HERRICK IS ELECTED.

Plurality Over Mayor Tom L. Johnson Is Over 115,000.

100 MAJORITY IN LEGISLATURE.

Vote on Five Constitutional Amendments Delayed the Count—Republicans Carried Cuyahoga County by Decisive Plurality—Johnson Speaks About His Defeat.

Columbus, O., Nov. 4.—The Republicans broke their record in Ohio for pluralities for governor by electing Myron T. Herrick, Republican, over Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland, Democrat, by considerably over 100,000.

The plurality on joint ballot of over 95 in the legislature for the re-election of Senator Hanna more than doubles any previous record.

On account of the vote on five constitutional amendments the counting was delayed all over Ohio.

The announcement of the Republican victories in close legislative districts was received with much enthusiasm by the Hanna followers.

The Johnson-Jones fusion at Toledo had fallen by the largest plurality ever known in Lucas county.

The greatest demonstrations were over the announcements from Cleveland that the Republicans had carried Cuyahoga county, the home of Hanna, Clarke, Herrick and Johnson, by a decisive plurality. It is believed that the Republicans have carried three-fourths of the 88 counties in the state.

Herrick's Plurality.

Columbus, O., Nov. 5.—The Republican plurality in Ohio is about 115,000 for governor and the majority in the legislature on joint ballot for senator is 93.

Republican Chairman DeK announced that Herrick, Rep., had carried the 62 counties and Johnson, Dem., 26 for governor. On the legislative ticket the Democrats carried for less counties than for governor.

The senate stands 29 Republicans and 4 Democrats. The house stands 89 Republicans and 21 Democrats. All the larger cities and counties went Republican.

Secretary Richardson of the Democratic state committee said that he result in his opinion was due to the fear of single tax and 2 cent fare.

Johnson Speaks of His Defeat.

Cleveland, Nov. 5.—Hon. Tom L. Johnson, the defeated Democratic candidate for governor of Ohio, gave a statement relative to the Ohio election. He said:

"The result in Ohio is due to several causes, of which the chief was the successful attempt of Senator Hanna to impress upon the people of this state that a continuance of undisturbed business conditions demanded his return to the senate.

"The Republican party in this campaign used a fund larger in amount than any other similar fund in the history of state politics. This campaign fund was furnished by privileged interests throughout the country, they not unnaturally feeling that Senator Hanna was their national representative."

Logical Republican Candidate.

Cleveland, Nov. 5.—Senator Hanna referred to the renewed suggestion to the effect that he is the logical Republican candidate for the presidency next year, as a result of the unprecedented victory won in Ohio at Tuesday's election, and made this statement:

"The result of this election in Ohio is nowise changes my opinion in reference to my proposed candidacy for the presidency, of which position the public has been fully advised."

Charges of Fraud in Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 5.—Returns which are complete save for a few scattered precincts in remote parts of the state give John C. W. Beckham, Dem., for governor, a majority of 30,408 over Morris B. Belknap, Rep. The missing precincts are in both Republican and Democratic strongholds but the governor's official majority will probably be fully 25,000.

The Republicans are preparing charges of fraud alleged to have been perpetrated in Louisville, which they will probably present to the grand jury.

Democrats Carry Auburn.

Auburn, Nov. 4.—Frank J. Stupp, Democrat, was elected recorder over Nathan Kent, Republican, by 400 plurality. Richard Drummond, Democrat, was elected city judge over John L. Hunter, Republican, by 500 plurality. The Democrats also carried the common council. The Republicans elected their assessor and constables and carried the board of supervisors.

Will Not Be an Open Town.

New York, Nov. 5.—District Attorney Jerome said: "If they think they are going to have an open town, they have made the biggest mistake of their lives. I am going after the gamblers and dive keepers and I am going to get the evidence. I can get money. If this city wants the spectacle of its district attorney applying to private funds for the purpose of enforcing the laws that spectacle will be shown. I can get all the money I want."

Republican Plurality 265,000.

Philadelphia, Nov. 5.—Complete returns from all but 11 counties of the state indicate a plurality for William L. Mathews, Rep., for state treasurer, approximating 265,000.

In the counties where judges of common pleas court were chosen, the Republican percentage of victories was far greater than that of the Democrats.

Teachers' Institute.

Children part of drawing she states that it helps them to see and grasp the proportions that are similar and dissimilar. It also makes the children more observant of the forms of nature.

Prof. McGinnis gave an introduction to "A Teacher in the Hall of Fame" the origin and a description of the Temple of Fame. To one teacher Horace Mann, is there erected a monument in this temple. The one influence above all others which touched upon Horace Mann's life was a book—Education for Humanity—which he got from a public library. This book was the means of changing the tenor of his life, from this on he labored diligently to prepare youth by a better education for a better life. His idea of responsibility was engaged not by what a man has done but by what he has done under the circumstances. This unselfish life can best be summed up in his own words: "Be ashamed to die till you have won some victory for humanity."

Dr. Schumcker gave an extremely interesting talk on Wayside Weeds. He defines a weed as a plant that under ordinary circumstances can take care of itself. He advised the study of weeds rather than the beautiful cultivated flowers. The ragweed, yarrow, wild carrot and boneseed will not be thought of as mere weeds by those who were fortunate enough to hear this talk. He told how each weed derived its name and gave some for each distinct feature of its life. The characteristic remark of his talk was: "The world is not made for only me."

The "Century of Literature" Prof. Green gave the main writers of the 18th century and a few of the interesting facts about each author. He makes 1788 the beginning of the 18th century because that date is marked by political events, which leads to social revolution. The characteristics of 18th Century are (1) Intellectual, not emotional; (2) Utilitarian, not idealistic; (3) Artificial not spontaneous. The condition of origin and development of a reading public. (2) Increasing importance of the common classes. As a result of these literary productions were prose, rhetorical poetry, novels, periodical essays, historical prose and representative writings.

WEDNESDAY, P. M.

The last talk to be given by Prof. McGinnis was the concrete in Moral Training. He holds that the concrete training is the best to train the will to act habitually from pure and lofty motives. Teaching by the concrete we appeal to a child through the emotions largely. He illustrates this by telling a story then bringing out the morals by questions.

Deputy State Supt. Stewart occupied the next period of the afternoon by addressing first the teachers, then the directors. He said that school government as well as all other government should be based upon morality; a teacher must know in his own heart that he must be pure, the teacher's power for good is as much vital importance as that of a minister. Teachers sometimes forget that they are doing good, that the result of their work is as much vital importance as that of a minister. Teachers sometimes forget that they are doing good, that the result of their work is as much vital importance as that of a minister.

As his last talk, Prof. Green gave his experience of rambles around and through London. Old Canterbury, Gad's Hill, homes of Dickens, Irving, Shakespeare, and Gray were the places of literary note around London. In London proper Prof. Green visited either the old home or the birth place of Burke, Dr. Johnson, Lamb, Milton and Byron. Besides relating interesting incidents in the lives of these authors he recited selections from most of them.

Dr. Schumcker had only a few minutes to talk he continued the story of spiders. From the small sack of spider eggs, 200 spiders are hatched or some one looking for a place. He also discussed tax levying and stated that even the maximum tax is small in comparison to the benefit derived from our public schools.

THURSDAY, A. M.

After prayer by Rev. Knox and singing by the ladies, Miss Weller consulted her class in drawing by showing how to impart the development of the cylinder to the pupils. As the cylinder is the basis of towers, children should be given towers to draw. She advocates the use of models as new ones take away the individuality.

County Supt. Sweeney of Elk County gave instruction in language and composition. He gave the successive steps suited to different grades. In the simplest conversational way the teacher requests the pupils to tell stories. From these stories which are more simple sentences words are taught. Stories are expanded by adding different descriptive words, etc. Object lessons are here introduced and by this time the pupils are able to reproduce very short stories. Poems should be committed and stories told.

Dr. Schumcker said he selected a stalk of corn for it stood for so much the world over; it is a representative of a multitude of plants, grass, palms, and bamboo may be understood by studying corn. The corn stalk is a grass because it has knotted, round stem, leaves opposite and wrapped around stem to form a cylinder for a purpose. The outer edge of the leaves are wider in order that they might resist the wind, and too it makes a gutter in the middle to carry off the water which is taken up by the roots. (Continued next week.)

NATURE'S OWN CURE.

Hyomei Cures Catarrh Without Dangerous Drugging of the Stomach.

Not until Hyomei was discovered has it been possible to truthfully say that a remedy for catarrh was known.

This remedy is breathed through the Hyomei inhaler for a few minutes four or five times a day, and during that time every particle of air take into the air passages and lungs is impregnated with the germ killing and health giving Hyomei. It is the only treatment that cures catarrh.

Stomach drugging often causes disordered digestion or brings on some other disease and never makes a permanent cure of catarrh. Hyomei not only kills the germs in the throat and nose but penetrates to the minutest air cells in the lungs and enters the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood. It frees the mucous membrane from poisonous microbes and gives perfect health.

A complete outfit costs but $1.00, and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks treatment.

L. Taggart had so much faith in the merit of Hyomei that he agrees to return the money to any purchaser who may be dissatisfied.

For sick headache try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets; they will ward off the attack if taken in time. For sale by L. Taggart.
