Handsome Program.
The Teachers' Institute program being distributed by Miss Collins is the handsomest and most expensive program ever issued from the PRESS shop. All receiving same should save it for use at the Institute.

The Toy Pistol.
The dangerous toy pistol got in its work again last Saturday. Carl Haupt, son of Henry Haupt, was the victim, the shot entering his right leg. Dr. Heilman attended the lad. Parents should abolish the toy pistol, it is almost as dangerous as the cigarette.

Thirty-fifth Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mutterbough were pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when their sons, daughters and grand-children, fourteen in number, invaded their home and prepared the table for a fine turkey dinner. The happy occasion was their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary.—Driftwood Gazette.

Using Pine Ties.
The Buffalo & Susquehanna railroad has received the balance of an order of 300 carloads of Georgia pine ties which were sent via boat to New York and over the Erie to the Buffalo & Susquehanna at Addison. Part of these ties are being used at Sinnemahoning, Pa., the balance to go to Hornellsville for the Buffalo division.—Wellsville Reporter.

Our English Cousins.
Two special trains, consisting of the best vestibuled cars in the Peenya's service, passed through Emporium last Sunday, bearing the Honorable Artillery Company, of London, England, to Niagara Falls. The Britishers were escorted by the Ancient Honorable Artillery Company, of Boston. Our English Cousins, we are told, were enthusiastic in their praise of America and their royal treatment by the Yankees. While at the Junction one of the party exclaimed, "You Americans are certainly bricks—go at too fast a pace for us, but we like you just the same, if we can't keep up with you."

Sudden Death.
EX-Associate Judge, MARTIN V. LARRABEE, of Roulette, died on Thursday evening last, quite suddenly, of apoplexy, leaving three married children. Judge Larrabee, who was a brother of our good citizen, Mr. M. M. Larrabee, was in his 66th year. Deceased was one of Potter's most popular citizens, having held several elective offices, the most important being County Treasurer and Associate Judge. At the time of his death he had charge of the large body of lands owned by the State in Potter county. The funeral was held from the M. E. Church, at Roulette, on Sunday, Condorsport Masonic lodge having charge of the funeral. Mr. M. Larrabee and wife, of this place, attended the funeral.

Teacher's Institute Next Week.
All signs point to the near approach of the Teachers' County Institute. The attractive lithographs displayed in the various windows about town call attention to the evening entertainments, while a perusal of the small circulars being distributed convinces one of their superior excellence. Tickets are for sale by the teachers and pupils, who assume their work for the sole reason that they desire to aid in a worthy cause. Every family should deem it a privilege to patronize the evening attractions as well as to attend the day sessions, as they will have much to offer that is instructive and helpful. Let a full court room and opera house attest the interest and appreciation of the community. Tickets are also for sale at Lloyd's book store. The chart for reserve seats opens at Lloyd's Monday morning, Oct. 19th, at 9 o'clock.

Rural Route Changes.
During the winter months the post-office department has made the following changes in Shippen township rural delivery routes. This change has been made necessary owing to the bad condition of the roads:

Keystone Park will next Saturday be the scene of a jolly good time. The Fats and Leans will again cross bats and plenty of fun may be expected. Do not forget the hour—1:30—for the game will commence promptly on time in order to finish before dark.

Many Disappointed.
Almost daily letters continue to come to the PRESS office requesting extra copies of the paper containing the article on John J. Hinkle's death, and Mr. Julian's letters. We printed a large extra number of those issues but they have all been sold, and we could fill orders, if we had them, for many more. Another interesting letter from Mr. Julian will appear next week. Leave orders now for extra copies.

Thanks.
The members of the U. P. & F. E. W. of A., of Emporium, Pa., voted a card of thanks to Mrs. Winfield of East Emporium, Pa., for refreshments sent to lodge on Oct. 6th, which was highly appreciated, and was very fine and best of union made goods and hope she may have the patronage of all citizens and especially of all unionists.

Eye Specialist.
Prof. W. H. Budine, the well known Eye Specialist, of Binghamton, N. Y., will be at R. H. Hirsch's jewelry store, Emporium, Pa., October 16th and 17th. If you can't see well or have headache don't fail to call and see Prof. Budine, as he guarantees to cure all such cases. Lenses ground and fitted in old frames. Eyes tested and examined free. All work guaranteed.

Desirable House for Rent.
The newly constructed twenty-one room house, located on Sixth street, Emporium, Pa., suitable for hotel or boarding house, is elegantly constructed and is supplied with gas, steam and two bath rooms, as well as all other modern conveniences.

Returns to Beechwood.
Mrs. R. R. Dankle, who formerly resided in this county, at Beechwood, has returned from the west and located at Beechwood, where she has fitted up a home. While formerly a resident of this county Mrs. Dankle took a lively interest in church and temperance work.

Mothers' Club.
Will meet at the High School room on Friday afternoon at 3:30. We hope for a good number in attendance as matters of interest for the year's work are to be decided upon by order of,
PRESIDENT.

Taken to Asylum.
Sheriff Harry Hemphill and wife took Mrs. John Burnett to Warren Hospital last Tuesday. This is a sad blow to the husband and two small children, who reside on east Fifth street, yet it is hoped the treatment will result in the unfortunate lady's recovery.

A Good Play.
Managers Clarke & Howard presented our citizens a good attraction last Thursday, "The Convict's Daughter," to an appreciative audience. Give us more equally as good.

Big Run of Iron.
Supt. Brady reports Tuesday's run of iron the largest in the history of Emporium furnace—one hundred and fifty-two tons of A No. 1 iron.

Will be Here Nov. 1st.
Dr. H. W. Good writes that he will be in Emporium Nov. 1st. to remain permanently. Location of office announced later.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

LOGAN.
Mrs. ELLEN PATTERSON LOGAN, aged 89 years and six months, died at Sunbury last Sunday, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Lide M. Corwin, surrounded by her children. Her remains were brought to Emporium Monday afternoon and taken to the residence of her son, J. D. Logan; Esq. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon and was very largely attended—Revs. R. McCaslin, O. S. Metzler and J. M. Robertson officiating. The remains were interred in Newton Cemetery.

This remarkable old lady, was left a widow in 1865, with five children, (her husband having died at Harrisburg on his return from the field of battle, after serving in the Pennsylvania Reserves for four years) came to Emporium in 1873, where she resided for many years, and was highly respected. She was a devout christian, being a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Logan was in many respects a remarkable lady and during her long term of years was really never sick. In her advanced years she made her home with her second daughter, Mrs. Lide Corwin, at Sunbury, where she received the loving care of a dutiful child, in fact none of the children could do enough for their mother. Conscious to the very last, and free from pain, she passed to the other shore, where loved ones stood ready to greet her.

Deceased left in addition to a large circle of friends, the following children, all of whom were in attendance at the funeral: Mrs. W. T. McCloskey, Wilkensburg, Pa.; Mrs. Lide M. Corwin, Sunbury, Pa.; John D. Logan and Mrs. Deborah Hockley, Emporium.

RELATIVES FROM A DISTANCE.
Mrs. Sallie McCloskey, (daughter), Wilkensburg, Pa.; Mrs. Lide M. Corwin, (daughter), and son Theo., Sunbury; Chas. Hockley, (grandson) Middletown; Miss Ada Hockley, (granddaughter), Williamsport; Mrs. Vine Moore, (cousin), Flemington, Pa.; Irvin Miller (cousin) and wife, Renovo; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Stout, Mrs. Kunkle, Mrs. McManigal, and Mrs. Trump, Renovo.

To Tuck Banquet.
Some of our big eaters were compelled to call for quarter last Wednesday evening. Two banquets were too much for friend Blum, Dan'l Webster and Stowe Barton. W. A. Sprung, one of Pennsy's old and reliable engineers celebrated his 69th anniversary and filled a number of his friends to the neck. When the Masonic banquet was tackled lum hinted that he could act as toast-master very well, which would give him excuse for standing up. The balance of the party preferred to sit. Brother Jos. Kaye, who gave the last banquet to his Masonic brethren, was wonderfully surprised at the eating capacity of his brethren.

Emmanuel Church.
The Rev. S. R. MacEwan, of Johnsonburg, will officiate at the services next Sunday, Oct. 18th.

'Twas Ever Thus.
'Tis the common lot to be found fault with. It is not pleasant, but those who can stand it get along the easiest, says one of our exchanges. Worrying, fretting, or talking back doesn't make things any better. All public officers are pounded by the public. The merchant catches it from his patrons, so does the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker, and the good minister is abused as if he were a pirate. Even Christ was crucified, and all great men and good have been tortured in some manner. Even small men do not escape. Some trouble comes to all and each is cuffed and kicked for alleged mistakes. The butcher is often reminded of his tough steak. The newspaper man is howled at almost as much as the minister. Even the man you befriend for years may prove ungrateful. The hotel food is denounced; the Church member is called hypocrite. The preacher is liked best who goes to another charge; and yet people are pretty good after all. They don't mean all we hear, so we shouldn't believe all we hear. Just do your part and let them talk. Don't mind the mosquitoes. Says a philosopher, "At the last nothing matters much. Mortals give things an importance quite beyond their gravity. We shall glide out of this life into another, and the day of our death like the day of our birth, will be shrouded in forgetfulness. And if we do remember any of our trials and troubles, it will be only to smile that they should ever have caused us a pang."

WEATHER REPORT.
(Forecast by T. B. Lloyd.)
FRIDAY, Showers.
SATURDAY, Fair.
SUNDAY, Fair.

BRIEF MENTION.

Fewer gallons; wears longer; Devoe The brick work on the new Presbyterian Church is progressing.
Robt. C. Dodson reports two birds this morning, before breakfast.
Foley's West Branch Hotel at Drury's Run, valued at $12,000, was totally destroyed by fire last Monday.

Why stand around and shiver, when N. Seger is offering such big inducements in the clothing and furnishings line.
If its bargains in clothing you are looking for, you should call on N. Seger, the old reliable clothing merchant.

The electric light plant has been "dead" for two or three days, owing to the engine bed being out of gear. It is expected to be in order to-night.

Prepare yourself for the cold weather and invest in a good warm suit of clothes. N. Seger's is the place where you can be fitted at a very low price. Call and see him.

Handsome sawed flag walks are being laid in all parts of town. Fourth street, one of the handsomest streets in the state, will soon be stoned its entire length.

Prof Ned, a palmist and clairvoyant, is located for a short time at the City Hotel, in Emporium. He reads your life from the lines on your hand. Readings private. 25c and 50 cents. Hours from 9 a. m. until 10 p. m. 34-3

The Auditor's Report of Emporium Borough appears in this issue. We expect to print the Poor Masters' statement next issue. The printer cannot hurry these reports, the tax-payers asking for them should "call down" the other fellows. We have calls for the School District Audit. We give it up.

The easiness of the newspaper business has been a perennial subject for discussion for years. His constant tale of woe concerning his need of cash has been a standing joke. But in reality the matter is not a joke and the discredit for it is more upon the community than the newspaper. Every few days almost the newspaper speaks an encouraging word for some interest the prosperity of which directly effects the people of the locality, whether it be a church fair, a new industry, or what not. For this the editor receives thanks. Thanks, like a recently advertised breakfast food, is "good for breakfast, dinner and supper." Anent this subject the Falls Creek Herald truthfully says: The editor eats them alive. Editors are not all poverty stricken but mighty few of them ever get rich and every red cent they make they work for. The doctor settles in a town and spends probably $20 for an equipment. He does all his work himself and pays no wages to anybody. When you go down to patronize him, however you don't ask him if he can't saw your leg off for less than $2.99 and threaten to send it out to the State of Indiana for amputation at a place where they do good work for $2.75).

The grocer lays in a stock of $450 worth of goods and when you patronize him you don't ask for bids on the furnishing of two bars of soap, a can of tomatoes, two dozen jar rubbers and a pound of cheese. You don't ask the barber for a bid on a hair cut, shave and shampoo, and tell him that they only pay half that price out in Squeedunk, Missouri, and they get perfumed soap besides.
But the poor printer. He invests from three to ten thousand dollars in a plant, hire from one to a dozen people and pays them cash on Saturdays and then has to bid against the world for a two dollar job of printing. He doesn't mind it, though. It adds strenuousness to his existence and makes life seem what Mr. Cleveland is wont to call "one grand sweet song."

The glory of being pointed out to the populace, especially the sheriff, the constable and the fellow with the overdue bill, as "the editor," is enough for anybody. Is it any wonder that so many county editors go to congress? There are worse places than that that are sometimes preferable to a country printing office.

Eating Room.
Mrs. L. Easterbrooks has opened in connection with her confectionery and fruit store, a first-class eating room, where oysters in every style will be served; also lunches served at all hours. Oysters by measure. 33-3t.

A number of Emporiumites will take in the special excursion to Niagara Falls, to-morrow.

The Cameron County Agricultural Association.

The Cameron County Agricultural Association met at the Court House on Saturday last and transacted some very important business. Arrangements were made for the payment of the prizes at the Fair, and also for giving half of the advertised prize to persons who had articles there possessing a reasonable degree of merit, but who did not have prizes awarded on account of not having any competition. All the prizes to be paid by the treasurer's check, deposited in the postoffice, to the address of the winners. It was also decided to hold another fair the first Thursday and Friday in October next year. More particulars of this will be given at the proper time. Those interested in this enterprise and desirous of encouraging and assisting it would do well to make a contribution of money, either to the president, Mr. F. X. Blumle, or to the secretary, Mr. N. A. Ostrum, and become identified with the Association. A general discussion was indulged in concerning methods of advancing the interest of agriculture, horticulture and stock raising in the county. It was both a profitable and enjoyable meeting.
