All praises of the Louisiana purchase exposition pale their ineffectual

Exposition's effulgence before those uttered by Rev. John T. M. Johnston, of the Delmar Avenue Baptist church of St. Louis, at the American Baptist anniversaries convention recently held in Buffalo. Mr. Johnston, speaking of the approaching fair as posterity's emphasis of a mighty event, is quoted: "Nothing has happened since Christ's resurrection, save Pentecost, the reformation and the declaration of American independence, that counts so much for civilization, enlightenment and uplift of the world as the Louisiana purchase." These mighty words should not be allowed to drift into the obscurity that so often swallows pesounding utterances that ring a great and resounding note in the horologe of time. The gay and thoughtless crowds at the world's fair, suggests the Globe-Democrat, as they stroll down the midway, and listen to the piping, barbaric music of the Streets of Cairo, as they linger over their steins in Old Vienna or call for real imported bratwurst in the Tyrolean Alps; or when they are introduced to the mysteries of Hindoo festivities, or are looking upon the green corn dance of the Pottawatomies, or the performances of all trained animals, must not imagine that all this is but a frivolous summer's holiday, but the celebration of one of the four greatest events of the Christian era.

Possibly another Stephen Foster may arise, and write durable songs, of which we can be proud. We really should have some songs which could be favorably compared with the standard Scotch or English songs. Such a condition on the part of the public taste, writes E. R. Kroeger, in the Frontier Monthly, would lead to a natural desire to cultivate a love for so-called "classical music." Eventually this might lead to our gamins whistling airs from the operas, as is the case in France, or teamsters humming motives from Beethoven's Symphonies, as is the case in Germany. This can be done only by united inof the vulgar "coon song" and the encouragement of a better class of music is within every one's reach Soon composers of that kind of song will see that the public no longer wishes it, and then they will try and do something better. By stages we can advance, and maybe a generation hence we will no longer be reproached with being "an unmusical

Men who have sacrificed youth and health, scrimped their families, and injured their digestion in the acquirement of a "pile," often think they are public benefactors, and that humanity in general owes them a debt of gratitude for being so rich. In consequence they resent as cruel injustice the fatigue, chagrin and newspaper notoriety that money invariably brings in its trail. It would be about as consistent, writes Elliot Gregory in Century, for a little boy who had gorged himself on purloined apples to feel injured when an avenging stomach-ache followed gluttony.

THE PRESIDENT AND IOWA.

Mistake of the Democracy Regarding the Tariff Situation in That State.

Some of the democratic papers are saying that President Roosevelt has been converted to the Iowa idea regarding the tariff. The fact is, however, that Gov. Cummins, one of the has been won over to the president's side on that question. According to revelations which have just been made, the president, in the interview which he had with the Iowa governor, showed that the latter stood on the platform of the St. Louis convention of 1896, on which McKinley was nominated the first time. That platform set forth: "We are not pledged to any particular schedules. The question of rates is a practical one, to be governed by the conditions of to be governed by the conditions of the time and of production. The rullican convention in Iowa, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

That act has given the country satisfaction. No sort of a trade statute evident the people of Ohio themselves want Mr. Roosevelt to be nominated and be eternal and some times. can be eternal, and some time or other the Dingley law will be revised the resolution to that effect which is by the republicans. It is well to remember that that act was one of the big factors in the restoration of the have already been passed and that prosperity which came to the country, very quickly after the democrats were turned out of the government is no re and the republicans were put in power. The act has not yet outlived its usefulness. The president is convinced of the truth of this proposi-tion. There would be no sense in That congress, in its first term, will be in session at the time the two big in the session which begins in December, 1903, would carry the enact-

The papers which are saying the president has surrendered to the Cummings faddists ought to know that William B. Allison is to write the platform of the coming Iowa convention. It is well known that Allison has always been against the immediate revision folly. He was hostile to Cummings' influence in the dictation of the policy of the Iowa into retirement. Henderson's disinto retirement. Henderson's dis-trict, however, is represented by a man who cares as little about the Cummins idea as did Henderson himself, but he has sense enough to hold on to his seat. The point of prime importance is to avert all schemes of tariff revision which are intended to go into operation before the presidential election. The ques-tion can be talked about afterward with less danger to the party, and less, also, to trade. Senator Al-l'son will see to it that nothing will into his state platform which will make him or Iowa ridiculous. The tariff will not be introduced into the approaching campaign, except as the democrats may do this by attacking the protective system. Their attacks, if they are made, will be welcome. Nothing would please it, he can.—Detroit Free Press (dem.). the republicans of the nation more than to see the democrats make a fierce assault on the tariff all along the line. If Cummins and his awkward squad of tariff smashers can incite the democracy to make an as sault on the protective policy by prosperity unknown anywhere else in the world, they will do a rare service for their party.

Cleveland Versus Bryan,

Of course, it will be expected that Mr. Bryan will take the stump for the republican ticket if Mr. Cleveland should be nominated next year. The republicans could win without Bryan's help on the stump, but we presume Mr. Hanna or the manager of the canvass, whoever he chances to be, will not put Nebraska man off the track if he wants to aid the republicans. The outlook for the republicans seems especially bright for the canvass of 1904 yet the campaign leaders should be willing to accept a two-thirds majority in the electoral college if Mr. Bryan and his friends are willing to help them to get it. As an assailant of the ex-president, the ex-presidential can-didate would be at his best. He would be able to attract as big audiences as greeted him when he was getting his vations in 1896 and 1900.—St. Louis

The decision of Senator Hanna not to oppose the adoption by the Ohio state republican convention of reso lutions favoring the nomination of President Roosevelt in 1904, closely followed by the inforsement given the president in the Pennsylvania state convention, removes all doubt of Mr. Rooseveit's nomination by acclama-tion to be his own successor.—Chicago Record-Herald.

ROOSEVELT AND HANNA.

Everything Is Understood Between Them as Regards the Nomination in 1904.

There has been a complete understanding between Senator Hanna and President Roosevelt for six months and perhaps for a longer time as re gards the nomination of the presi leading exponents of the Iowa fad, dent in 1904. Senator Hanna has said positively over and over again that he would not be a candidate and that he should be glad to give his support to the president. Under the circumstances, says the Chicago Tribune, it was a little bit like sharp practice for some Ohio politicians to attempt to force the senator's hand and compel a demand for the nomination of the president by the next state convention. There is no reason why his nomination should not be recoming and uncompromising principle is lar reason why an attempt should be the protection and development of American labor and industries." Cummins acknowledged that he stood on that declaration. The presumption is that a platform along that lies is that a platform along that line will be adopted in the approaching repubposed would be taken by some to signify that Senator Hanna might with draw his support from the president The republicans carried out the at the last moment.

The discussion has theoretical inated and are heartily in favor of others will go through state conventions as fast as they assemble, there is no reason why Ohio at this time should fail to join in the hallelujah

One thing may now definitely be predicted. It is that the republican convention of 1904 will be, so far as tion. There would be no sense in convention of 1904 will be so far as making any changes in this law at the present time. No sane republican in the country who thinks of the damage that tariff tinkering has done to the party guilty of it when it was done just before an important election will urge revision by the congress which meets next winter. That congress in its first term will give presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convention of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convented to a supplication of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convented to a supplication of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convented to a supplication of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convented to a supplication of 1904 will be, so far as the presidential nomination is convented to a supplication of 1904 will be presidential nomination is convented to a supplication of 1904 will vice presidential nomination, but even in that respect there will be conventions meet. A scheme of fariff nothing like the tumult occasiones by revision which should be entered on the enforced candidacy of Mr. Roosevelt and his nomination in spite of himself by some of those who ment of the bill to a date a few thought they were doing him an ill months previous to the election. next to McKinley. However, the vice presidency will not this pressed upon any unwilling or re-luctant candidate. In all probability the nominee will be agreed or months in advance of the meeting of the convention.

The platform, too, will occasion no dissension nor serious debate, either on the tariff or any other question. republicans. Of course, the Iowa It will be framed in committee and idea did not have the slightest effect in the congressional canvass of 1902, except as it sent Henderson harmony between the advocates of harmony between the advocates of the "lowa idea" and those of the "Pennsylvania idea," and nobody will disturb it.

There will be no malcontents in the convention from any quarter, so far as it is possible to judge at the present time. The convention will be almost equal in point of harmony the one which nominated Grant for the second time in 1872. Since then there has been no republican national convention quite so uneventful until that of 1900

POSTAL INQUIRY.

Two Clerks in the Postoffice Department Arrested.

Charge of Conspiracy to Defraud the United States Government in the Purchase of Mail Pouches
—Grand Jury Indicts A. W. Machen.

Washington, June 6 .- As a result of the sweeping investigation of affairs at the postoffice department, Thomas W. McGregor, a clerk in charge of the supplies for the rural free deliv-ery service, and C. Ellsworth Upton, of Baltimore, one of McGregor's as-sistants, were arrested Friday on the charge of conspiracy with Charles E. Smith, of Baltimore, to defraud the government in the purchase of the leather pouches furnished the rural carriers throughout the country. Their cases make seven arrests in all since the investigation began. Other arrests are expected later.

The story of Friday's arrests is best told in the following official statement given out by Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow last evening: "Thomas W. McGregor and C. Ellsworth Upton were arrested this afternoon upon warrants sworn out in Baltimore by Inspectors J. D. Sullivan and R. D. Simmons, charged with conspiracy with Charles E. Smith and others to defraud the United States government in the purchase of pouches from C. E. Smith, of Baltimore. more. The complaint sets forth that McGregor and Upton agreed with Smith to obtain for him orders for many thousand leather pouches such as are used by rural letter carriers. The price agreed upon was 90 cents per pouch; the actual value was less than 50 cents. Smith was to pay to them the difference between 90 and 50 cents per pouch. It is stated at the department that the actual number of pouches purchased exceeded 20,000, for which the government paid 90 cents each, or $18,000 in all. Smith received and retained of this for his ton. The government could have bought the entire number of pouches from the manufacturers for $8,000."

Baltimore, June 6.—Columbus Ellsworth Upton was locked up in the Central police station last night and is held for the United States authorities. He will be taken before United. is held for the United States authorities. He will be taken before United States Commissioner Rogers today or Monday. Bail was refused by the local police officials. Washington, June 6.-The grand washington, June 6.—The grand jury on Friday reported an indict-ment against August W. Machen, for-mer superintendent of the free deliv-ery service of the postoffice depart-ment, who was arrested several days ago, charged with sharing profits on government contracts for letter box fasteners. The indictment was brought for violation of Section 5501 of the revised statutes, the penalty for violation of which is a "fine not more than three times the amount asked or accepted or received, and by imprisonment not more than by imprisonment not more than three years."

The amount which the indictment states he received illegally is $18,987.79. Mr. Machen was in court with his attorneys when the grand jury reported and immediately gave bond in the sum of $20,000 for his appearance in court. The trial will occur in October.

President Roosevelt Returns to Washington After His Tour of the West.

Washington, June 6.—President Roosevelt returned to Washington last night from his memorable trip of over two months through the of over two months through the west. He was given a hearty reception by the people of the capital, who lined the sidewalks as his carriage, escorted by the battalion of high school cadets, was driven to the white House.

White House.
At the entrance to the White House grounds the president and his party passed the cadets in review. The avenue was lined with people and the applause which greeted the president on every hand was cordial. The fire engines of the city were stationed at the intersecting streets on the avenue and the tolling of their bells added to the welcome. While the review of the cadets was taking place a large crowd of people repaired to the rear of the White House where the Marine band gave a concert in honor of the arrival home of the chief executive. The trip just completed has been in some respects the most remarkable a president ever took. Mr. Roose-velt and his party traveled over 14,-000 miles on railroads and several hundred miles in stage coaches and carriages, but not an accident marred their journey.
