Manager Brady, of the Iron Works, is enjoying a visit from his wife and daughter, who are occupying rooms in the flat over Olmsted's store.
Robert Mundy, of Johnstown and Mrs. Hutchinson, Brockwayville, were guests of Ex-Sheriff Frank Mundy and wife, last week—Mr. Mundy's sister and brother.
Mrs. Alex. Schwab and Mrs. Green alich and daughter, of Cameron, were shopping in town on Tuesday. Mrs. Schwab and Miss Greenaleh made the Press a brief business call.
John D. Logan went to Sunbury Saturday evening to visit his mother, who is in a very feeble condition. The venerable lady is in her 80th year and nearing dissolution, it is feared.
Squire Blodget, of Grove, came to Emporium on Monday and squared up his tax duplicate with the County Commissioners. Mr. Blodget is a very efficient official in any position he occupies.
R. P. Bingham and family came over from Oleona, (where Mr. B. is conducting an extensive lumber job for Lackawanna Lumber Co.) to pass a few days in good old Emporium. They enjoyed their visit here.
Sylvester Beldin, while down from Moore Hill on Monday, did not forget the Press and promptly pushed his date ahead. "Yet" likes to keep "about square with the world" and is always prompt to pay his bills.
Brother M. T. Stokes, editor of the Coudersport Enterprise was in Emporium last week and paid the Press a fraternal visit. We found the gentleman very pleasant and hope he may again favor us with a call.

B. W. Green, Esq., is spending the week at his Tioga farm.
Miss Marian Rantz returned on Tuesday from an extended visit at Warren. J. S. Vail and wife of Jersey Shore, are visiting Urban Boutain and family.
Urban Boutain and J. S. Vail visited Oleon yesterday and took in the sights.

Mrs. S. D. McDonald and Mrs. Peter Ledue, of town, were social callers at the Press sanctum yesterday.
Richard J. Lloyd is taking great comfort in his new carriage just purchased. He now sports a blue turnout.
Sheriff Hemphill and wife visited at St. Marys last Saturday. Mrs. H. is now visiting at her old home, Clearfield.
John Zwald, of Shippen, was a welcome Press caller on Thursday last, and pushed the date on his paper ahead two notches.
Mrs. J. M. Robertson and children have gone to Monticelli, N. Y., to pass the summer months with Mrs. Robertson's mother.
H. B. Manette and Fred Tompkins enjoyed a visit to Shawmut mines on Tuesday. It was Fred's first experience in a coal mine.
Geo. W. Gentry, of Lumber, was transacting business in town on Tuesday and, of course, called on the Press editor for a brief chat.
Frank G. Judd recently sold his pony and rig to L. S. Hinkle, of Wilcox—John J. Hinkle's brother. Max Balcom drove the pony to Wilcox.
Miss Rose Bair and Miss Carrie Huff left on Tuesday on an extended visit to Washington, Philadelphia, New York and Atlantic City. They anticipate a pleasant time.
Fred Johnson, son of Hon. J. C. Johnson and a registered law student in the office of Johnson & McNamey, has returned from his vacation, having visited Buffalo and various other places.
Harry Moore and wife, of Keating Summit, accompanied by their niece Jenevevie Moore, of Croyleand, were visiting in town last week, Tuesday, after spending a few days with Thos. Moore and wife, at Croyleand.
H. Clinton Olmstead drove over from Coudersport and pleasantly passed the Sabbath with Emporium friends, July 5th. He drove back on Monday but owing to the wretched condition of Fourth street, took Sixth street route.
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gillon, of Towanda, Pa., have been guests of Dr. Smith and family the past week, enjoying our mountain air. Mr. Gillon returned to his home on Monday, but his wife and young son will remain here some time.
William H. Logue, of Gibson, who is employed by Willson Bros. as carpenter, was in town on Tuesday, attending the funeral of Mrs. Julia Earl, and was a Press caller for the purpose of renewing his subscription for another year.
Mrs. Mac Horton, wife of the wireless telegraphy expert who wired Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht Shamrock, is guest of H. C. Olmsted and family at this place. Mrs. Horton was formerly Miss Mae Leet and has many friends in Emporium.
Michael McCarthy, an industrious citizen, who has been employed in Howard & Co's mill for many years, has accepted a position with Adams Express Company, at this place as night transfer man. He will be a good man for the place.
Miss Sarah Elizabeth Smith, after a pleasant visit of some weeks with the family of Judge and Mrs. Geo. A. Walker, supplemented by a brief stay at "Camp Punkey" among the virgin wilds of Cameron county, has returned to her home at Ithaca, N. Y.
Invitations have been received by Emporium friends announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Mabelle Grace Hughes and Mr. John George Murry, at Buffalo, July 22. The prospective groom is an old Emporium boy, son of Mrs. David Murry.
Joseph Strayer, everybody knows Joe and likes him, walked across country, several days ago, from Potter county to Emporium, in order to get home to spend Sunday with his family at Sinnamahoning. While in town he did not forget the Press and made us happy.
S. E. Cameron, of Towanda, Pa., a former Emporium young man, visited his relatives and friends in town the past week. Mr. Cameron, we are pleased to hear, is prosperous in his new home, where he has charge of the wood carving department. The Press goes to his address every week.
Prof. H. F. Stauffer and family of Millville, N. J., are spending the summer months at Annyville, Pa., and orders the Press changed to that address. The many Cameron county friends of the Prof. will be glad to hear that he has again been chosen principal of Millville schools and at an increased salary.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Garrity and daughter Annie, are spending a few days at Chautauqua Lake, having left here on Tuesday on their vacation. Mr. Garrity is one of P. R. R.'s most reliable engineers and seldom takes time to rusticate.
Mrs. Frank Taylor entertained at her residence on West Allegany Avenue, one day last week, a party of little ladies, in honor of Miss Mildred Lloyd' the occasion being Mildred's birthday. Of course the little folks had a good time.
The Press enjoyed a visit yesterday from Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Hersey, Cleveland, O.; Mrs. W. D. VanLew, Butler, Pa.; Mrs. Geo. Foutz, Caledonia and Mrs. Perry Gray, Binghamton, N. Y., who are visiting their sister, Mrs. E. D. Sizer, at Sizerville. They placed their subscription for the Press.

Mrs. E. A. Waltman, son and daughter, of Wrightsville, Pa., who have been enjoying a pleasant visit of several weeks in Emporium, guests of T. B. Lloyd and family, returned home yesterday. Mrs. W. is sister of Mrs. Lloyd and resembles her so much that many of our citizens could not tell the difference.
Mrs. James L. Norie and son, accompanied by Mrs. Chas. E. Kaye and Miss Jane Kaye left on the Flyer, Sunday morning for Westboro, Wis., to spend the summer months there with Mrs. Norie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kaye. Mr. Norie accompanied the party as far as Niagara Falls, where they put in the day.
Miss Nina Bryan is extending her visit to Philadelphia in order to get the latest idea in kindergarten schools of the Quaker City now open for six weeks. The schools are now establishing grades in sewing, basket weaving, raffia work, wood work, drawing and elementary branches of study. No doubt Miss Bryan will return with much valuable information for her school, which opens in Sept.
A. D. MacDonnell, of Westboro, Wis., where he is in the employ of Howard & Company, as head bookkeeper and trusted official, came east last week enroute for Canada to see his wife and take her home with him. Mr. MacDonnell stopped in Emporium and shook hands with many friends. Mr. MacDonnell reports all Cameron county boys doing nicely.

NEW WAY TO SELL MEDICINE.
L. Taggart Gives Guarantee Bond With Mi-o-na, the Flesh-Forming Food.
The proprietors of Mi-o-na, the marvelous flesh-forming food and digestion regulator, have made arrangements with L. Taggart to sell this remarkable preparation in a new and hitherto unheard of way; furnishing a guarantee bond with every package.
GUARANTEE BOND.
In buying a package of Mi-o-na, the purchaser is requested to have this guarantee signed by L. Taggart as his absolute agreement to refund the money, if Mi-o-na does not give an increase in weight, and cure dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.
Signed.....
L. Taggart will give the above bond with every 50c box of Mi-o-na he sell. You run no risk in buying Mi-o-na.
For years there has been a demand for a natural means of increasing the flesh and Mi-o-na has come to supply this need. It is not a cod liver oil preparation, but a combination of flesh-forming elements with remedies that regulate and aid digestion and restore health.
Everyone who is troubled with dyspepsia, headache, distress after eating, dizzy feeling or loss of appetite or who is losing weight and in a run-down condition, should take the guarantee bond to L. Taggart and commence the use of Mi-o-na at his risk, remembering that the treatment costs you nothing unless it does all that is claimed for it.
