CALL FOR STATE CONVENTION.

TO THE REPUBLICAN ELECTORS OF PENN-SYLVANIA:

SYLVANIA:
I am directed by the Republican State Committee to announce that the Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their daily chosen Representatives, will meet in convention at the Opera House, in the city of Harrisburg, on Wednesday, May 27th, 1993, at 10:30 o'clock, a.m., for the purpose of nominat-ing candidates for the following offices, to-wit: One person for the office of State Treasurer. One person for the office of Judge of the Su-tropersons for the office of Judge of the Superior Court.

In accordance with the rules governing the organization, the representation in the State Convention will be based on the vote polled at the last Presidential election. Under the rules each legislative district is entitled to one delegate. for every two thousand votes cast for the Presi, dential Electors in 1900, and additional delegate for every fraction of two thousand votes polled in excess of one thousand.

The Washington Post says: "Of all the "schemes of mice and men" that have ever been projected into American politics, the one which the New York Sun is, in its own peculiar way engaged in promoting, is the queerest. The realms of fiction, if exhaustively explored, would scarcely yield anything more wild than the idea of ex-President Cleveland as third term candidate running in the interests of the trusts. Yet that is the project which the Sun has in hand, and the same notion seems to have found lodgment in other quarters, as we find it gravely discussed in several publications of more of less

The Philadelphia Press: Discrediting reports to the effect that the coming Democratic convention of the state will declare for ex-President Cleveland, says: There is some talk of holding a Cleveland boom meeting at Harrisburg at the time of the Democratic state convention in September. Just as likely as not the intervening hot weather will cool that idea off considerably. The Democrats of Pennsylvania have performed many interesting flipflaps within the past years, but they have not courage hich enables them to lead in such a movement as that looking to the nomination of Cleveland; they are far more likely to stand around in a far more likely to stand around in a listening attitude until they can listening attitude until the attitude unt find out what is going to be done, and then tag along. They can all remember how at their state convention in 1896 they adopted a gold standard platform, and then came back from the national convention after Bryan was nominated, called themselves together again, ate all their principles and ordered others of a different kind dished up. There are a great many mistakes the Democrats of this state can make—and they miss few chances-but being too previous with platforms and presidential candidates will not be among them until recent experience has worn

Mixed paint is the same as watered milk. It seems to be cheap, but it isn't. Devoe lead and zinc is rich milk, it's creamy milk; seems to be costly, but it isn't. Cover more square feet to the gallon; covers it better; makes labor go further; lasts more years than any mixed paint; lasts more years than lead and oil.
