A girl of Ripley, N. Y., played post office at a party the other night and yelled and shrieked and howled and ran behind the door and scratched the young man's face in places, upset a lamp, kicked over a piano stool, and when he finally kissed her on the tip of the ear she fainted dead away and said she could never look anybody in the face again. They led the bashful, modest, gentle, sobbing creature home, and the next day she ran away with a married lightning rod peddler who had a hair lip and 10 children.

BRIEF MENTION.

By the judges' salary act, Judge Mayer will receive $5000 per year, instead of $4000, as heretofore.

We hear a serious explosion took place at Mt. Jewett gas wells, on Monday, killing one man. Low gas was the result here.

Chas. M. Spangler, of West Creek, while calling at the Press to announce the sale of his farm being upon the market, informs us that he proposes erecting a saw and shingle mill for custom work.

The Press neglected to announce last week that our townsman, Mr. H. C. Oimsted, visited Pittsburg and while there called to see John M. White, who is confined in the penitentiary. He reports Mr. White as contented and comfortable. The officials treat him well, believing that he is there unjustly.

P. T. Barum once said: "If you have $19 to put to use, pay $10 for the article and $9 for the advertising. I can out talk any man but a printer. The man who can stick type and the next morning talk to a thousand men, while I am talking to one, is the man I am afraid of and I want to be his friend."

J. T. Rothrock, Secretary of the Pennsylvania Forestry Association, says: We are going to prosecute constables who fail to turn out to fight forest fires. We have told constables that whenever they sue the county commissioners for their services for fighting the fires, and the lower courts give judgment against them, we will pay the cost of carrying it to the Superior court.

"When you fight or work don't make a fuss," says a wise man. "The hen cackles only after she has laid an egg. The noise and sizzle of a locomotive are not force. All force is silent. The hee-haw of a mule may startle, but it is not as dangerous as his hind legs. Bear in mind it is an empty wagon that makes the most noise when in motion. The noise of a drum is due to the fact that there is nothing in it."

"A Royal Slave" is the greatest and best high-class sensational play that has been seen in this country in the last three decades. It is the most original play on the boards to-day. Original in location, in "motif," in plot and story, in characters, in costumes, in scenic effects, in mechanical surprises, in dramatic situations, in pictures and climaxes; it is the only strongly sensational play that does not descend to "blood and thunder" methods, but has all the literary merit and charm of the best romantic plays; coupled with the thrilling dramatic power of a great melodrama, and the brilliancy and sparkle of the brightest comedies; therefore it pleases the most critical and intelligent at the same time that it thrills a gallery to the highest point of enthusiasm. It is never tiresome and never allows the interest to once flag, but holds an audience entranced to the last. It touches always the cords of human sympathy and human justice. It has nothing old or hackneyed about it and nothing that enables an auditor to anticipate what is coming next. At the Emporium Opera House, Feb. 15th. Secure your seats early.

Another Case of Rheumatism Cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the relief of rheumatism is being demonstrated daily. Taggart.

Of Interest to the Household.

The March Delinor contains much matter of interest and value in its household departments. One of the most excellent features is an article by Eleanor Marchant on Serving the Informal Sunday Night Supper and Impromptu Evening Refreshments, effectively illustrated. Refreshments for Receptions, illustrated, as well as the unique luncheon dishes a la Planchette will appear to all who enjoy dainty confections. Lent observing households will find many suggestions to lessen their table difficulties at this season, including Novel Oyster Recipes by Frances E. Peck, Special Lenten Dishes by Alice Chittenden, and Dainty Souffles by Margaret Hill. In addition there are numerous other seasonable recipes and useful information for many home needs.

The birds will soon be singing, so select that early spring overcoat at N. Seger's. The early bird, etc.

While "A Royal Slave" is a play that appeals at once to the intelligence and the heart of an author, his eye has not been forgotten. The scenes are all painted from photographs taken in and near the city of Mexico, especially for this production. Among the most striking scenes is a view of the Valley of Mexico, as seen from the gardens of the Hacienda de Oro, near Chapultepec. It shows a distant view of the City of Mexico and the lake of the "Floating Gardens," and in the far distance "through misty miles and purple leagues" the giant volcano of Popocatepetl; the whole picture framed in by groves of palms and bowers of bloom and seen through the sprays of a real fountain actually playing on the stage. Of special interest also are the scenes showing the Church of the Peons; the two scenes in the Sierra Madre Mountains, the Paso del Rey (Pass of the King), and the cave of the bandits in the heart of the mountains; the splendid moonlit scene of the tropical coast of the Island of El Toro (The Bull); and the interior of the gorgeous palace de Avarez in the last act, which is a gem of art. These, with the splendid costumes and effects, make one of the most complete scenic productions ever seen here, and certainly the most beautiful in this country. At the Emporium Opera House, Feb. 15th. Secure your seats early.

Nearly Forgets His Life. A runaway almost ending fatally started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for Bruises, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c at L. Taggart's Drug Store.

A Newspaper Worth Reading.

The Pittsburg Times is a conservative, careful newspaper for particular people. Its statements of facts and comments on them are concise and correct. Its departments are in charge of experts, and its authority in all matters pertaining to the events of the world at large and of the community it represents more particularly is recognized. It has no Sunday edition, and its position in that regard in Pittsburg, is as unique as its thorough reliability in every way. Staunchly Republican in political policy it yet gives all the news of all parties. Its moral tone is high, and churchmen of every creed find in its columns more news of their interests and work than in all its contemporaries combined. Sports are given the prominence they deserve and no more. The news concerning them is bright, timely and adequate, for the work is done by a master. Theaters in The Times as in no other paper have the truth told about them and the plays they offer. No business considerations ever interfere with the publication of criticisms that really criticize, and in this department, too, the work is done by a master. Society and the affairs of women find careful and complete exposition on the page devoted to them. Industrial matters are accorded the prominence they merit in a Pittsburg paper, while the stock market is given the attention that has brought The Times into the front rank of financial authorities. Above all The Times is a model not only of brevity of statement but of dignified simplicity in its typographical appearance. It offends neither the eye nor the sensibilities. The set things that are of importance are treated accordingly. Those that are unimportant are handled in keeping with their value. Each issue of The Times is a day's history of events the wide world round. Its price is one cent daily or $3 a year. 48-3t.

A school for those wishing to prepare to teach and others desiring instruction in higher branches will be conducted at Emporium for six weeks, beginning about May 15th, if sufficient patronage be insured. Those interested please call on or address E. S. Ling, Principal. 49-3.
