

Diastrious Wreck.
Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from Throat and Lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and even the worst cases are cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by L. Taggart, Druggist. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free L. Taggart.

Not a Sick Day Since.
"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c, at L. Taggart Druggist.

M'CLELLAN'S ELECTION

Elected Over Mayor Low by a Plurality of 63,617.

GROUT AND FORNES ALSO WIN

Colonel McClellan Invites Co-Operation of Every Citizen For Advancement of the City's Good—Will Attend Extra Session of Congress Devery's Insignificant Vote.

New York, Nov. 4.—After a remarkable campaign in which there were united against him nearly all of the newspapers and practically every minister of religion in the city, George B. McClellan, son of the civil war general, was elected third mayor of Greater New York over Seth Low, Fusionist, the present mayor, by the large plurality of 63,617. Edward M. Grout was elected comptroller and Charles V. Fornes, president of the board of aldermen. These two men were originally on the fusion ticket and were endorsed by Tammany, whereupon the fusionists took their names from the Low ballots and nominated other candidates.

It was the nomination of Grout and Fornes by Tammany that caused Hugh McLaughlin, the veteran leader of the Kings county Democracy, to bolt and declare that he would not support men who were not Democrats. In spite of his defection, however, McClellan Grout and Fornes carried Kings county. The management of their campaign there were taken over by State Senator Patrick H. McCarren when McLaughlin refused his aid.

A surprise was the little voting for William S. Devery, former chief of police, who ran on the independent ticket, which was given practically no support.

Colonel McClellan, who is at present a member of congress, made the following statement: "I am deeply grateful to my fellow citizens for their confidence in me. I renew the promises which I made before election I have no bitterness of feeling for anyone. I shall go at once to Washington to prepare for the extra session and as soon as the question of Cuban reciprocity is disposed of I shall turn my attention to the affairs of the city.

"I invite the co-operation of every citizen whether he supported me or not and regardless of his politics in the advancement of the city's good."

"I cannot promise much in the way of public improvements for a year, because of the financial condition of the city and lack of appropriations, but I shall urge the speedy and economical completion of the work now under way. I shall make every effort to provide ample school accommodation for every child.

"This victory should encourage all Democrats for the presidential contest in 1904."

Charles F. Murphy, the leader of Tammany Hall, said: "The figures speak for themselves and the people have spoken. Of course we are pleased at the result. It bears out the figures we gave. If the election had been a week further off, the chances are that Devery would have polled a larger vote than Low."

The campaign was one of the most interesting in the history of New York city. From the day Mayor Low was renominated his supporters urged his re-election on the ground that no partisan question was involved but that every man should vote to uphold the existing administration because it had given the city a business-like conduct of affairs and because it had done much to stamp out the "red light" evil on the East side.

It was argued by fusionist orators that the return of Tammany men to office would mean a "wide open town." Mr. McClellan was attacked by the speakers for the fusionists because, they alleged, he had sold the name his father honored to cloak the designs of evil men.

To these statements the Democrats responded with the charge that Low's non-partisan claims masked an attempt to secure control of the city in the interest of Governor Odell, that all of the credit for good business administration under Low belonged to Grout, who was on the Democratic ticket, and that every Democrat should cast his ballot for McClellan in view of the important bearing this city's vote would have on the presidential election next year.

Both candidates made nightly speeches. Low's principal supporting orator was District Attorney Jerome, who bitterly opposed the mayor's renomination on the ground that he was unpopular, but who after the nominating convention made frequent speeches for the fusion ticket. For McClellan Bourke Cockran returned to political activity and made several speeches.

Scarcely second in interest to the defeat of Low is the effect of the result of the vote on the fortunes of the octogenarian Hugh McLaughlin, who for more than a quarter of a century had been the undisputed leader of the Kings county Democracy and who now finds that his former lieutenant, McClellan, was able to so manage McClellan's canvass that a Democratic plurality resulted in spite of McClellan's spirited opposition.

Of the five borough presidents voted for, the Democratic candidates were successful in the Bronx, where Haffen was re-elected; in Manhattan where Ahern had a big plurality; in Queens, where Cassidy won for the second time, and in Brooklyn, where Martin W. Littleton had a large plurality than McClellan.

ERIE COUNTY REPUBLICAN.

Only One Democrat Elected on City or County Ticket.

Buffalo, Nov. 4.—The following city officials have been elected: F. G. Ward, Rep., commissioner of public works; H. P. Emerson, Rep., superintendent of education; Louis J. Kennigott, Republican, overseer of the poor; Carl H. Hammond, Republican, judge of municipal court; Thomas Murphy, Republican, police justice; Thomas H. Rochford, Republican, justice.

County officers, John H. Price, Republican, county clerk; Frederick O. Murray, Republican, county treasurer; Charles F. Sturm, Republican, auditor; L. L. Long, Republican, superintendent of the poor.

Of the six members of the board of councilmen, J. N. Adam was the only Democrat elected.

Republican Success in the State.

New York, Nov. 4.—Returns from the state show the election of the Republican mayors in Syracuse, Elmira, Plattsburg, Rochester, Albany, Binghamton, Watertown and Oneida; W. T. Coleman defeating Mayor Sheehan for re-election in Elmira. In Oswego, Schenectady and Troy Democratic mayors were elected.

The Republicans gained eight assemblers in the state, making the assembly of 1904 stand 97 Republican to 52 Democrats. A special election was held in the 22nd senatorial district to fill the place of Senator McClelland, Dem., resigned. Francis M. Carpenter, Rep., was elected.

Platt Interviewed.

New York, Nov. 4.—Senator T. C. Platt said last night of the municipal election: "It is the fortune of war and I have no complaint to make. This is especially so because the assembly is safe and because I know Mr. McClellan very well and believe he will make a good mayor. He is an excellent young man, and if we are defeated I am glad the victory falls on such a pleasant personality."

"I do not regard municipal campaigns as having any bearing upon state and national issues. There is no possible way of connecting it with the partisan issues that will affect the contest of 1904."

Mr. Platt added that he had no doubt that the full Republican vote was polled for the fusion candidate.

Governor Bates Re-Elected.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 4.—Although somewhat pushed by the exertions of their opponents, the Republicans re-elected John L. Bates and the Republican state ticket by practically same plurality as last year. The legislature is also strongly Republican. Gaston's plurality of twenty thousand in Boston is seven thousand greater than last year.

With returns complete from every town and city in the state the total vote for governor was Bates, Republican, 199,393; Gaston, Democrat, 162,544.

Republican County Officers.

Ballston, Nov. 5.—Official returns from all precincts of Saratoga county show that Assemblyman George H. Whitney, Rep., is re-elected by 34 plurality, a gain of 1,438 over 1902. All the Republican county offices were chosen by the following plurality: Keavanaugh, sheriff, 3,399; Grippen treasurer, 3,089; Pearce, county superintendent, 3,192. The county majority against the barge canal was 2,556 with four precincts not reported, which will slightly increase it.

Democrats Gain in Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 5.—Returns keep coming in very slowly but from those at hand Governor Cummins plurality will be reduced from 83,000 two years ago to 59,000. The Democrats have made decided gains in the legislative districts and for the first time in many years, the number of Democrats in the legislature will be over 20 and possibly 30.

Garvin Re-Elected Governor.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 5.—Dr. L. F. C. Garvin, Democratic candidate for governor, has been re-elected by a plurality of 1,587. The senate, including Lieutenant Governor-elect Uter, will stand 28 to 11 in favor of the Republicans, while the lower house will consist of 39 Republicans and 33 Democrats.

Republican Plurality in Nebraska.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 5.—Judge Barnes Rep., is elected supreme court judge over Judge Sullivan, the present incumbent, by a plurality that may reach 8,000. The rest of the Republican state ticket is elected by 10,000.

Justice Campbell Re-Elected.

Denver, Col., Nov. 5.—Unofficial returns from all the counties in the state indicate that Chief Justice John Campbell, Rep., has been re-elected to the supreme court by a plurality approximating 8,000.

Republicans Retain Legislature.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 4.—Republicans retain control of the legislature as a result of the election. All other contests were for city tickets, in which considerable local interest was felt.

No Legislation on Canal.

Colon, Nov. 5.—A dispatch has been received from Bogota dated Nov. 1 saying that congress has closed with out initiating legislation on the canal project.

THE CHAMPION MIXED PAINT

Sold by L. TAGGART has no superior.

Fourteen years ago I painted my house with these paints and am now, for the first time since, repainting it. H. L. Smith, the painter, says he never knew of a house in better condition for painting after having stood so long.

A gentleman, whose name I will not mention, living in our town, painted his house thirteen years ago, with these paints and he has engaged some painter to repaint, saying that he would have no other.

Dr. Heilman will also testify as to the merits of these paints. County jail painted four years ago. John Lind's two houses painted two years ago and many others, all speak for the virtue and staying qualities of these paints, and is better evidence than any man's word. Look at them; then buy the Champion paints and paint your house and be happy.

Also paper your house with the elegant wall paper at Taggart's and be doubly happy.
