W. Green drove over to Keystone Park on Saturday and evidently enjoyed the occasion. While both gentlemen are busy business men nevertheless are practical farmers, managing large and profitable farms. BRIEF MENTION. Fewer gallons; wears longer; Devoe. The great success of the Fair last Saturday was very gratifying to our citizens. Push along the good thing and make it better next year. The best clothing that is manufactured is the kind that N. Seger handles, and his prices are very reasonable. If you want quality, style and fit combined, call on him. Daniel McCormick, of East Third street, has novelty in the shape of a lilac in bloom for the second time this season. The bush has a number of flowers in full bloom. The party who borrowed the gallon measure on Wednesday evening from Delbert Towner's wagon in front of the hardware store is requested to return the measure to the store. "The Convict's Daughter" will be the attraction at the Opera House Thursday, Oct. 8. It is not the usual murderous melodrama and clap-trap comedy that we usually see in plays of this class, but a beautiful story, well told by a thoroughly competent company. Special scenery is carried for the production of the play. Theodore N. Barnsdall, the largest individual gas operator in the United States, has recently acquired a controlling interest in the Potter Gas Company. Several months ago Mr. Barnsdall purchased a block of stock in the company and later on gave an option on his purchase to a syndicate headed by J. Newton Peck of Philadelphia, with the understanding that providing they failed to close the contract at a certain date he would purchase their interests at the same rate offered them. The syndicate failed to make good and last week Mr. Barnsdall came into possession of the following stock, in addition to what he had purchased before: J. N. Peck, $84,000; H. H. Cobb, $10,000; F. L. Andrews, $10,000; F. A. Raymond $10,000; L. E. Larabee, $5,000; F. H. Raymond $9,000. Mr. Barnsdall now owns $820,000 of the original capital stock, $1,000,000.—Bradford Era. "The Convict's Daughter," the successful and popular comedy drama, comes to the Opera House Thursday, Oct. 8. It is interesting and intense throughout. From the rise of the curtain the expectation and suspense of the audience is kept at a high pitch by a constant succession of thrilling situations which are worked out very cleverly. The sensational escape of the convict from the prison wall to the swiftly running freight train, is without question the acme of stage mechanism. The play is entirely free from situations which cannot be reconciled to human consistency, and in comparison it ranks far above plays of a like nature. A liberal amount of comedy is interspersed to keep up the interest. Strong situations and thrilling climaxes, together with startling mechanical and electrical effect help to make a perfect production. The secret of the popularity and financial strength of the play is its intrinsic worth as an amusement enterprise. The piece has real merit and with the exceptionally strong cast specially engaged to interpret the same, should, and undoubtedly will, pack the house at every performance. Prices, opera chairs, 75c; reserved seats 50c; general admission 35c; gallery 25c. Dieting Invites Disease. To cure Dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Letter to Rev. Mr. McCaslin. Emporium, Pa. Rev. Sir: Three churches in Baldwinville, N. Y., have had their first lesson in Devoe. Messrs. Osterhout & Lockwood painted the Presbyterian parsonage; estimated 30 gallons; took 28. Messrs. Slingerland T. Shutter painted the Episcopal church. estimated 40 gallons; took 28. Same painters painted the Catholic church; estimated 50 gallons; took 39. Of course, they estimated from what they had been using. The saving in paint and work is $4 or $5 a gallon. Floor Hill Items. To the Editor Cameron County Press: Potatoes are rotting fast. Buckwheat turns out well. Everybody has cut their corn. We are having a big meeting at the church. Brother Knox in conducting them. He is an able preacher. We hear that one of our ladies threatened to whip the chap with the big gun for striking his wife. There are some girls who do not seem to know how to behave when attending church. They should stay at home or behave; cease to make fun of God's people. Mrs. Ed Kelley's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Pool, of Clearfield, visited their home last week. They intended removing the remains of Mrs. Pool's mother to Clearfield but decided to bury her at Moore Hill church. MISCHIEVOUS GIRL. Oct. 5th, 1903. Confessions of a Priest. Rev. Jno. S. He Built One of the Pyramids. The British museum, the great European storehouse of things out of the ordinary, has hundreds of Egyptian mummies of all dynasties carefully stowed away within its walls. Some of these are comparatively recent efforts at embalming, and others date back to the "wide revolving shades of centuries past." The oldest of the entire collection is the mummy of Mykerinos. He was a king in Egypt in what is known to history as the "fourth dynasty" and wore his golden tiara and sat on the throne of thrones 4,000 years before the wise men followed the star of fate till it stopped over that lowly hovel in Bethlehem where the infant Jesus lay. Mykerinos was the builder of the third pyramid at Gizeh, where his headless mummy was discovered in the year 1836. The stone coffin in which he was being transported to England was lost at sea and lay at the bottom of the ocean for two years before being recovered. It is seldom that a man's bones are subjected to vicissitudes, especially 5,000 or 6,000 years after his death. The Ibos on the Niger. Ivory anklets, often very heavy, are only worn by the Ibo women of wealth and importance, but the metal anklets worn by others may be many pounds in weight, and some of them wear huge brass plates, perhaps a foot in diameter, which, once fixed to the ankles, are never removed. The men wear a single strip of cotton cloth, but those who come much in contact with the Europeans are now learning to wear trousers. Their weapons are flintlocks, bows and spears, the latter both for hurling and thrusting. The huts are built of mud and matting and are quadrangular in shape. The center is an open courtyard, at one end of which is the apartment of the head of the house, while the wives and family are accommodated in other rooms on the right and left of the courtyard. There is no furniture or ornament and but a few household utensils and weapons.—All the Year Round. The Decimal Point. In both France and Germany one-fourth (¼) reduced to a decimal is written as .25; in England it is written 25 (always with the period at the top of the line) and in the United States in this way, .25. France and Germany always use the comma, England and the United States the period, the only difference being the manner in which it is placed upon the line. Sir Isaac Newton is given the credit of originating the present English method of using the decimal point, his reasons being that by placing it at the top of the line it could be distinguished at a glance from the "full stop" punctuation mark. All English mathematicians use the mark in the way proposed by Newton and the period as a sign of multiplication. The Glove Is as Old as History. It might be readily supposed that the glove was an article of modern luxury. On the contrary, these hand coverings date back almost as far as history itself. Homer mentions them in his writings, and Xenophon also, stating that the great Cyrus once forgot his gloves on an important occasion. From the earliest times the manufacture of gloves has been an important trade in France, and in 790 Charlemagne granted an unlimited right to the abbot and monks of Sithin to make gloves from the skins of deer they killed. The word glove being of Anglo-Saxon origin, it is conjectured by some that the Saxons introduced the trade of glove making into England. Leisure at Meals. Take at least one meal a day leisurely; take at least three leisurely if you can; take one meal a day leisurely at any cost. The other two meals eat lightly. Let the hearty meal be the leisure meal. The best time for this for most men is after tea day's work is over. Do not hurry in getting to the table. Take time in getting ready for it. Having come to the meal in an unburied state of mind, you will enjoy it better because it will taste and digest better.—Cooking Club. A Familiar Subject. Wife (after returning from church)—You should have been in church this morning. We had a beautiful sermon. Husband—I'll bet you can't repeat the text. Wife—Yes, I can. It was the tenth verse of the sixteenth chapter of Ezekiel, "I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk." Husband—Huh! It is no wonder you remember it. Everybody reads the PRESS. Housekeeper Wanted. Experienced woman in small family. Wages $3.00. Enquire at PRESS office, 29-tf.

UNBOUNDED FAITH IN MI-O-NA. L. Taggart Will Refund Money if it Fails to Increase Flesh and Cure Dyspepsia. "I have been in the drug business long enough to know that there are very few remedies that can be sold on a guarantee to refund the money if they do not give satisfaction." "I have sold so much Mi-o-an and seen such remarkable results following its use that I welcome the chance to convince my doubter of its merit, by offering to give with each package of Mi-o-na a written guarantee to refund the money if it does not give an increase in weight, regulate the digestion and restore health. "If you cannot call at my store, send me the price of Mi-o-na, 50c by mail, and I will forward you a regular size box, postage paid, with the same agreement to refund the money if it does not give perfect satisfaction." Anyone who has been losing flesh, or who has always been too thin, should use Mi-o-na. Thinness and scrawnyness are signs that the food is not properly assimilated and that you do not get the nourishment from it that you should. Mi-o-na mingles with the food you eat, aids its assimilation, tones up and strengthens the digestive organs and puts the whole system in a proper physical condition. Remember that you risk nothing in buying Miono. If it fails to give you the desired effect, the cost is trifling. If it fails, L. Taggart will pay for the remedy himself. $30 Thirty Dollars $30. Every day until November 30th, The Missouri Pacific Ry., will sell one way colonist tickets from St. Louis to points in California, Washington, and Oregon at rate of $30.00.
