

Mack-Olmsted.

On Tuesday, August the 18th, occurred the wedding of Miss Bessie E. Olmsted, daughter of H. C. Olmsted, to James B. Mack of Williamsport, Pa. The pleasant event was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Andrews, which was very prettily decorated for the occasion.

The front of the parlor, in which the ceremony took place, was banked with ferns and wild clematis, forming a pretty background for the bridal party.

The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, rendered by Mrs. Clara Olmsted Beers.

Rev. F. H. VanKeuren performed the ceremony, Miss Edith Olmsted acting as bridesmaid and Mr. Everitt Mack as groomsmen.

At 11 o'clock the guests took their places for the wedding breakfast. This was served on the spacious porch which was enclosed with evergreens and autumnal leaves, sweet peas forming the chief table decorations.

The bride and groom left on the 1 o'clock train for a quiet honeymoon, after which they will make their home at Williamsport.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents, among them several articles of cut glass and sterling silver and hand painted china, while some elaborate pieces of point lace and mont melick work testified to the deep regard in which the bride is held by her friends.

To these tributes the Journal desires to add its congratulations to the young man who has won a noble woman for his companion and to the happy couple a long life of wedded bliss.—Potter Journal.

The Bird Season.

The hunting season for reed birds will open September 1, when the season for web-footed wild fowl will also open. The hunting season and the restrictions upon the killing of game birds and animals, according to a summary issued by the state Game Commission, follows:

Dove, unlimited, can be killed at any time.

Elk, deer or fawn, two in one year; during November only.

English, Mongolian or Chinese pheasants unlimited; October 15 to December 15, inclusive.

Grouse (ruffed) commonly called pheasants, ten in one day; October 15 to December 15, inclusive.

Hare, or rabbit, unlimited; not to be taken with ferrit; November 1 to December 15, inclusive.

Quail or Virginia partridge, fifteen in one day; October 15 to December 15, inclusive.

Rail or reed birds, unlimited, September, October and November.

Web-footed wild fowl, unlimited; September 1 to May 1.

Wild turkey, two in one day; October 15 to December 15, inclusive.

Woodcock, ten in one day; October 15 to December 15 and during July.

Squirrel, gray, black and fox, unlimited; October 15 to December 15, inclusive.

Plover, unlimited, July 15 to January 1.

The word unlimited refers to the number of birds each gunner is permitted to kill in a day.

Strange Animal Captured.

The other evening G. C. Feeling, the marble man, while sitting in front of his place of business on Henderson street, Lock Haven saw an animal resembling a large rat, slowly pass across the walk. A closer inspection revealed that it was not a rat, and instead of kicking the animal, as he intended doing, Feeling picked it up and took it into his shop, as it appeared to be either quiet tame or ill and now he regards it as quite a pet. Since then the captor has been looking up "animology" and says the critter is a "bihogle," a native of South America and unknown in this climate. It is much larger than a rat, has web feet, its body is covered with soft dark fur and Cramer stoutly resents the insinuation that the animal is nothing more than a muskrat. The only food the little fellow seems to relish is bananas.

Lock Haven Horse Wins Again.

A dispatch from New York dated August 18 says that the opening of the annual races of the New York Trotting Association at Brighton Beach was above the average, and the best contest of the day from the horsemen's standpoint was the race for the $5,000 Hirman Woodruff stakes, at mile heats, three in five, for which nine horses scored at the start of the first heat.

The event was stretched out to a long struggle of five heats, and every heat made a horse race, with Jay McGregor and John Taylor fighting out at the finish of each mile. Jay McGregor won the first two heats, and John Taylor, who was after him, and a close second each time, then wore down the Kentucky horse, and by taking the next three heats captured the winner's share of the big prize.

J. C. Merrill of this city is the owner of John Taylor and he has won several fat purses for his owner during the season and is entered for many other races.—Lock Haven Times.

Items of Interest.

Everybody reads the PRESS.

Big bargains in clothing at N. Seger's this week.

Now is the time to buy clothing if you want good value at a low price. N. Seger.

The carpenters have commenced operations on the new Presbyterian church at this place.

Smith Whitman is taking orders for the "Pennsylvania Lawyer" a valuable book of information and handy to have.

The old reliable clothier, N. Seger, is giving some good values in clothing this week, at a very low figure. Call and see him.

The largest and most handsome line of clothing in this county is at N. Seger's and his prices are always the lowest, consistent with value received.

Mrs. J. K. P. Hall contemplates building a handsome Episcopal church in Ridgway. She has inspected the handsome St. Luke's church in Smethport, with a view to utilizing its design to some extent in her own undertaking.

The steam loader that has been at work on the cinder bank at the furnace since early spring has taken out a large amount of cinder, but there also remains considerable, and it will require several months more before the bank will be entirely "cleared up."

Seventy-five people leave St. Marys every Monday morning for Ridgway where they are employed building factories and residences. It is quite a sight to see these mechanics gather at the station.—St. Marys Gazette. Why not annex St. Marys to Ridgway and be done with it.

Don't let anything keep you away from seeing the most gigantic pageant ever witnessed in this country. Two performances, afternoon and evening. One ticket admits to the combined Show and Trained Animal Exposition. Special excursion at the very lowest rates on lines of travel. Emporium, Sept. 5th.

A correspondent of the Scientific American says: "Let anyone who has a case of lockjaw take a quantity of turpentine, warm it, and pour it on the wound, no matter where it is, and relief will follow in less than a minute. Nothing better can be applied to a severe cut or bruise than cold turpentine. It will give certain relief almost instantly."

The Woman's Home Companion for September contains a number of valuable features, chief of which is Mr. Kaempfert's article on "Radium," the most wonderful substance in the world. Other titles are "After the Hounds in America," "The Good Works of the Lutherans," and there are a number of beautiful pictures illustrating the fine art of photography. As usual, the fashions, the cooking articles, the suggestions for embroidery and needlework, and the treatment of all manner of subjects pertaining to the home, are timely and helpful. Not of least interest is the fiction. Holman F. Day's "Confession of a Sewing Machine Agent" and "Nurse Norah's New Arabian Nights" are charming bits of humor. There are six short stories in all. Published by The Crowell Publishing Company, Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

Newspaper Puffs.

It is more fun to see a man read a puff of himself in a newspaper than to see a fat man slip on a banana peel. The narrow minded man reads it over seven or eight times and then goes around and appropriates what copies he can. The kind hearted man goes home and reads it to his wife and then goes to the office and pays up what he owes. The successful business man who advertises regularly and makes money by it, immediately starts out to find the editor, and the two walk silently and thoughtfully down the street together, and the business man takes a little sugar in his'n, and they both eat a clove or two, and life is sweeter, peace settles down on their hearts for the moment. Such is the experience of mustard seed that falls on different soils.—Nunda Truth.

Fewer gallons; wears longer; Devoe.

Lumber Operations on Hyner Run.

A pleasant visitor to Renovo Saturday was Thaddeus Moore, of Emporium, who has charge of the lumber operations on Hyner Run. Mr. Moore states that there is timber enough of the very best quality to keep operations lively for four or five years yet. The railroad extending up Hyner Run and which connects with the P. & E. at Hyner is twelve miles long, including the branches. L. R. Gleason & Sons' tannery at North Bend has the bark contract on this immense job, which alone is enough to keep this big plant supplied for another decade at least.—News.

Building Cars for China.

The Bloomsburg Car Manufacturing Company will commence the construction of forty cars to be shipped to China, where they will be used on a railroad. Twenty of these will be the ordinary box cars, while the remaining twenty will be third-class passenger coaches.

Sunday School Work in Cameron County.

The smallest number of Sunday schools in any county in the State is in Cameron county. They have only fifteen. Yet the annual convention which met at Driftwood, May 27, revealed the fact that little Cameron in several respects is the banner county of the State. It is the only county in the State having a lady for president, Mrs. Mary Hall, of Driftwood. Mrs. Hall, with Mrs. J. E. Smith, the county secretary, has certainly done a marvelous work. They prepared an excellent convention program. Besides the General Secretary and Mrs. A. M. Drinkwater, who represented the State Association, excellent addresses were made by Rev. Robertson, the Episcopal Rector of Emporium, Revs. Metzler and McCaslin, of the same place, and Mr. Josiah Howard, the most prominent lumberman of that part of the State. They secured a report from each of the fifteen schools by simply writing once to each superintendent. The most marvelous of all is the fact that they secured over $50 for State Work. One school of less than 100 members gave $15. The first completed report sent to the office was that from Cameron county. With the same officers they are going on to even better things.—Pennsylvania Herald.

Mother of "Coal Oil Johnny" a Resident of Leadville.

Among a number of old ladies of the Second Ward who visited Ponce de Leon Springs, Thursday afternoon, and took supper at Oakwood park, was Mrs. Maria Amon, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Samuel B. Moore, at No. 436 North street. Mrs. Amon has been a resident of Leadville several years, and yet it may not be generally known that she is the mother of one of the most eccentric characters developed in the oil regions of Pennsylvania—John Steele, better known as "Coal Oil Johnny." Mrs. Amon was twice married, and her first husband's name was Steele. The name of the second husband was Amon and both husbands are dead. Mrs. Amon was born in May, 1819, and the age of 84 finds her in good health and spirits. The career of her famous son has often been referred to and the story of his sudden leap from a poor boy to the possession of almost fabulous wealth, and the means he employed to put his millions in circulation is a familiar one.—Meadville Tribune.

End of Bitter Fight.

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung" writes J. F. Hughes of DuPont, Ga., "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health. It conquers all Coughs, Colds and Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed at L. Taggart's drug store. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Probable Improvements.

A story from Clearfield is to the effect that great changes and improvements are being planned for the river branch of the New York Central, which extends from Clearfield to Keating. It is said that owing to the largely increasing business, a double track on the new road is absolutely necessary. The lying of this track would involve great expense, and it is possible that several of the tunnels might be widened. A number of the bridges would have to be rebuilt also.—Lock Haven Republican.

Thieves Enter Bed Room.

Some time after midnight yesterday morning, a burglar entered liveryman Logan's bed room, where himself, wife and child were sleeping and succeeded in taking his pocket book, containing a sum of money, from under his pillow. Quite a bold trick, but evidently stolen by some person familiar with the facts.

Picnic.

The Sunday schools of the M. E. Church of the Cameron circuit have decided to hold a union picnic at Keystone Park, Emporium, on Wednesday, Sept. 2nd. The schools that will be represented are: Cameron, West Creek, More Hill and Beechwood.

Festival at More Hill.

The More Hill congregation of the M. E. Church will hold a festival on Saturday evening, Aug. 29th, in the school house. A good social time is promised. Come and bring your friends and have them get a More Hill breeze.

Saving for a Home.

How did we do it? Simply by going without everything we needed. When I was first married my salary was $30 a month.

My mother-in-law, who lived with me decided to save enough of my salary to build us a home.

When the cellar was finished I became ill and lost my position, and had to mortgage the cellar to make my first payment.

Although we went without food for thirty days the first year, we never missed a monthly payment.

The taxes and interest on mortgage and monthly payment on house were now three times the amount of my earnings.

However, by dispensing with the services of a doctor we lost our father and mother-in-law, which so reduced our expenses that we were able to pay for the parlor floor and windows.

In ten years seven of our nine children died, possibly owing to our diet of excelsior and prunes.

I only mention these little things to show how we were helped in saving for a home.

I wore the same overcoat for fifteen years, and was then able to build the front porch, which you see at the right of the front door.

Now, at the age of eighty-seven, my wife and I feel sure we can own our comfortable little home in about ten years and live a few weeks to enjoy it.—H. M. Perley in Life.

Letter to R. H. Hirsch.

Emporium, Pa.
Dear Sir: Messrs. Leachman & Edelin, Grafton, W. Va., had been selling a paint which they thought well of; and this had occurred:

They had sold a customer 18 gallons, of it to paint his house. A few years later, they sold the same man Devoe lead and zinc the same number of gallons to paint the same house. He had 7 gallons left.

The point of the tale is; 11 gallons Devoe paints an 18 gallon house.

Of course, that isn't all. Why does 11 gallons Devoe go as far as 18 gallons of other paint? Because it is all paint, all true, no sham, and full measure.

But that isn't all. Devoe lasts longer. No, no; you haven't got to wait ten years to find that out. Ten thousand people know it. We've got their names. Our agents know them; they think a heap of Devoe. There's no difficulty in showing your townspeople what to expect of Devoe. $10 will paint a $15 house, and the paint'll last twice as long.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.
P. S. Murry & Coppersmith sell our paint.

School for Nurses.

The Philadelphia School for Nurses in alliance with the American National Red Cross has undertaken to train a sufficient number of young women who shall be subject to the call of the Red Cross or the government for prompt nursing service in the event of national calamities or in case of war.

Co-incident with this plan an effort will be made to carry nursing skill and hospital knowledge into small towns and rural districts of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, by taking some of their young women and training them in this science.

This will secure the requisite number of nurses for Red Cross work.

It will give a means of livelihood to large numbers of most excellent and deserving young women who have but few opportunities, and at the same time it will benefit thousands of homes by the spread of this knowledge.

Every village and township in near-by States may ultimately be reached and helped in this way.

The undertaking involves the expenditure of large sums of money, but wealthy and influential men and women in the four States named stand ready to carry the plans to fruition.

One hundred thousand dollars has already been guaranteed and more funds are assured.

The Special Committee representing the movement is as follows:

Hon. William N. Ashman, Judge of the Orphan's Court of Philadelphia.

Hon. Nathan C. Schaeffer, Pennsylvania State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Hon. Henry R. Edmunds, United States Commissioner and President of the Philadelphia Board of Education.
Mrs. Darwin R. James of New York, President of the Women's Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church.

Right Rev. Aleladder Mackay-Smith, Coadjutor Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Rev. John Timothy Stone, of Baltimore, Maryland.

J. R. Miller, D.D., Editor Presbyterian Publications, Philadelphia.

Francis B. Reeves, President of the Girard National Bank, Philadelphia.

Any young woman who aspires to Red Cross membership or to nursing service in any capacity can get full information by addressing The Philadelphia School for Nurses, Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

The movement is designed especially to benefit young women in small towns and rural communities.

Save the Children.

Ninety-nine of every one hundred disorders that children have are due to disorders of the stomach and these disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. It keeps their little stomachs sweet and encourages their growth and development. Mrs. Henry Carter, 705 Central St., Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is a well baby. I recommend it to all sufferers. Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet." Sold by R. C. Dodson.

The secret of making carbon paper and typewriter ribbons is known to scarcely a dozen people.

Potent Pill Pleasure.

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot of Albany, Ga., says "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue-mass or any other pills I ever took and at the same time it effected me pleasantly Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by R. C. Dodson.

A deceitful friend is more dangerous than a sworn enemy.

Eat All You Want.

Persons troubled with indigestion or Dyspepsia can eat all they want if they will take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. This remedy prepares the stomach for the reception, retention, digestion and assimilation of all of the wholesome food that may be eaten, and enables the digestive organs to transform the same into the kind of blood that gives health and strength. Sold by R. C. Dodson.
