the business of a Company with which you should be doing business, originally written and published by the "Mercantile and Financial Times," without request or payment.

AN ANSWER TO INQUIRIES.

Numerous inquiries have recently been made at the New York and Philadelphia offices of the "Mercantile and Financial Times" asking for information as to the methods and business of the Storey Cotton Company, whose general offices are located in the Bourse Building, Philadelphia, as well as to the desirability and value of investment made with this company. On several occasions in the past there appeared in these columns extended and favorable references to this company from the pen of our Philadelphia correspondent, and we have carefully watched the progress and operation of the company in order to determine whether his commendation was justified by subsequent developments.

Justice to a worthy corporation requires that we should extend the editorial endorsement of this paper to this company at the present time, and to say that it has more than fulfilled every claim originally advanced in its behalf. It is only simply truth and justice to say that the management of the company is to-day entitled to the highest praise and commendation for the conscientious straightforward manner in which they have carried out all of their obligations to those who have become identified with the enterprise as investors, and we are full warranted in making the assertion that no financial or investment institution in the country can show a cleaner, more satisfactory or honorable record in its liberal treatment of investors and the public at large than the Storey Cotton Company.

We are much gratified, of course, that the later development of the company's business and its fair and equitable methods have justified the early predictions of our Philadelphia correspondent, and it is equally a pleasure to add that the company are to-day stronger and better able to carry out their obligations than at any time in the past. We have the utmost confidence in the judgment and discretion of our Philadelphia correspondent, who has been the regular representative of this paper in that city for more than a quarter of a century past; and he has been thoroughly conversant with the business of the Storey Cotton Company from its inception, as well as its plans and methods, its financial stability and the high character of its management, his unqualified endorsement of the same naturally carries great weight.

The record of the Storey Cotton Company is one that can be assailed in no particular whatever; its treatment of its clients has always been eminently fair and just, and it has never made a promise that has not been fulfilled to the letter. We can only emphasize the fact that an investment made with this company possesses every essential element of security and remuneration, and we are confident that those who make such investments will place their money in an enterprise where every possible safeguard is thrown around the principal and where large earnings are assured beyond any reasonable doubt.
