A BIG JUBILEE EVENT.

Welsh Bros' Shows Promise Many Rare Sights and Up-to-Date Features.

The town and vicinity is heavily billed for the appearance of the famous Welsh Bros' Big Railroad Shows. The Welsh Bros. do not come here as strangers or adventurers, but as proprietors of a show whose reputation with press and public stands second to none. Its success has been achieved by the fundamental principle of offering the best in the market at the lowest price. It is strictly moral in tone and character and not one word said or done to offend the most fastidious lady or gentleman. The features this year are better than ever, one of the most prominent is the renowned Takezawa Royal Japanese Troupe (eight people). These dexterous Orientals appear in many amazing acrobatic and novelty acts, all gorgeously embellished with unique and costly paraphernalia and costumes typical of their native land. Another great card is the introduction of Prof. John White's conclave of trained animals, which comprises several Arabian horses, twenty-five dogs, goats, mules and monkeys, all marvelously trained and exhibiting exploits and tricks out of the ordinary line. Then there are many big aerialistic acts, clever lady gymnasts, up-to-date clowns, jugglers, wire walkers, and sensational specialists of every kind. Seats are provided for five thousand persons; uniformed ushers are in attendance to look after the wants and comfort of patrons. The street parade will leave the show grounds on the morning of the exhibition promptly at ten o'clock. The exact day and date here is Emporium, Monday, August 17th, at 2 and 8 p. m.

Mr. Gallagher's Melon Party.

Last Saturday Mr. Thos. Gallagher gave a melon party for a number of his friends, composed of the two young ladies from Buffalo; Miss Thomas; Miss Steek; Miss Lingle; Miss Nangle; Mrs. Moore, and Mrs. Cloyes. "T. C." was right at home with the melon knife and after supplying each with a hunk of the melon, slipped into a crowded spot among the girls to have his picture "took" by Mr. Grant Allen, who was perched upon a barrel with his camera. Grant is pretty sure of footing but when he did tumble down he took a small boy with him; said he never did like to go places alone. "Dick" was so busy eating melon that he never noticed a handful of seeds one of the girls poured down the back of his neck. Ruben "smelled de melon" from the furnace and came running over to see what was doing. He obligingly agreed to pose for his picture showing "de white folks how to eat melon," if given a whole one to operate on, together with the irrepressible small boys who were ready to "dig in" at the word "go!" Unfortunately the girls could not stay long. Come again ladies, all of you—and more; we are never so busy but what we are glad to see you, and after a short visit with you, the sun shines brighter, the world seems better, and our burdens lighter.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

RISHHELL.

Mrs. Catharine A. Rishell, the wife of W. A. Rishell, died at her home near Clintondale on Sunday afternoon, after patiently suffering for two years with a complication of troubles. Deceased was 60 years old and is survived by her husband and the following children: Robert, John and Lewis, of Austin; Samuel, of Johnstown; James, of Johnsonburg; Thomas, of Clintondale; Charles, of Emporium; George, of Erie, and Mrs. George McClintock, of Johnsonburg. Burial was made Wednesday afternoon at Cedar Hill. The funeral was very largely attended by near relatives and friends, and the body was borne to its last resting place by the eight sons.

LININGER.

Edward Lininger, aged 28 years, died at his home near Cameron, last Monday, after a long illness from pulmonary complaint. He was a very exemplary young man and had a large circle of friends. A father, three brothers, and one sister survive him. Services were conducted in the hall at Cameron, last Wednesday, jointly by his pastor the Rev. R. J. Knox and the Rev. O. S. Metzler. Members of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, of which the deceased was a member, acted as bearers. Interment was made in Newton Cemetery, at this place.

For Rent.

Nicely furnished rooms with bath for rent. Also suitable for light housekeeping. Apply at Press office

A Coming Entertainment.

The Corner Stone Club met Saturday evening and decided to hold an entertainment Thursday evening, August 27. These ladies are conscientious and possessed of much more than ordinary artistic ability, so we may look forward to a particularly enjoyable treat.

His New Situation.

Frank McCabe, now with the City Drug Store has accepted a position with Jacob Hurwitz. He will take his new situation August 15th. Mr. Hurwitz has undoubtedly secured a valuable aide and a host of friends will wish Mr. McCabe a successful career as clothing, gent's furnishings and dry goods clerk.—Austin Republican.

Camping Party.

The Rev. J. M. Robertson of Emmanuel Church has taken a party of Sunday school boys to the DuBois camp in Hick's Run for a two day's outing. The following boys compose the party. Max Balcom, Carl Hackett, Floyd Fancett, Burton Edwards, George Fetter, Clyde Thomas, Rodney Shives, Charles Cloyes, Eddie Viner, Frank Housler.

Farmer's Institutes in This Section.

Director of Institutes Martin, of the department of agriculture, at Harrisburg has issued a list of the Pennsylvania farmers' institutes for the season of 1903-4, showing the counties, towns and dates when these institutes, will be held. The dates for Cameron county, place not selected, is January 19, 20 and 21.

A Contemptible Trick.

Some miscreants sneaked into the back room of Mr. Taggart's drug store, Saturday morning, and stole most of the Candy Kitchen Club's candy, which they had made for the afternoon sale; much to the regret of their many customers who think there is no candy quite so good as what the girls make. As the proceeds from the sale of their candy goes to the new church building fund, it was a particularly contemptible steal. The Press will have an eye on the watch for these persons and if we catch them their taste for candy will be spoiled for some time to come.

Woodsmen's Awful Fate Under Engine.

Henry Herring, a woodsman, was instantly killed on the Philadelphia and Erie railroad Saturday night. He left the station at Wetham shortly after 10 o'clock, saying that he intended walking to the home of Joseph Johnson, a mile or more away. He started up the railroad tracks, and had gone only half a mile when he was struck by an east bound light train, consisting of engine and caboose. He was horribly mangled, and death must have been instantaneous. His head was crushed and both legs broken. Coroner Shoemaker was called, but he did not deem an inquest necessary, as the facts showed the death to have been accidental. Herring was about forty-seven years of age.—Williamsport Sun.

Delighted With Emporium.

Miss Edna Becker and Miss Florence Robertson, two charming young ladies of Buffalo, who arrived in our town some two weeks ago to visit Miss Eva Yates, left Sunday for home, via Portage Falls. They report having the jolliest kind of a time here and were as sorry to leave us as we were to have them go. Miss Yates gave a little party for them in the Reading Room, on their arrival, where they met many of our young folks and from that on found their time crowded full of walks, drives and delightful little parties. Last Friday they made a trip to the woods on the E. & R. V. R. R. with Mr. and Mrs. Lingle. Mr. Lingle is The Man of the woods and to go with him is an open sesame to the hospitality of the road and camps. They say they had a dinner at Camp 19 which would have been a credit to the chef of a city hotel. "Jimmie" Murphy furnished the surprise of the day, with a practical demonstration of the amount of grub a healthy country boy can stow away. Fortunately Mr. Davison with his supply train arrived before it was time to get the men's supper, else Jimmie would not have gotten an invitation to visit Camp 19 again—at meal time. The girls attended Mr. Gallagher's melon party Saturday and hurried away for a drive over our beautiful hills. Come again, next summer, ladies, and you will find we have not forgotten you.

If you want a good suit of clothes for a very small price, make N. Seger a call and you will be convinced that at his store is the cheapest place this part of the state to buy your clothing.

Fatal Accident.

Harry Cleveland, whose parents reside at Bells Run, about nine miles from Port Allegany, was the victim of a fatal accident last Sunday night at the Emporium Junction. He was employed as a brakeman on a west-bound freight, and had left his train to deliver a message, when a car on which there was no light and whose approach he did not see, in the prevailing darkness struck him, the wheels passing over both legs, horribly mangle them. He was taken to the trainmen's office near by and Dr. Smith summoned, but owing to his extremely weak condition, a reaction being awaited, an operation was not attempted. He lingered about two hours and surrounded by his physician, the Rev. Metzler, who, at his request, had been sent for, and a large number of his sympathetic and true hearted fellow workmen, he passed away. It was a truly pathetic scene and its impression must long abide. Deceased was about 22 years old, and had been employed as a brakeman for nearly a year on the run from Renovo to Kane. He enjoyed the esteem of all the boys who speak in praise of his many manly qualities. His father arrived soon after his death and the remains were taken to Bells Run for burial.

The New Presbyterian Church.

The laying of the foundation facing stones of the new church is about completed. They are beautiful stones and artistically laid. We are told that it would only cost about fourteen hundred dollars more to face the entire building with them, instead of brick. This would make it one of the most beautiful churches in this section of the State, and add greatly to the beauty of the town, besides harmonizing with those fine old maple trees and the stone Episcopal church across the street. Our townspeople, who are ever generous in church matters, have watched, with admiration, the magnificent struggle the Presbyterians are making to build their church, from the youngest member in the Sunday School to the oldest member in the congregation, and would be glad to contribute directly or indirectly to this added cost, if given the opportunity to do so.

Take a Stand Against Lynching.

There has been an alarmingly increased number of lynchings during the past few months, in Northern as well as in Southern States. We have often wondered what would be the result if an occasion should arise in Emporium to tempt the spirit of lawless mob vindictiveness. It is highly probable that with the same provocation that has been given in other places, a lynching mob could be as easily assembled here as elsewhere, unless we shall school ourselves strongly in advance in a sentiment that is unalterably opposed to all lawlessness. To be forewarned is to be forearmed. Let the idea that all lynching is murder take fast hold of our minds. That is what a right minded jurist, like Justice Brewer, calls it. If we shall all make up our minds in advance that lynching is wrong and not to be tolerated and if we determine resolutely in advance that we will do all in our power to uphold the hands of the law if the hour of trial should come, there can be no doubt that the majesty of the law will remain unscathed among us. Every citizen should read the letter of President Roosevelt to Governor Durbin of Indiana. No stronger utterance against lynching has appeared from any quarter.

Another thing to remember in this connection. The underlying idea which impels to lynching and other forms of mob violence is the thought that law has not been and is not going to be justly administered. There is no doubt reason sometimes for complaint of the law's delay and of miscarriages of justice; but on the other hand it is far too easy to exaggerate these evils. Many people allow themselves to fall into a sneering and cynical spirit. They affect to see no truth or honor or justice anywhere. They sneer at civil authorities and at all in places of influence and responsibility. As for their own part and responsibility in the life and government of the community, they seem utterly oblivious to it. They always say "they" when speaking of the organized community, never "we". We should discourage this base spirit in ourselves and in others. It feeds the monster of anarchy and lawlessness.

The Kandy Kitchen Klub will hold a lawn ice cream social at the home of Chas. Clark on 5th street, Friday evening, August 14th. Everybody come and see how nice the K. K. K. will do you up.

FLORA SCHLECHT, President.

Base Ball.

There will be a game of base ball at Howard Park to-morrow afternoon between Austin and Emporium teams, weather permitting.

Festival on Saturday Night.

The Howard Siding M. E. congregation will hold a festival in the school house, on Saturday evening, Aug. 15, to which all are cordially invited.

Camping Out.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gleason and Dr. and Mrs. Corbett, of Driftwood, form a merry party of campers who have pitched their tents at a point near Huntley for a week or more.

Entertains Bachelor Girls.

Mr. Josiah Howard, this evening entertains the Bachelor Girls, giving a dance in the Park Pavilion in honor of her niece, Miss Encie Howard, and Miss Howard's guests' Misses Louise and Elizabeth Searles, of Herkimer, N. Y.

Efforts Crowned With Success.

The festival given at Cameron on Saturday evening was a very great success. The finance committee appointed by the Pastor of the M. E. Church, showed their ability along this line by netting $24.05. The committee as appointed were: Mr. Dount and wife; Mr. Swan and wife, and Mrs. Dininney. These were ably assisted by several others and especially by the young ladies.

Will Leave Us.

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Baker will be sorry to learn that they have decided to leave Emporium. The Dr. and his estimable wife have been residents of our town for the past nine or ten years and have a host of warm friends who will regret to see them go. They will depart for Williamsport about September 1st and take up their residence at 427 Park Avenue. May they ever continue to prosper, is our wish.

Why Not Emporium?

It is authoritatively announced that the Penn'a R. R. Company will erect a $20,000 stone and brick depot at Port Allegany. While congratulating our neighbor on its deservedly good fortune the right of Emporium to a like improvement cannot be gainsayed. The accommodations at the Junction are obviously inadequate, and it is earnestly hoped that the Company in recognition of this fact will make early provision for the comfort of its traveling patrons.

Italians Arrested.

On Tuesday night Chief of Police Mundy received a telegram from the Chief of Police, of St. Marys, to be on the lookout for nine Italians who were wanted at the latter place. It appears that the men were brought from New York city to work on the railroad but when they arrived they refused to go to work and took a tie pass to Emporium where they were arrested yesterday morning and taken back on Erie mail.

Tailor Shop Moved.

J. L. Fobert has moved his tailoring establishment into rooms at the Odd Fellows Hall, where he will be pleased to greet his old customers. Mr. Fobert has established a nice business in Emporium and is continually looking for opportunities whereby he can better serve the trade. If you want a neat fitting and well made suit of clothes call on him. Read his new ad. in another column.

His Way of It.

Master Earl McDougall, son of Alex. McDougall, visited Portage Falls last Sunday. Everybody knows Earl, and especially some of his unique traits of character. One of these is his perseverance to obtain money, and his anxiety to spend it. It is useless to say that he is a "dyed-in-the-wool" Democrat—a chip off the old block in this particular—but, notwithstanding, there is not a thing that will quench his desire to "loosen" when he's got it, and so it was at the Falls. He purchased of everything in sight until he had but ten cents left, and as he was ascending the steps of the car, the last "speeler" on the list presented a button photo of "Teddy", and true to his nature Earl out with his ten cents and made the purchase. He said he didn't like him very well, but he was pretty good looking, and that ten cents was getting hot.

Eye Specialist.

Prof. W. H. Budine, the well known Eye Specialist, of Binghamton, N. Y., will be at R. H. Hirsch's jewelry store, Emporium, Pa., August 14th and 15th. If you can't see well or have headache don't fail to call and see Prof. Budine, as he guarantees to cure all such cases. Lenses ground and fitted in old frames. Eyes tested and examined free. All work guaranteed.

"Study to be Quiet."

This wholesome counsel is often needed by young men who are discontented on account of the demands which their situation makes upon them. There is something that is of far more importance to us than the spirit of restless, feverish excitement, it is the possession of a calm, strong, earnest and thoughtful character. There is one condition of success that is absolutely essential, viz., strict, intelligent, faithful, hearty attention to our business, whatever it may be. Whether we are waiting on customers in a store, or are in charge of books in a counting room, or at work in mill or shop, or field, we should study to do our own business, to do it well, to do it heartily, to do it faithfully, putting all the intelligence into it that we possess. And in doing our work we should "study also to be quiet." We shall have many occasions to exercise a firm control over self. Many times we shall be tempted to give way to a spirit of restlessness and discontent. We shall think that the hours are long, that the demands made upon us are severe, that our reward is small and our promotion slow. We will be tempted sometimes to think that others are shown more favor than we, and that the best thing, therefore for us to do is to throw up the ungrateful situation.

The best counsel that we can receive at such a time is the message: "Study to be quiet." Let us control our restlessness and discontent. We must not expect to have everything arranged strictly according to our present liking. We very probably have to do with others who are older and presumably wiser than we are. Our employer or superintendent very possibly understands ourselves. His demands may not be so unreasonable as we feel disposed to imagine. Let us "study to be quiet." Let us be patient. Let us not become any less faithful or diligent or painstaking. All things come to him who waits. Great rewards or recognition seldom come early. Let us be content, or at least patient, if we see others better known or better paid than we. If we keep command of ourself, if we maintain a quiet and contented mind, if we keep steadily at our own proper business, we shall achieve a success of which we shall not need to be ashamed.

Baptist Church Notes.

The pastor will begin a series of seven sermons next Sabbath morning: "The Seven Covenants of the Bible." The Adamic; the Noachic; the Abrahamic; the Mosaic; the Deuteronomic; the Davidic the New. It will be a continuous, connected disposition of the Bible from Genesis to Revelation.

The Evening Evangelistic service will consist of "Sparks from my Study Anvil," "Startling Soul-Stirring Truths from Life," "Wide-awake heart to heart talks." The services are one hour only. Morning 11 to 12. Evening 7:30 to 8:30.

The Bible School meets at 12:15 and all children who are not attendants elsewhere are cordially invited to meet with us. C. E. Crandell, Supt.

The Y. P. S. C. E. also extend a warm welcome to all to meet with them Sunday evening, 6:30. B. Olmsted, President.

The Wednesday evening prayer and praise service is largely attended, but as there are several vacant chairs, we shall be delighted to have them occupied by YOU. If you come once, we know that you will come again.

The pastor Rev. Pugsley was warmly welcomed last Sunday by a very large congregation.

As Old As You Feel.

People quit growing old at forty half a century ago. They quit it when they ceased thinking themselves old at forty, ceased dressing themselves old at forty, and ceased actually being old at forty, not to speak of thinking themselves old at forty. What have become of the widow's caps, and the matron's caps, and the solemn and stiff suits our fathers and grandfathers wore at forty? Gone to perdition and the clo' junk shop, where they ought to have been. The young man of fifty or sixty now wears the natty sack tweeds or serges that his son or grandson wears tipped off with a jaunty hat. He goes to baseball, the races, he keeps up with the possession, and is all in for a good time in moderation, healthfully. The young women with him in white or colors, with the gay hat, who has the manners of a youthful, but self respecting girl of twenty in the last century, is his wife perhaps a grandmother, but none the less young and happy yet. They feel young, they dress young, they believe themselves young and in the language of the late A. N. Cole—"By the Great Horned Spoon, they are young!"—Wellsville Democrat.

WEATHER REPORT.

(Forecast by T. B. Lloyd.)
FRIDAY, Fair.
SATURDAY, Fair.
SUNDAY, Probably Fair.

BRIEF MENTION.

Bills are again posted in Renovo for a circus.

The best is always the cheapest and that is the kind of goods N. Seger handles.

The First Methodist Episcopal Sunday School will hold its annual picnic at Keystone Park, Thursday, August the 20th.

Chief of Police Mundy arrested an Italian for being drunk and disorderly yesterday afternoon and placed him in the lock-up. At a late hour last night the fellow was still in safe keeping not being in proper condition for a hearing.

Galeton Leader-Dispatch has changed hands. Miss Effa R. Beaver, former editor and manager has purchased the plant and now becomes sole editor and proprietor. The Leader-Dispatch is a bright newsy paper and we wish the editor success.

Make yourself useful, agreeable, kind, even at the cost of a struggle or two with your own temper and disposition. Fill your life brimful of occupation—some work, some play, enter into all you do with life and energy, and you'll find that you need not worry about having a good time.

People who buy spectacles of peddlers will be interested in knowing that a peddler arrested in Ohio last week charged with using the name of a Cleveland optician, confessed that spectacles he sold were made of ordinary window glass, and cost him ten cents a pair, while he sold them at from $3 to $10.

An exchange says; An editor works 365 days per year to get out 52 issues of his paper—that's labor. Once in a while somebody pays him a year's subscription—that's capital, and once in a while some sneak takes the paper a year or two without paying for it—that's anarchy. But there is a place prepared where the last named creature will get his just deserts—that's hell.

The Corner Stone Club had a letter last week from Miss Edna Warner, a former member, now of Denver, Col., expressing keen interest in the doings of the club and their efforts to raise money for the new church. She writes she can hardly wait for the Press to see what progress is being made on the church. Miss Warner's heart is in her native town and home church. Her interest and enthusiasm greatly encourage the club.

In addition to the usual oath of allegiance the new oath which foreigners desiring to become naturalized citizens of the United States will be compelled to take hereafter contains this clause: "That I do not advocate or teach the duty, necessity or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character."

Milton Standard: Down in the "Marsh" between Milton and Montandon, there is a man living who several years ago married a woman who died after two children had been born. Shortly after her death he married a widow with two daughters. Two children were born to them when she died and he afterwards married the oldest step-daughter. They now have two children by the last marriage and the neighbors are trying to figure out the relationship of the children to each other.

The most miserable creatures on earth are those who hate—the happiest are those who love, well says an exchange. Love sets the spirits aglow. Hate depresses them. When you hate people and speak ill of them, and wait opportunities for revenge, you injure yourself beyond measure. You injure the party hated not at all. Looking through the glasses of a sour and envious nature you imagine a person to be full of mean traits and deformities. It is yourself you see. No wonder it makes you furious.

One of the bugbear's of old time people is night air and there is little exaggeration in saying the superstition against night air has killed more people than the free circulation of it has ever injured. There is abundance of proof that night air is injurious to no one. On the contrary, people who sleep out doors under the mere protection of a tent are the healthiest of all people, and the practice has largely gained in popularity of late years, under wider knowledge of hygiene, for people in delicate health to go out in camping parties and breathe the balsam of the night air.
