U. A. Palmer came over from Bradford, on Friday where he is employed by the Penn'a Torpedo Co., to visit with his family until Sunday. Thos. W. Welsh, of this place, carpenter at Cameron Mines, had the misfortune to cut his right hand severely yesterday. Dr. Heilman dressed the injury.

John Wygant, tax collector of Portage township, was a Press caller on Tuesday and pushed up the date on his Press to 1904. He believes in keeping square with the printer. Mrs. Sisson, of Erie, Pa., wife of Senator A. E. Sisson, is guest of Mrs. Bryan and Miss Nina. She leaves for Philadelphia to-morrow, accompanied by Miss Bryan, to visit for a few days.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lynch will regret the departure of this pleasant family to Boston, Mass., where Mr. Lynch has again entered the employ of the Stock Exchange as expert operator. Mr. Lynch has gone, his family to follow later. We neglected the fact that Jas. R. Hamilton had the pleasure of entertaining a brother last week. It is the first visit the brothers have enjoyed in 25 years. Mr. Hamilton is in the employ of Judge Cochran, at Ashland, Wis. Wednesday morning, Nov. 18, at the home of the bride's parents, at 10 o'clock, will occur the marriage of Helen, youngest daughter of Mrs. H. A. Van Valkenburg, and Dr. A. G. Hamilton, both of this village.—Wellsborough Advocate. Miss Van Valkenburg was for several years the assistant principal of our Borough schools and greatly respected by our people, who certainly extend their best wishes to this excellent lady and her heart's choice.

W. W. Dickinson continues to fall. His days are few, we fear.

John Kelly and family returned from Bradford county last Saturday.

Mrs. F. P. Rentz visited in Williamsport over Sunday, guest of relatives.

Hon. L. Taggart is improving and will soon be on deck again, ready for a scrap.

Miss Mame Ritchie visited Dr. McAllister at Ridgway last week, having an operation performed on one of her eyes. It was a success.

Misses May and Jennie Gould visited their brother and wife at Eldred, two or three days last week, returning home Monday evening.

H. A. Cox, of Philadelphia, is in town this week, transacting business with C. B. Howard Company, for whom he is selling agent in the Quaker city.

Mr. Saylor, representing the Grit, stopped off in Emporium on Tuesday and wrapped his legs under the banquet board with his Masonic brethren during the evening.

Mrs. Prude Fry, nee Flemming, of Ratan, N. M., arrived in town on Monday, to visit Jas. Wright and family, for a short time. She visited her sick mother in New Jersey.

Thos. H. Norris enjoyed 'Uncle Tom' last Monday evening and hopes to take a 'Desperate Chance' next Tuesday evening, unless managers Clark & Howard catch onto his game.

Marcus Wright, of Clear Creek, was a Press caller yesterday and informed ye editor that his wife, who has been sorely afflicted for several weeks, is quite comfortable. Her many friends hope this jolly good lady may recover.

Editor Stokes, of Coudersport Enterprise, was in Emporium last Saturday, calling on a few friends. We notice the Enterprise was slightly singed by fire last week, but luckily escaped with only a singe. By the way, the genial editor is a pleasant gentleman to meet.

S. D. Robinson, an old Portage boy, but now a resident of Emporium and employed by the Climax Powder Company, was a Press visitor last evening for the purpose of squaring accounts, which he proceeded to do and carried away a receipt up to Jan. 1st, 1905. He is one of those American workmen not afraid to work and has no fears of soup houses as long as the Republican party administers the affairs of the Nation.

Resigned. J. Hatley Swain has resigned as Pennsylvania agent at Keating Summit. Too much work.

A Bucktail. Comrade James Landrigan, of Kushequa, was the third man to enlist in Gen. Kane's famous Bucktail regiment away back in the sixties. He was in Bradford when he learned that Kane was recruiting a regiment of Northwestern Pennsylvania men, and walked from there to Smethport to join. Two men had signed the roll of enlistment before he did, but the other two failed to qualify, so in reality, he was No. 1 in that historical roster. He was in the war three years and three months, and although he did his share of the fighting the bullets of the opposition never touched him. He is still a well preserved active man.—Eldred Eagle.

Returns Thanks.

The ladies of Silver Star Hive, No. 27, of Sterling Run wish to thank those who assisted in making the L. O. T. M. supper a success. Great credit is due L. C., Martha Smith, and P. L. C., Mary Sumncerson. There are a few other members who are ever ready and willing to help build up the order. A fine cake was presented to the ladies by cook at Thomas & Whiting's camp, which they wish also to express their appreciation.

Respectfully, Mrs. E. WHITING. Nov. 10th, 1903.

A Runaway Bicycle. Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer unyielding to doctors and remedies for four years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured. It's just as good for Burns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c, at L. Taggart's Drug Store.

The Eureka Mfg. Co., of East St. Louis, Ill., want a man with rig to introduce Poultry Mixture in this county. They guarantee $350 a day to a good worker and they furnish bank reference of their reliability. Send stamp for particulars. Eureka Mfg. Co., Box 99, East St. Louis, Ill. 46-1-ly.

The Marriage Knot. Few of those who talk about the "marriage knot" realize that the knot was ever anything more than a mere figure of speech. Among the Babylonians tying the knot was part of the marriage ceremony. There the priest took a thread of the garment of the bride and another from that of the bridegroom and tied them into a knot, which he gave to the bride, thus symbolizing the binding nature of the union.

Changing a Snake into a Rod. In a volume on the snakes of Egypt Hippolyte Bouscassat states that the incident referred to in the Scriptures of changing a snake into a rod is still practiced by the snake charmers. They touch the snake at a certain place in the neck, when it falls into a cataleptic condition and becomes straight and stiff. It is then restored to its former condition by taking its tail between the hands and firmly rolling.

Egyptian Maxims. An Egyptian papyrus which dates back to about 4000 B. C. has the following injunctions: "Calmness should never be repeated." "Guard thy speech before all things, for a man's ruin lies in his tongue." The wise men of the race early learned good sense.

Toned Him Down. "This photograph doesn't look a bit like me," said Snarley to the photographer. "I know it," said the photographer. "I was afraid to make it exactly like you for fear you wouldn't take it."

Tested. Cora—Are you sure you will be able to support me, dear? Merritt—Why, yes. It's cheaper to be married than engaged.—Exchange.

WILL GIVE GUARANTEE BOND.

L. Taggart Gives Signed Agreement that Mi-o-na Costs Nothing Unless it Cures.

Mi-o-na, the remarkable flesh forming food and cure for dyspepsia, has won immense popularity by the unusual way in which it is sold.

With every 50c box of Mi-o-na, L. Taggart gives the following signed guarantee bond, assuring the purchaser that Mi-o-na costs absolutely nothing unless it increases flesh, cures all stomach troubles and restores health.

GUARANTEE BOND.

I hereby agree to refund the price paid for Mi-o-na if the purchaser tells me that it has not increased flesh and given freedom from stomach troubles.

L. TAGGART.

This guarantee bond is plain and simple and it positively assures you that when you commence the Mi-o-na treatment you run absolutely no risk. You simply deposit 50c for a box of this flesh-forming food with L. Taggart and if after using it you do not feel that you have been benefited, you go back to his store and he will return your money without any question or argument.

It is a true flesh forming food confined with elements that regulate the digestive organs and remove congestion and irritation from the stomach, liver and intestines. Mi-o-na will restore firm, healthy flesh, fill in the outlines, and give a pleasing plumpness and symmetry.

Begin its use to-day with L. Taggart's guarantee to return the money if Mi-o-na does not do all that is claimed for it.

School Report.

Total pupils registered, 719. Number in attendance during month, 699. Average daily attendance, 651. Percentage of attendance, 95. Number present every day, 419. Number of pupils tardy, 75. Number of pupils sick, 51. Number of visits to schools by patrons, etc. 54.

Compared with the preceding month there is an increase of 23 in the average daily attendance and of 57 in the number attending every day of the month.

In comparison with the second or corresponding month of last year, the total enrollment has increased 29, the average daily attendance by 111, the percentage of attendance by 21 per cent, and the number who attended every day of the month by 111. In this last item the record for the month just past is the best made in the last two years. The attendance, therefore, has been above the average.

The following schools have made a record in attendance of 95 per cent. or over: Miss Barker's, 98; Miss Ludlam's 97; High School and Miss Metzger's, 97; Miss Bair's and Miss Maxwell's, 96; Miss Gregory's, 95; Miss Larrabee's, Miss Cumming's and Miss McQuay's, 95.

The work done in the schools shows the same gratifying progress noted in the attendance, and is such as to merit the cordial support and co-operation of every parent. 54 visitors are credited in the report, but the actual number of separate visitors is much smaller. Several of the directors visited all the schools and were reported from each school visited. This means that very few patrons have found their way into the schools to see for themselves what kind of work is being done. All parents are cordially invited to come.

The following pupils have made a record of 95 or more per cent in scholarship, attendance and deportment combined:
