Mrs. Lizzie Easterbrooks is visiting friends in Bradford this week.

James Dorval, of East Ward is celebrating the arrival of a bouncing boy. Fred and George Ritchie, of St. Marys, spent Sunday with their parents at this place.

H. C. Olmsted, one of our best and most estimable citizens, was a pleasant social caller at the PRESS office Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Bingeman and family returned to Emporium last Saturday to spend the balance of the winter at their home in this place.

Miss Ella Morrissy left on mail last evening for her home in Emporium, called there by the illness of her mother.—Saturday's Kane Republican.

D. C. Hayes, the reliable and industrious drayman, was a PRESS caller on Tuesday. "Dave" has had many comical experiences and knows how to relate them.

John L. Johnson, proprietor of American Hotel, dropped in to see the PRESS yesterday. Mr. Johnson is a good citizen, conducts a good house and treats his brother honestly.

Miss Mary Robinson, of Emporium, who had been on a visit to her sister, in Jersey City, stopped off yesterday on her way home, as a guest of Dr. and Mrs. Albra W. Baker, of Park avenue.—Williamsport Bulletin, Tuesday.

F. W. Panting and R. H. Panting, the former from Prince Edward Island and the latter from Richwood, W. Va., arrived in time to view the remains of their brother, John Panting. Belated trains kept them three days on the road.

J. M. Walker, Esq., of Scranton, Pa., arrived in Emporium Sunday, being called here on account of the dangerous illness of his mother. J. M. thinks there is no city in the United States like Scranton, and that Scranton is the whole thing. His Emporium friends will be pleased to know that he is enjoying a good law practice.

Lyman Wiley writes us from Baltimore to change the address on his PRESS to Hagerstown, Md., he having moved to that city. Mr. Wiley says in closing his letter: "By gravity, it has been cold here. One could skate on the streets of Baltimore. The sewers from the residences run into the gutters and overflowed the streets. Baltimore has no sewer system—only a surface sewer."

Dr. W. H. DeLong, who lives at Emporium, Pa., in summer and at Emporia, Florida, in winter, sent a box of very fine sweet oranges, the product of his own rove, to the Elk County Medical Society for their annual meeting. Dr. DeLong is a member of this society and his kind remembrance was much appreciated by the medical men, who consumed and greatly enjoyed all the luscious fruit they could find room for, and then presented the rest of the oranges to the hospital.... Mrs. J. E. Smith, of Sterling Run, Cameron county, is a guest of her brother, N. T. Arnold, and family, at "Bonifels."—Ridgway Daily Record.

Chas. T. Logan visited Philadelphia over Sunday.

Jas. L. Norie visited in Philadelphia last Thursday and Friday.

Mr. Elias Cramer has returned from a pleasant visit to Williamsport.

Josiah Howard returned on Monday from a business visit to Pittsburg.

James O'Flannigan, of Columbus, O., was guest of Mrs. J. S. Wiley and family last week.

Mr. D. R. Branson, of DuBois, was guest of A. A. Donald and family last Sunday.

Presiding Elder Wilcox, of Williamsport, was guest of Mr. Fred Julian and wife, last evening.

Mrs. Theo. Ritchie, an excellent lady who resides on Maple street with her husband and family, is again seriously ill, having had another stroke. At this writing she is some better under Dr. Bardwell's careful treatment.

Charles W. Hall, of Clear Creek, was a social caller at the PRESS sanctum Tuesday. Mr. Hall takes great pride in the quality of his apples, grown on his farm. He left three fine specimens with us. Chas. will have to call again, not especially to bring some more apples but to get one of his gloves. One glove is no good to us.

Ross Crane. The Star Course made a ten strike when they engaged Ross Crane for last Tuesday evening. The Court House was filled and the popular cartoonist and humorist charmingly entertained his audience.

Farmers' Institute. The most successful Institute ever held in Cameron county closed last evening, at the Court House. Three sessions will be held to day at Driftwood. County Chairman W. H. Howard has stuck to it until he has worked up a live interest.

Notes From Howardville.

Messrs. Truman Carpenter, W. A. Dalrymple, Joe Butler, Mike Leary, Geo. Hillyard, Charles Krebs, Chas. Hout and Mose Johnson are all back to work again. All have been laid off with the gripe. At one time the mill was ten men short handed. MEL.

Mother de Chantal.

In our last issue we mentioned the fact that Mr. and Mrs. D., Hayes were called to West Chester, Pa., to attend the funeral of Mr. Hayes' sister, at that time we not knowing the prominent position occupied in church work by the deceased. We copy the following short extract from the Catholic Standard:

By the death on Sunday last, at Villa Maria, West Chester, of Mother Mary de Chantal, superior of the Sister-Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, there was brought to a close a career of singular beauty and fruitfulness, a life devoted to the holy cause of Christian education and crowned with a measure of success rarely attained even in the ranks of consecrated daughters of the Church.

Mother de Chantal had been ill of pneumonia since Christmas morning. For a few days, while confined to bed, she continued to direct the affairs of her order and to dictate correspondence, but growing weaker, she gradually yielded to the disease and finally passed away.

Mother de Chantal, known in the world as Catharine Hayes, was born at Silver Lake, Susquehanna county, Pa., about sixty-four years ago. She was as remarkable as a child as she was afterwards for forty years as a Superior of various communities of the Congregation of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

For forty-five years every moment of Mother de Chantal's life to the eyes of her most intimate friends, was one of complete and entire submission to the will of God. Not a moment was devoted by her in personal recreation or pleasures. In her position of responsibility and eminence she might have taken for herself privileges in the way of handing cares or duties over to others, but this she never did. Although the head of the order in this part of the State, she refrained not from the minutest observance of discipline, nor did she relax from stern self-obnegation. With the care of this great order on her heart, he mind was ever busy with financial problems, with architectural plans, as well as with the administration of her household, the loving mother to novice and Sister. How great are the responsibilities of the mother superior of an order.

Rev. F. W. Hayes, another brother, was with his sister as she crossed the river.

Cut it out, boys There's nothing in it. There's a whole lot of nonsense in that "good fellow" business, says the Albany Times Union. You can't fool the public very long by living beneath your means and keeping up appearances. There must be a showdown some time or other, and that means a loss of self-respect and many bitter experiences. All men will think more of you if you hold yourself in and don't try to live a wine existence on a beer income. Many a bright and promising business man has failed because he tried to travel in too swift a class. Whereas, had he lived within his means he might have become a mighty successful merchant. The world doesn't give up its treasures easily. It isn't in the cards for all of us to be millionaires, and mighty few of the "good fellows" get into that class. It's better to earn your own way first and go hunting for good times when you have reached the point where you can spare both the time and the money. Then, possibly, you'll have more sense and have a different notion about what a goodtime is.

One of the most important things to remember, and one we are most prone to forget, is that habitual cheerfulness is better than a gold mine so far as contributing to your own comfort and the comfort of others about you is concerned, says the Punx'ly Spirit. Worry is not only self-inflicted torture, but it is almost a crime, which injures your own health and destroys the happiness of your friends. As cheerfulness is contagious, so worry is infectious. What's the use? It happens nine times out of ten that the thing you most dread as a calamity, if it should ever happen, will prove a blessing in disguise. You must remember that everything that happens is the inevitable sequence of something else, and what happens in the long run, for the best. It is foolish to invite disaster by suffering all its possible penalties before the disaster comes when the great probabilities are that what you are most sensitive about is the thing you would most desire if you knew all things.

Past Com., Isabella Ensign; Lady Com., Deborah Hockley, Lieut. Com., Kathryn Cummings; Record Keeper, Helen M. Butler; Finance Keeper, Elizabeth Robinson; Chap., Mary Cummings; Sergt., Kate Summerson; Mist-at-Arms, Clara Clark; Sent., Anna Anderson; Pickett, Lydia Hirsch.

At the close of the banquet, L. Com., Deborah Hockley in behalf of Hive presented the retiring Com., with a beautiful Mantle Clock, and the installing officers with an interesting book. Both recipients feelingly responded. Time passed rapidly in social merriment.

Climate Cures.

The influence of climate conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectorant in the morning made certain by German Syrup, so a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night-sweat. Restless nights and exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size 75c, at L. Taggart's. 39-ly-2.

Our tears soften our own heart, but very seldom melt the hearts of others.

Serious Matter.

The third dose of Thompson's Barosma made me feel like a different man. I suffered about a year with pain in back, side and groin. My hands, arms and side of face became numb; would wake up numb all over, have to get out of bed and go through gymnastic exercise to get sleep. I had decided to sell out my business but was cured by Thompson's Barosma. This was two years ago and I have been in perfect health ever since.—J. J. Borne, Titusville, Pa. For sale by R. C. Dodson.

Stolen fruits are sweet, when one is driven by hunger to commit a theft.

A Little Girl's Trouble.

My little girl, five years old, was doctored for several months for bladder trouble without success. She was very bad and caused us much anxiety. Finally we put aside the doctor's medicines and tried Thompson's Barosma or Kidney and Liver Cure. Five or six bottles made a complete cure and she is now a sound, healthy girl.—N. F. Leslie, Oil City, Pa. For sale by R. C. Dodson.

We often find a broad mind in a peaked head but never a big heart.

Restored to His Mother.

I think it saved my boy's life. You do not know how sick he was. His urine was like blood, and it would almost take his life to urinate. He took six bottles of Thompson's Barosma, Kidney and Liver Cure which made a complete cure.—Mrs. D. D. Buchanan, Cherrytree, Pa. Druggists, $1 or six bottles $5. For sale by R. C. Dodson.
