One Hundred Dollars a Box. Is the value H. A. Tisdale, Summer-ton, S. C., places on DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. He says: "I had the piles for 20 years. I tried many doctors and medicines, but all failed except DeWitt's Witch Hard Salve. The same the same transformed are "I Witch Hazel Salve. It cured me." It is a combination of the healing properties of Witch Hazel with antiseptics and em ollients; relieves and permanently cured blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, sores, cuts, bruises, eczema, salt rheum and all skin diseases. Sold by R. C. Dodson. Good For Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate re-lief in all cases of Cough, Croug and La-Grippe because it does not pass immed-iately into the stomach, but takes effect, right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. Dr. Armstrong of Della, Tex., prescribes it daily and says there is no better cough remedy made. Sold by R. C. Dodson Set the board and ask the blessing For the bounty amply spread, In the simplest words expressing What a loving Father said— "Peace on earth"—for this is nearest When the snows with us abide, And the winter air is clearest In the hush of Christmastide.

Bring the old musician's fiddle, Relic of the bygone days; Send the fairest down the middle While the lilting music sways. Light of foot and quick of laughter Swing the dancers, toe and heel, As they pass or follow after In the quaint Virginia reel.

Make a welcome for the stranger, Should his footstep cross the door, By the memory of the manger And the Christ that was of yore; Gather children's faces round you, As he gathered them long syne, If it be the years have crowned you With their radiance divine.

Deck the tree and light the candles, Deck the tree and light the candles, Let the stockings all be hung. For a saint with furry sandals O'er the housetops high has swung. And his reindeer steeds are prancing Through the star bespangled rime, And the moonbeams pale are glancing In the merry Christmas time. -Woman's Home Companion.

A Christmas Card Worth Millions

The most expensive Christmas card ever made was prepared by an English firm in Calcutta some years ago for the native ruler of Baroda, in the East Indies, and intended as a gift for a European lady of rank with whom the great man was in love. This card was a foot in length by ten inches in width and of flawless ivory, to obtain which over forty elephants were killed. Four of the most skillful carvers to be found were at work for six months on this magnificent present. When it was fin-ished the eyesight of three of them was injured and the fourth man be-came blind. The engraving and carving they did were the representing of 10,000 of the stages of existence of Buddha. The card was ornamented around the edges, like a frame, with forty-four diamonds of the purest water, and each the size of a hazelnut. The cost was estimated at half a million pounds sterling. The lady never got her present, for the potentate was

CHRISTMAS REMNANTS.

Ways of Serving the Portions of Turkey Left From the Feast. After your Christmas dinner you will probably find that you have a goodly portion of turkey left. This has happened a great many times before, and as a result many ways have been devised for preparing these left over scraps of turkey meat. This does not mean the large white slices of the breast, for this portion of the meat can be simply arranged on a platter and eaten as it is. A salad of the white meat of turkey is as good as if not better than chicken salad. Take one cup of turkey meat. rather coarsely chopped; one cup of celery, also rather coarsely chopped; the whites of three hard boiled eggs, also chopped. Put the yolks of the hard bolled eggs into a bowl and mash and then pour over them three tablespoonfuls of melted butter or pure olive oil. Into this put one teaspoon ful of salt and one of mustard, with a dash of red pepper; then thin with half a cup of good vinegar. Another way to use the white meat of turkey is to chop it fine, then put a spoonful of cranberry sauce that has been run through a colander in the bettom of a mold or small bowl, on this a layer of chopped turkey, then a lay-er of cranberry, and so on till the mold is full. Press hard and put in a cold place till ready to use; then turn out on a platter.

Turkey Croquettes .- Take one cup of turkey meat, chopped fine; one cup of bread crumbs, one spoonful of butter and two of cream; season with salt and pepper; mold into little fancy shaped cakes and fry. Turkey patties are made exactly as are chicken patties. To one cup of turkey take one cup of turkey gravy or one cup of water made rich by a generous lump of butter; season and thicken with a little flour; pour into pastry shells and bake in a quick oven.

A LESSON FOR CHRISTMAS.

How a Generous Giver of Presents May Retaliate For Neglect. "Here's something cheap. Let's buy said the tall, angular woman. it," "What for?" asked the jolly little one. "Oh, for a Christmas present," an-

"Who for?" queried No. 2. "Oh, I don't know. It will come in handy for some one."

"Here" (to the clerk), "wrap me up two of these and hurry my change, please. How much? Seventeen cents? Oh, all right." "My goodness!" ejaculated her jolly companion. "You don't mean to say you buy all your Christmas presents that way?"

"Pretty nearly-at least that's what I intend doing this year. I've taken lots of pains to buy things before, but from now on I'm going to go about things differently." "Why, what has changed you?" "Well, it's this way: I'm an old maid, ou know, but I like pretty things aw fully well. I am accounted well off. and so I am, but almost every year l have sought out the nicest, prettiest things I could find and sent them off to those I count my friends. And what did I get in return? Nothing, positively nothing. Now, the value of a thing doesn't count one bit with me, but I do like people to be thoughtful, and when I get two or three marked down calendars and a general collection of stuff picked up to send at the last moment which is not of the least use to anybody I rebel. So this year I am going to try to teach them a lesson.

Joys of Christmas Time.

While the Christmas season brings a thrill of joy to all the aged who have lived correct lives, yet it is sometimes saddened by reminiscences of sins of omission and commission. The knowledge that during this blessed time evil spirits are shorn of power to do evil does not always soothe the pangs of conscience. But to the young, to whom ife in prospect shine, the season is one of unalloyed bliss. In addition to health and good digestion, they have two patron saints, "Little Jack Horner, who sat in the corner," and Santa Claus, who, though a Dutchman, is endeared to the in-fantry of all nations by the boundless profusion he showers on all na tionalities. There are trees sufficiently stacked up around the market house to carry all the old gentleman's benefac tions this year, and they are selling readily, a testimonial to the improved prospects of the expectant recipients of his bounty. Numerous, indeed, are the hearts to which Christmas brings a brief sea-son of happiness and enjoyment. How many families whose members have been scattered far and wide in the restless struggle for life are then reunited and meet again in that happy state of companionship and mutual good will! How many old recollections and how many dormant sympathies does Christmas time awaken! There are thousands of Pickwicks to-

Scalloped Oysters.

The Christmas dinner should include oysters. They may serve for an entree and are delicious scalloped or baked in a ple with the giblets. This is the way to prepare scalloped oysters: Place in a shallow baking dish a layer of oysters; over this spread a layer of bread crumbs or crumbled crackers; sprinkle it with salt, pepper and bits of butter; alternate the layers until the dish is full, having crumbs on top, well dotted with bits of butter. Pour over the whole enough oyster juice to moisten it. Bake in a hot oven fifteen or twenty minutes or until browned. Serve in the same dish in which it is baked. Individual scallop cups or shells may also be used, enough for one person being placed in each cup. Properly prepared, it is an excellent dish.-New York World.

Christmas Oyster Soup.

One quart of oyster liquor, two dozen oysters, one quart of milk, two ta-blespoonfuls of butter, two tablespoonfuls of flour, juice of half a lemon, salt and pepper to taste, tiny pinch of mace. Heat milk and strained oyster liquor in separate vessels. Rub butter and flour together, cook in a saucepan until they bubble and pour on hot milk, stirring till the mixture is thin and smooth Add the liquor, drop in the oysters and cook five minutes. Season and serve at ence. Add lemon juice the very last thing.

day as well as a century ago who, enjoy that sacred time as well as he.—Pittsburg Press.

Smoking the Christmas Fool.

In some parts of England the custom is said still to continue, two days after old Christmas day, of "smoking the fool"-that is, a pile of straw being collected and set alight, the "fool" is hung over it by a rope around his waist and swung backward and forward till he is nearly dead. Then he goes around with his cap and collects "what the spectators think proper to give," as the chroniclers express it. In these enterprising days, when almost any game is worked that can induce any one to give anything, it seems strange that no one has imported this custom, for it must be a successful one.
