EDITORIAL MENTION.

Who will continue to save the nation while Mr. Bryan is in Europe?

The Sultan of Turkey is said to have executed a compositor for making a typographical error.

For a man who made his first speech in 1896 Senator Hanna is giving Tom Johnson a pretty good tussle.

Leader Murphy is after the liquor vote in New York and promises to make a saloon keeper Commissioner of Police.

Senator Hanna has adopted Tom Johnson's weapons and now the two leaders in the Ohio campaign have engaged in a duel of personal abuse.

Professor Langley's explanations of the wreck of his airship remind one of Bryan's explanations of his failure to be elected president of the United States.

It is thought that the Delaware grand jurors who refused to indict the Wilmington lynchings were members of the congregation of the preacher who justified the mob.

The New York mayoralty election involving the fortune if not the fate of Tammany Hall is of National importance. Mayor Low's friends predict that he will be "re-elected handsomely."

A Perfect Painless Pill.

Is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clear the constipation, cure headache and leave a good taste in the mouth. The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectually are DeWitt's Little Early Risers, Bob Moore of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by R. C. Dodson.

"The one who demands the highest excellence in typography, subject matter and quantity of contents does the least to help the cause along."

Gained Forty Pounds in Thirty Days.
For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the Tablets—Holley Bros. Merchants, Long Branch, Mo. For sale by L. Taggart.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, Oct. 12, 1903.

Editor Press:

Politicians here believe there will be no currency legislation until after the presidential election. Representative Hill, of Connecticut ranking, member of the last House committee on banking and currency, says that many republicans are discussing a plan of submitting the question of financial legislation to a joint committee which will investigate the need of currency reforms and make recommendations to Congress. The Committee will either be named by Congress or appointed by the President from members of both houses. It is believed that Congress would pay little heed to a committee composed of outsiders. While it is not certain that Congress would accept the recommendations of the committee, its appointment is regarded as a wise move for several reasons. It would give the republican factions an opportunity to argue their differences outside of the House, it might find a measure upon which they could agree, and it would postpone any legislation on this difficult subject until after the presidential election. The party could thus go before the country without showing any lack of harmony. Secretary Shaw, Senator Aldrich and Representative Fowler all have different plans for currency reform. Speaker Cannon is not certain that any is needed, and the National Bankers' Association has recently appointed a committee to solve the problem. It is thought that these different interests should not be allowed to conflict in a session preceding a presidential campaign. It is for the same reason that even those republicans who favor it have decided to postpone tariff revision.

In the meantime Secretary Shaw is doing all he can to relieve any money stringency. Since September 1st he has placed in circulation a total of $22,274,500. He has done this by increasing the government deposits in the national banks and by the refunding and redemption operations now in progress. It is hoped that the Secretary can prevent a money stringency and thus remove all danger to the business world from the postponement of currency legislation.

From recent political gossip the following is interesting as showing the sentiment of some of the people of the South against President Roosevelt. Mayor Smyth of Charleston said in an interview, "The south has no candidates. It is anybody to bear Roosevelt, who is most cordially disliked on account of his attitude on the race question. Formerly he was popular with us. When he was in Charleston during the exposition he promised me, in the presence of two other gentlemen, that no colored man would be appointed to office in our state. He had hardly returned to Washington before he did the very thing he promised he would not do." Even if he named his two witnesses Mayor Smyth will have great difficulty in convincing anyone that President Roosevelt ever made him such a promise.

Last Thursday the President has as a guest at luncheon, Attorney Folk who has become famous through his relentless prosecution of the St. Louis bootleggers. Plans were discussed for adding bribery to the list of crimes mentioned in the extradition treaties with foreign countries. Mr. Folk is deeply interested in such a measure as several of the men whom he had indicted have taken refuge in Canada or Mexico. He believes that agreements with foreign countries should be made retroactive in order to make it possible to get possession of those who are already indicted. The President showed much enthusiasm for the plan and Secretary Hay was sent for, to whom Mr. Folk explained his case. The Secretary promised to take such steps as seemed practical and as soon as possible.

TO VOTE NEW BALLOT

Republicans Will Put a Cross In Square Opposite Party Name.

NEW GROUPING OF CANDIDATES

The Names of the Parties are Printed On the Extreme Left of the Ballot, and There is a Square After Each Party's Name.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, Oct. 13.—One of the important duties of the members of the Republican county committees throughout the state between now and election day will be to instruct the voters regarding the changes that have been made in the form of the official ballot and the method of marking the ballot so as to cast a vote for the full Republican ticket.

Under the provisions of the law as passed at the last session of the legislature the ballot will be smaller than heretofore. The party columns have been abolished, and the names of the candidates will be grouped under the titles of the different offices for which they are running. The name of his party, however, will be printed after the name of each candidate.

In lieu of the party column and the party circle at the head of each column, there shall be printed on the extreme left of each ballot the names of the several parties, and after the name of each party there shall be printed a square of sufficient size to permit of the convenient insertion of a cross mark, like this:

|-------------|---|
| REPUBLICAN | X |
| DEMOCRATIC | |
| PROHIBITION | |

PUT CROSS MARK IN SQUARE.

This cross mark is to serve the same purpose as did the cross mark used for the old ballot.

When this cross mark is placed in the square after the name of any party, in this group of parties on the left of the ballot, it signifies the intention of the voter to vote for all the candidates nominated by that party.

Every mark within such square shall be equivalent to a mark against every name designated by that political appellation or party name, including candidates nominated by more than one party or group of citizens.

At the head of each ticket shall be printed the following instructions:

"To vote a straight party ticket mark a cross (X) in the square opposite the name of the party of your choice in the first column.

"A cross mark in the square opposite the name of any candidate indicates a vote for that candidate."

INSTRUCTIONS AS TO COUNTING.

A book of instructions has been issued by the Republican state committee, and Secretary Andrews expects that before the end of this week he will have copies of the same in the hands of all the county committeemen. In this book, which also contains other valuable data regarding the new law, the following instructions are given to election officers regarding the method of counting the ballots:

The effect of a cross mark (X) in the square opposite the name of the party of his choice, in the straight party column on the left of the ballot, shall be equivalent to a vote for every candidate of the party so marked.

The placing of a cross mark (X) in the square at the right of the name of each candidate indicates a vote for each candidate so marked.

A cross mark (X) in the square opposite the name of the party in the straight party column on the left of the ballot, votes a straight ticket, and is equivalent to a vote for every candidate of the party so marked, and the marking of one or more names in the group of candidates of another party, is the marking of more names than the voter is entitled to vote for, and is a marking of the ballot otherwise than is directed by the act, and the ballot must not be counted for such office, but must be counted for all other offices, for which the name of the candidates have been properly marked.

For example—A voter places a cross mark opposite the name "REPUBLICAN" in the column on the left of the ballot—this mark would indicate that he had voted for every candidate of that party. If the voter, after having so marked his ballot, should place a cross mark in the square to the right of the name of a candidate of the Democratic party, his vote would not be counted for either or any of the candidates for that office, because the voter would be doing so vote for more candidates for that office than he is entitled to vote for, his vote, however, should be counted for all the other candidates of the Republican party.

The placing of a cross mark in the square opposite the name of the party of his choice in the straight party column on the left of the ballot, and at the same time placing a cross mark in the square to the right of the individual name of any or all of the candidates of that party, will not affect the validity of the ballot. It will simply be surplusage, and a vote must be counted for each candidate of that party.

When a candidate has died or withdrawn, and a substituted nomination is made after the ballots are printed, there shall be prepared and distributed with the ballots suitable slips of paper bearing the substituted name, together with the title of the office and having adhesive paste upon the reverse side, which shall be offered to each voter with the regular ballot, and may be affixed thereto. Under no other circumstances can a "sticker" be used. A voter must not cross out any name on the ballot, nor cover a name with a sticker or pasted, except in the case referred to herein.

Ballots with the name of a candidate erased by a voter must be counted, for the name so erased, if a cross mark has been placed in the square opposite to the name of his party.

All votes should be counted, except where the voter marks more names for any office than he is entitled to vote for, or for any reason it is impossible to determine the voter's choice for any office, to be filled. The ballot should be self-explanatory.

CURES CATARRH.

"Hyomei the Most Wonderful Cure for Catarrh Ever Discovered," says L. Taggart.

Do not try to cure catarrh by taking drugs into the stomach; it cannot be cured in that manner. The only way in which this two common disease can be cured is through a direct application that will kill the bacilli of catarrh and prevent their growth.

Hyomei is the only known method of treatment that accomplishes this. It is the simplest, most pleasant, and the only absolute cure for catarrh that has ever been discovered.

Thousands of unsolicited testimonials have been received from the most prominent men and women in the country who have been cured by this remarkable remedy. Ministers, bankers, lawyers, even eminent physicians have given strong testimonials as to the remarkable powers of Hyomei to cure catarrh.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00, consisting of an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei to last several weeks. This will effect a cure in ordinary cases, but for chronic and deep-seated cases of catarrh, longer use may be necessary, and then extra bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 50c. It is not alone the best (it might be called the only) method of curing catarrh, but it is also the most economical.

L. Taggart had so much confidence in the power of Hyomei to cure catarrh, that he will for a limited time, sell this medicine under his personal guarantee to refund the money if the purchaser can say that it did not help them.
