OF SHORT DURATION.

Conviction at the Vatican That Election Will Soon Be Made.

SHORT CONTRACT OF PURVEYORS

Cardinal Oreglia Has Ordered a New Fisherman's Ring—Pope Leo's Presents to Relatives, Members of Household and Others—Possibility That a Foreign Cardinal May Be Elected.

Rome, July 29.—The Tribuna says that as the fisherman's ring, which could not be found after the death of the pope, may be discovered in some drawer which was sealed up and cannot be opened until after the election of the new pope, the camerlengo, Cardinal Oreglia, has ordered a new one for use in the symbolic ceremony which occurs immediately after the successor to Leo is chosen.

The member of the Noble Guard who was overcome during the regium mass in the Sistine chapel while on duty beside the catafalque, was Count Stampa, who a few days ago was placed under arrest for feigning illness. Today he had a slight attack of syncope.

It is officially announced that in addition to the will of the late pope, and separate from it, Leo XIII left a trifling present to each of a long list of relatives, members of the papal household, prelates, doctors, cardinals, etc. As many formalities have to be observed, it will probably be some time before these gifts are delivered.

That there is a conviction at the Vatican that the conclave will be of short duration is proved by the fact that all those who are to enter the conclave to minister to the wants of the cardinals have been engaged for only three days.

Two camps into which the sacred college is divided appear to be becoming daily more irreconcilable, and it is said that the anti-Rampolla faction has declared that, if necessary to defeat the opposition, they will even go to the length of supporting a foreign cardinal. The name of Cardinal Kopp, bishop of Breslau, was mentioned in this connection, but was hardly considered seriously.

OFFICE FOR THE DEAD.

Great Service Celebrated at St. Patrick's Cathedral Last Night.

New York, July 29.—The first great service for the repose of the soul of Pope Leo was celebrated at St. Patrick's cathedral last night. It was the chanting of the "office for the dead." The church was decorated with bands of mourning and a great catafalque rose 15 feet high at the gates of the sanctuary. Surmounting it was a triple crown.

The church was crowded to the doors. More than a hundred priests and seminarians participated in the ceremony. Archbishop Farley was accompanied by Bishop-elect Colton of Buffalo and Monsignor Edwards. Before him marched the Dominicans in their robes of white and the Franciscans wore brown habits. Ranged on both sides of the sanctuary, all knelt in silent prayer for a few minutes and then the "office" was intoned by the Rev. Dr. Richard O. Hughes and Professor Ungerer, director of the Sanctuary choir.

Favor Cardinal Rampolla.

Paris, July 29.—Cardinal Laboure, archbishop of Rennes, and Cardinal Ajuti, nuncio at Lisbon, in interviews have expressed hopes that the action of the conclave will be favorable to Cardinal Rampolla.

No Callers at Sagamore Hill.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 29.—Postmaster General Payne, who is cruising along the North Atlantic coast in the revenue cutter Onondaga, will visit the president probably on Thursday or Friday. He will resume his duties in the postoffice department Monday. It is understood that Mr. Payne's health has improved materially. No callers were received at Sagamore Hill, the president passing the time with his family.

Believed to Be Drowned.

Beaumont, Muskoka, Ont., July 29.—Joseph Hosack, a Princeton university student, whose home is at Carnegie, Pa., accompanied by Walter Mehard of Mercer, Pa., a medical student of John Hopkins university, sailed to Gravenhurst in a canoe Sunday, where they picked up a cousin of Hosack's. The paddles of the canoe and Mehard's coat were picked up on the lake. All three are believed to have perished.

Speculator Used City Money.

Montreal, July 29.—Albert Fournier, a civic official, has been missing some days and it was supposed he had fled across the border owing to a shortage in his accounts. His body was found floating in the St. Lawrence, not far from the city. He had been speculating in stocks and had used the city's money.

Last Revolutionist Surrendered.

Caracas, Venezuela, July 29.—General Antonio Ramos, one of the last of the chiefs of the revolution to remain in the field, who had a camp near Santa Lucia, has surrendered to the government, together with four hundred men, their arms and ammunition.

First Fork.
Ezra E. Logue, who died on July 24th, aged 28 years and nine months, was buried in the Gilmore cemetery at this place Sunday last at 2 o'clock p. m. He died of cerebro spinal meningitis following a long siege of typhoid fever. He had made two trips to the Klondyke in company with his cousin Irvin Logue, of Huntley, had dug gold where the frost remains the year round, rafted and boated down the Yukon, went over the Chilkoot pass, helped dig the miners out of the avalanche where so many lost their lives, having passed over the same ground safely only a few hours previously. After returning from his second trip he went to Idaho where he took up a timber and homestead claim, during last year, near Garden Valley. His health not being very good he came here and spent the winter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Logue, intending to return in the spring, but was taken sick and after suffering for several months, without a word of complaint, passed to the great beyond, leaving a father, mother and two sisters to mourn his death. He led an exemplary life and everybody speaks well of him. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Bubb, of this circuit, and but a small number of the people could find room in the house. Friends were present from Dritwood, Sinnamahoning, and up the stream to Costello and Austin. The physicians announce that exposure in the Klondyke country was the cause of his disease.

Jas. Mundy bought Foe's store building at this place and it is being torn down by Mr. Lamb, and is to be moved up to McFalls on East Fork.

The Huckleberry business has come to a close owing to the supply running out.

Haying and harvesting are now in progress with a middling fair crop of hay.

Irvin Logue is now a cattle rancher in the State of Washington.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick of Colusa, Calif., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely cured me. Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by L. Taggart Druggist."

Oranges and Tobacco.

"Did you ever notice," asked a well known physician the other day, "that men who eat oranges are not much injured by smoking? It is a fact. Orange juice has the faculty of neutralizing nicotine, and that is the reason. I have seen men weakened and even made ill by excessive smoking, and a few oranges were all that was necessary to straighten them out."—Philadelphia Record.

Cause For Pride.

Wanton—What's the matter, Blankley? You're all cut about and your arm in a sling, as though you had been in a fight, and yet you look beaming and smiling over it all.
Blankley—The fact is I have all along thought my boy Harold a sort of muf, and the other day I undertook to give him some boxing lessons. This is the result of the first lesson. Oh, I'm proud of that boy!

He Was Competent Himself.

Bobby's father was breaking the news to him.
"How would you like to have a little brother, Bob?" he asked.

"First rate," replied the youngster cheerfully. Then he reflected a minute. "No," he said slowly. "I guess, after all, I'd rather have a sister. I'm a boy myself, you know."—New York Tribune.

Proximity of Now and Then.

"Bigglesworth isn't addicted to drink, is he?"
"Addicted? Oh, no. Of course he takes a glass now and then."
"I see I must modify my question. Doesn't Bigglesworth let his 'now' blend with his 'then' a little too frequently?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Question of Courage.

Phyllis—Yes, he was paying attention to her quite a long time.
Blanche—Perhaps he hadn't the courage to propose.
Phyllis—Oh, I don't know. Perhaps he had the courage not to propose.—Town and Country.

An Obstinate Man.

"Is it true the jury disagreed in that murder case?"
"Yes; they say there was one blamed crank that held out for convictin' the man who done the killin'."—Chicago Tribune.
