capital, marching overland.

Pekin, Jan. 8.—Gen. Yuan Shai Kai, commander-in-chief of the Chinese army and navy, sent his foreign adviser, Charles Denby, to Pekin to investigate the report as to the probability of war. Mr. Denby has reported that according to the best opinions obtainable, based on diplomatic information, war cannot be averted. averted.

It is known that neither Russia nor Japan is desirous of a winter cam-paign and that both countries believe delay will help their preparations.

London, Jan. 8.—The Daily Mail's Yokohama correspondent says that Russia's reply to Japan practically removes all hope of a peaceful settlement. The Daily Mail's Tokio correspondent learns that Russia has made new demands which it will be impossible for Japan to entertain. The correspondent says that all the powers are landing troops in Korea and that the British blue jackets landed at Chemulpo are expected to go to Seoul immediately.

Constant telegrams are passing between M. Payloff, the Russian minister to Korea; Baron De Rosen, the Russian minister to Japan, and Viceroy Alexieff.

Tokio, Jan. 8 .- The attitude of Japan toward the response of Russia is still undefined. Premier Katsura, the minister of foreign affairs; the minister of war, the minister of finance and the minister of naval affairs held a council yesterday afternoon. It was decided that the cabinet confer with the older statesmen be fore deciding on a course of pro-cedure. It is manifest that Russia's proposals are unsatisfactory. It is believed that Russia will make concessions in one direction and impose new conditions in another. The Japanese nation is deeply stirred. Public sentiment favors the abandonment of negotiations, believing them to be useless, and urges a resort to arms.
