WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)! Washington, Jan. 30, 1904.

President Roosevelt should be satisfied with the rapidity with which the sentiment of the country is crystalizing in his favor. Congressman Stevens of Minnesota says that within thirty or sixty days all anti-Roosevelt talk will disappear. By that time it will be plain that a great majority of the delegates to Chicago have been instructed to vote for the nomination of the President. Senator Platt of New York says the delegates from his state will be so instructed. Even Gov. Durbin of Indian, while admitting the popularity of Senator Hanna in that state, announces that if President Roosevelt is nominated at Chicago, he will get the party vote of the state. Congressman Landis, of Indiana, who in his paper has often called President Roosevelt a "sham reformer," now says he has changed his mind, and that he will be nominated "with the record of his administration for his platform." On the 29th inst., Senator Heyburn called at the White House and informed the President that Idaho indorses his administration. Senator Cullom says there is nothing but Roosevelt sentiment in Illinois among the Republicans.

The first speech from the Democratic side of the Senate in favor of ratifying the Panama treaty was made on the 27th inst., by Senator Simmons, of North Carolina. He said it is hard to urge against a success; impossible to do so against a fact. He accepted the situation as it exists, and would vote for the treaty as his people are very anxious to have the canal built. In so doing he would not condone any wrong that might have been done to Colombia, or the violation of any international law. Senators on both sides of the chamber listened with undivided attention.

What was called "a great constitutional quuestion" was sprung upon the Senate on the 28th inst., during a debate upon Senator Culberson's resolution which asks the President to inform the Senate whether all documents concerning the negotiation of the Panama treaty have been laid before the Senate. Senators Cullom Gor man, Lodge, Spooner and Bacon engaged in the debate. The Republicans contended that the Senate has no right to demand papers from the President, and that he is to be the sole judge whether information may be given to the Senate. The Democrats contended it is the high prerogative of the Senate to call for all or any information on file in the executive departments and its pleasure, and that the sole judge whether the information shall be forthcoming is the Senate in all cases where it has jurisdiction.

Governor Taft, of the Philippines, the new Secretary of War arrived in Washington on the afternoon of the 27th and was met by an immense crowd of cheering citizens and a troop of cavalry which escorted him to his hotel. He had a pleasant journey; he is in the best of health and in high spirits. A large man, of forty-five, active, stout, attractive, magnetic. with a sparkling eye and a hearty grasp of hand, he is admired by all who see him and loved by all who know him. He at once called upon Secretary Root and the President and was warmly welcomed. In the evening he attended a large reception given by Senator Alger and is this week the popular toast at official gatherings. He laughs get so much out of a bushel of corn and says it is impossible for him to than to make it into whiskey. be a candidate for the presidency,

Supper at Gardeau.

Religious.

The work at the First Baptist Church that began with the week of prayer has been kept up since in the way of a preparation for a large revival. The pastor believes in a slow, sure, preparation before evangelistic efforts are made. There have been conversions already, but the real evangelistic work will begin the coming Sunday. The sermon Sunday night will be a most stirring one. Public cordially invited.

"Lots of Business in a Bushel of Corn." It is claimd that a bushel of corn will yield a larger product of the juice squeezed from it, than if it is ground into meal. The following computation eems to prove it:

Out of a bushel of corn comes four gallons of whiskey. From the whiskey the distiller gets five dollars, the saloon keeper receives seven dollars, the government four, the railway one, the farmer fifty cents, the consumer six months, his wife a divorce and taxpayer.

the bills. As in many other manufacturies there are also some by products from the bushel of corn, which benefit the friends of the wiskey industry. The policeman making the arrest receives the fees amounting to about two dollars, the magistrate who tries the case makes from three to six dollars, the officer who takes the drunkard to jail is allowed about eighteen cents per mile for travel, the jailor receives $2.20 per week for board, and at Supreme judicial court, bench and bar come in for a fifth gleaning. Finally the taxpaper receives a second set of bills. In no way can you

MONTGOMERY.

CHARLES, the 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Montgomery of Rich Valley died at their residence on Tuesday of diphtheria. The funeral takes place this (Thursday) afternoon, Rev. Robt. McCaslin officiating. Interment in Newton Cemetery.

MOORE.

MRS. THRESSA MARY MOORE, aged 31 years and five months, wife of Mr. Major T. Moore, died at the family residence last Sunday morning, leaving a husband and two small children, a daughter two years old and a little son two weeks old. This sad affliction to the kind and devoted husband is a hard blow. Mrs. Moore will be remembered by many of our citizens as Miss Wilhelm, a handsome young lady and the very picture of health.

For several years she made her home with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Felt in Emporium and Florida, up to the time of her marriage which apparently was a very happy union. The afflicted husband, children and numerous relatives are entitled to our sympathy as well as that of our citizens generally. Mrs. Moore was a member of the First Baptist Church, of Emporium, a Lady Maccabee and highly respected.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon from their new residence or West Fifth street, the services being conducted by Rev. Twitchell, pastor of First Baptist Church, assisted by Rev.Metzler, pastor of First Methodist Church. The pall bearers who acted upon this sad occasion were, Jos. Wilhelm, Benj. Wilhelm, Edward Moore, Rant Moore, and Edward Nellis, mostly brothers of Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

The following relatives from out of town attended the funeral: B. J. Wilhelm and wife, Mrs. Chas. Neisel, Mrs. Henry Yesberger, Mrs. Rugles Rhymer, Mr. Jos. Seth and wife, Mrs. W. Gross, St. Marys.

Cupid Personally Conducted.

With her story "Prince Roseleaf and a Girl from Kansas," in the February McClure's, Miriam Michelson presents a novel rendition of the oid theme, Love's Triumph over Difficulties." The difficulties in this case are in the mind of the lover. He is a scion of one of Philadelphia's most rigidly aristocratic and frozen-faced families. Circumstances force him, while abroad, to associate with a party of Cook's tourists His disgust is especially excited by a pert, plump little Kansas chool ma'ma. And his horror at her vulgarity is equalled only by her ridicule of his fastidiousness. What happens well, it's all told in this delightful little story-one of the best of its kind that we have read in a long time

See the Troubadours, Feb. 8. Everything in the gents furnishing goods line at N. Seger's.

Don't forget the Troubadours at the Court House, Feb. 8.

The best place to buy your clothes is at the old reliable store of N. Seger, on Allegany Ave. Large game, such as bear, wild cats, etc., appear to be quite plenty this winter in this county. An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Linn, Tannery Row, died on Tuesday, aged three days. Low prices, small profits and first class goods at N. Seger's. Why not make him a call if you need clothes. A delegate and alternate to the District Convention of the Knights of the Maccabees will be elected at the reriew, February 5th. Have you seen those handsome over-coats at N. Seger's? Better call and purchase one while he is making the exceptional low offer. The editor of the Independent claims to have discovered a mad bull in town last week. The bovine evidently kept in the east end of the town. The proper officer should see that all such dangerous critters are promptly

"halved and quartered." The Woman's Home Companion for February contains some striking fiction. "The Farm of the Dagger" comes to a most dramatic end. In the serial, "The Trilemma of Abertine," the readers are asked to supply the ending, and a $200.00 prize is offered. There is an amusing story by J. J. Bell the author of "Wee Greegor," a charm-ing love-story, "When riches are as Naught," and a story of war and adventure, "The Queen of the Bees," by Julia Magruder. Mr. Baynes contributes a delightful biography of a red fox, and other features are "A Visit to the Home of Thomas A. Edison," "The Wonders of the Sky-scraper" and 'Winter Sports at Home and Abroad." Published by The Crowell Publishing Company, Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

The poor attendance this month is due partly to sickness, 160 pupils being reported sick during the mouth. Extremes of weather have also had considerable effect in reducing the number where present every day. The month was long drawn out, beginning Dec. 9th and ending Jan 19th. All these causes tend to produce a position.

Christmas exercises were held in many schools and this accounts for the large number of visitors reported. The best attendance records were by the High School, 95; Miss Larrabee's 98; Miss Cummings' 94 and Miss McQuay's 94. Miss Barker alone reports no tardy pupils.
