Gordon Beattie left on Monday to visit his brother in Buffalo.

S. J. Fee returned on Monday from an enjoyable visit to eastern points.

Mrs. Geo. W. Warner has returned from visiting friends at Machias, N. Y.

Miss Viola Farr, who has been visiting at Byrndaie, returned home last Saturday.

A full account of the Candy Kitchen Club's visit to Austin will appear in our next issue.

Mrs. Henry Farr, of Byrndaie, is visiting in town guest at the Farr home, on East Allegany Avenue.

Mrs. S. Faucett, who recently returned from visiting in Cleveland, was a Press business caller on Tuesday.

Mrs. Jas. B. Proudfoot who has been visiting her son and family at this place for the past six weeks, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. James Logan and daughter of Austin have been visiting John Montgomery and family at this place the past few days.

Mrs. Geo. Webber, of East Emporium was called to Buffalo on Tuesday, on account of the serious illness of her mother with typhoid fever.

Miss Byrde Taggart who attended Bucknell Commencement last week has gone to visit relatives at Reading and Philadelphia for some time.

Capt. C. F. Barclay, of Sinnamahoning, who is one of the busiest business men in this section, is kept continually on the go, looking after his varied interests.

Alva H. Gregory, editor of Johnsonburg Press visited in Emporium over Sunday, guest of friends. Mr. Gregory gets up a lively sheet—a credit to Johnsonburg.

Thos. Welsh and Jacob Huffman killed a rattlesnake on Sixth street, last Saturday evening. The exterminators presented ye editor with the rattles for a pocket piece.

Edwin G. Clarke returned from Buffalo on Monday, accompanied by his mother, who has been receiving treatment at the hands of Dr. Mann. Mrs. Clarke is greatly improved.

Miss Flossie Taggart attended Commencement at Oberlin College, O., after which she left for Cleveland, Corry, Warren, Wilcox and Ridgway, on an extended visit. She reports a pleasant time.

Miss Helen VanValkenburg, of the faculty of the public school in Chatham, N. J., has returned here to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. VanValkenburg.—Wellsboro Agitator.

Master Floyd Parks, of Emporium, is visiting his sister, Mrs. L. Clark, and brother, Norman Parks.... Mrs. W. A. Miller, of East Emporium, spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Jacob Thomas.—Johnsonburg Press.

Prof. W. J. Leavitt and family left on Erie "Flyer" Wednesday morning for Clarion, where they expect to spend a few days visiting and to be present at the golden wedding of Mrs. Leavitt's parents.

Fred Crosby, Frank Shives' popular clerk, was a brief Press caller yesterday.

Michael Zwald was a Press caller on Friday last and pushed his paper ahead another year.

Jury Commissioner David S. Logue, one of Gibson's substantial citizens, was a Press caller on Monday, renewing his subscription for another year.

Miss Mattie M. Collins, of Driftwood, and Miss Brooks, of Sterling Run, are attending the convention of State Teachers at Wilkes Barre, Pa., this week.

Mrs. Jos. Meyer, of Erie, Pa., is guest of her sister, Mrs. R. Seger. The lady was called here by the serious accident that befell her brother, Michael Zimmit.

Misses Jennie and May Gould visited Atlantic City last week, guests of the Pennsylvania Editorial Association. Miss Lillie Lawrence, of Eldred, accompanied them.

R. C. Dodson is visiting at Austin this week, guest of his brother-in-law Dan'l Collins. As soon as Mr. Dodson landed in Potter every trout within 20 miles of Austin made their sneak.

Miss Sadie Smith, of Ithaca, N. Y., sang with the choir of the First Methodist Episcopal Church last Sunday, and with Mr. Geo. A. Walker, Jr., rendering a vocal duet in a very pleasing style.

Clifton Sage Larrabee, in the employ of the Union Petroleum Co., at Philadelphia, who has been visiting his parents at this (and incidentally some friends in surrounding towns) place returned to his duties on Tuesday, having enjoyed his month's vacation.

Miss Ethel Winward, of Boston, a very excellent young lady, who visited here last season, arrived in town last Saturday to spend a few weeks here, guest of Mrs. Geo. Metzger, Sr., and wife. Miss Winward is attending Radcliffe University.

Mrs. Thos. H. Norris was called to Corry last week, Wednesday, to attend the funeral of an aunt, Mrs. J. H. Griffing, aged 74 years. Mrs. Griffing has visited in Emporium in recent years, guest of the late Mrs. C. C. Fay, and met many of our citizens.

Don M. Larrabee came up from Philadelphia last Thursday to visit his parents and friends for a few days, leaving here on Saturday for Meadville, where there is a greater attraction, in a contract to be consummated in the very near future. Our young friend certainly has the best wishes of our people in his energetic push for a front seat in the band wagon of prosperity. He'll get there, mark ye.

Mr. Taggart gave his Sunday school class, the Candy Kitchen Club, a greatly appreciated treat yesterday in the way of a drive to Austin. The girls have been doing splendid work for the new church, and the ride comes in the way of a well merited reward. Mr. Taggart was to be envied as the girls are the kind that have made the American girl famous for her loveliness the world over. They report a glorious trip and have promised us the particulars later.

Since the reorganization of the Elk Tanning Co., and the organization of the new Central Pennsylvania Lumber Co., C. D. Osterhout has severed his connection with the former company and accepted the position of land and bark superintendent with the latter concern. This was the place he held with the Elk Tanning Co. He will still make Ridgway his headquarters and direct operations from here. C. G. Minick still occupies the place of bark superintendent of the Elk Tanning Co.—Ridgway Advocate.

Hon. John McDonald, of Driftwood, was a Press visitor yesterday, accompanied by Mr. Walker, of Poca, W. Va., who was married last evening, at the residence of the bride's mother, to Miss Mary R. Hall, one of Driftwood's estimable ladies and a teacher in the schools. Mr. Walker is engaged in the mercantile business at Poca. Rev. Faus, the officiating clergyman, appears to be doing a land office business in knot tying. The Press congratulates Mr. and Mrs. Walker and wish them well. While not personally acquainted with the bride, yet we know, from meeting the groom, that he would choose only the best.

Jimmie and Joe have returned from their trip. Jimmie took in all the sights at Atlantic City except the ocean; he could not grasp quite all of that. He met Joe at Watsonstown and took him home, to entertain him in the royal way of his German ancestors. They pointed out a tree loaded with ripe cherries and told Joe to help himself. Had there been cherries enough he would have been up there yet. Just before leaving Jimmie's sister asked him where his soiled linen was, that she might fix it up for him. Mistaking the corner of the room which he told her, she got Joe's instead. Joe says he never had his linen done up so neat and artistically. Jimmie has also a sad tale of losing a card case at Lock Haven, containing all the money he had left. Fortunately he had his ticket back in a different pocket, but it takes money and not tickets to pay for ice cream and livery rigs and poor Jimmie had to fly for home on the mid-night Flyer.

Mrs. Maud English, of Driftwood, was shopping in town this morning.

Miss Nina Bryan left yesterday to visit friends in Philadelphia.

Mrs. J. B. Schriever and daughter have returned to their home at Scranton.

Mrs. W. F. Cool returned on Saturday from visiting her parents at Roulette.

Mrs. M. J. Byrnes, of Mt. Alto, Pa., is visiting her mother and friends in town.

Albert Haupt has been enjoying a much needed rest visiting relatives at Elmira.

Mrs. W. H. Howard and son William, Jr., returned yesterday from visiting in Philadelphia.

Col. J. O. Brookbank, of Driftwood, paid his usual weekly visit to Emporium on Monday.

Mr. F. L. Arnold, of Ourwensville, Pa., was in Emporium yesterday, en route for Galeton.

Mr. Zimmit is resting easy this morning, so we are informed by his son-in-law, Mr. Jos. Kinsler.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hinkle enjoyed a visit, to day, from Mr. H's brother Lewis and wife, from Wilcox.

Geo. Pepper and wife left on Monday to visit relatives at Watkens Glenn, Elmira and other points.

Miss Lena Shane, one of Emporium's pleasant young ladies, was a business caller at this office this morning.

Miss Carrie Evans returned from Punxsutawney yesterday, where she has been visiting, on account of the serious illness of her sister Hattie.

Miss Gussie Voshage, of Ashland, Pa., and Miss LaBessa Coleman, Milton, Pa., are guests of Mrs. Fred Julian, at her palatial home on North Broad street.

County Treasurer Yothers and Geo. H. Crawford, who have been devoting much time at their lumber operations at Grantonia, were looking after their business interests in town the past week.

Arch F. Andrews reports his wife, who is receiving treatment at Elmira, greatly improved although his son has been confined to his bed. Mr. Andrews enjoyed a long distance 'phone talk last evening, with his loved ones.

Chester Hockley, son of Mr. Alfred Hockley, one of our best citizens, came down from Buffalo yesterday to visit his father and brother for a week. Chester, we are pleased to learn, is filling a responsible position with the Delaware & Lackawanna Iron & Steel Company, in mechanical engineering department. The Press is pleased to note his progress.
