The Clairton, Pa., Plant to be En-larged and Improved – Company Owns Ore Lands, Coal Mines and Coking Plants-Neces-sary Funds Provided.

Pittsburg, Oct. 15.—Since the United States Steel Corporation has declined to take over a half interest in the Clairton Steel Co., now owned by the Crucible Steel Co., and after a contract had been made to do so, the officers of the Crucible Steel Co. will go ahead with the original plans to make this object a noverful comwill go ahead with the original plans to make this plant a powerful com-petitor of the combine and will them-selves furnish the necessary funds to do so. The fact that the company owns its ore lands, coking plants and coal mines, its officers say, puts it in an independent position for raw ma-terial. All it has to do now is to build finishing mills to its already enorfinishing mills to its already enor-mous works at Clairton to have one of the most modern works in the

Yesterday after a long conference by the executive officers of the Cruci-ble Steel Co., the following announce-ment was made by President Frank B. Smith:

B. Smith: "By reason of the failure of the consummation of the sale of the Clairton Steel Co. property, under the contract which had been executed which the advance of the Consider which the officers of the Crucible Steel Co. had every reason to believe would be carried out, it became neces-sary to have additional funds for the working capital of the Clairton plant and taking care of its indebtedess. "At a meeting sufficient subscrip-tions have been obtained to effect this plan. It has also been considered ad-plan. It has also been considered ad-visable to effect a reorganization of the company, and it has been ar-ranged to have William G. Park be-come chairman, in full control. "It is probable that the large oper-ations of the Clairton Steel Co, may require the company to discontinue the dividends on the preferred stock. If this proves to be so the directors will not hesitate to suspend dividends

If this proves to be so the directors will not hesitate to suspend dividends while this necessity exists." The change in the officers an-nounced brings back into harness William G. has been out of office for some time. W. P. Snyder, who remains at the head of the Clairton Co., is said to be one of the most skillful iron and steel manufacturers in the city. The company will turn out sheets and bars for the independent mills and possibly enter the rail market. Finishing lines will be added to the works to form an outlet for the heavy tonnage of billets and blooms that are available for open market. The Crucible Steel Co. has a capital of $50,000,000. Its own plants are of $50,000,000. Its own plants are large consumers of open hearth bil-lets. It was organized in 1900 and while never paying a common stock dividend, has accumulated a surplus.

Murder Followed by Suicide.

Murder Followed by Suicide. Donora, Pa., Oct. 16.—Charles Er-ven, 24 years old, and William Sweets, 18 years of age, both employed in the Union plant of the United States Steel Corporation here, engaged in a dispute last night. Sweets while in a terrific rage pulled a revolver and fired four shots at Erven, all taking effect, causing death. The shooting occurred in their boarding house and while the boarders were rushing up while the boarders were rushing up while the boarders were fushing up the stairs to investigate the shooting, Sweets appeared at the head of the stairs, placed the revolver to his fore-head and pulled the trigger, rolling dead down the stairs into the crowd. Little is known of either man.

A MESSENGER'S CRIME.

Clarence L. Leonard, 18 Years Old, Said to Have Secured $10,000 from New York Banks by Means of Forged Checks.

New York Hanks by Means of Forged Checks. New York, Oct. 16.—Haskins & Sells, certified public accountants, asked the local police yesterday to send out a general alarm for Clarence L. Leon-ard, 18 years old, of East Orange, N. J., a messenger employed by the firm. It is alleged that Leonard forged two checks, one for $7,500 and the other for $2,576, using the firm's name, on two local banks, presented them at the banks and collected the money. He is said to have secured the money. He is said to have secured the money last Tuesday at noon and to have dis-appeared immediately afterward. It is also said that a young woman liv-ing in East Orange disappeared at the same time. Leonard had been atten-tive to her and the supposition of the bank officials and the police is that they have eloped. Leonard comes from a prominent family of East Orange and had the full confidence of his employers. It was part of Leonard's duties as

Sarafoff 18 Dead. Salonica, Oct. 17.—The report of the death of Boris Sarafoff, the famous Macedonian leader, is confirm-cd. Boris Sarafoff was the life and soul of the insurgent operations in Macedonia. All his life Sarafoff was an enemy of the Turk. When he was a boy of 14 he saw his father and grandfather tortured and dragged in chains to a dungeon. He has been described as "the most romantic fig-ure in the Balkans." He was said to be the instigator of the abduction of ure in the Balkans." He was said to be the instigator of the abduction of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, in 1901, in order to procure through her ransom funds to epable the Macedonian revolutionary committee to organize the insurrec nary
