WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)
Washington, Feb. 15, 1904.

Assurances continue to be received at the White House that there is practically no opposition to the nomination of the President at the Chicago convention. Ex-Senator Manderson of Nebraska says the entire west is for Roosevelt. The same news comes from the Eastern states, and a prominent lawyer from Connecticut in Washington his week said that in that state Democracy is as dead as a door nail. The announcement of the fatal illness of Senator Hanna has brought sudden harmony to the discordant elements in Ohio, and the delegation to Chicago promises to be a unit for Roosevelt. The President is very busy, having many things to look after. He does not expect an early adjournment of Congress and will be unable to leave Washington to attend banquets and make speeches. He will have his little walk of 8 or 10 miles and is in splendid health. On the 12th inst. he issued a proclamation of neutrality towards Russia and Japan, and announced the law which forbids Americans from entering the service of either combatant. The President has been assured that the Panama treaty will be ratified in a few days. Relying upon this belief he is now carefully considering the personal of the Canal Commission, and the Atty. General Knox, is examining the Spooner act to see if it gives the President full authority to issue bonds to raise the needed money and appoint the Commission. Thus far Admiral Walker, Gen. Geo. W. Davis and Isham Randolph of Chicago have been named for the Canal Commission. The new pension bill excites much interest at the White House, but it will be some time before the Committee on Invalid Pensions reports to Congress.

Both of the pure food bills are now before the Senate, and manufacturers of food products favor the bill since in many instances it will relieve them from oppressive State laws. The Senate Committee on Commerce will report on the 18th inst., that the nomination of Dr. Crum as collector of the port of Charleston, S. C., be confirmed. The U. S. Navy will cost nearly $100,000,000 next year. It is not likely that a vote will be reached on the eight-hour law. The proposition with which the territorial committee is now laboring is to admit Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one State and New Mexico as another (under some more appropriate name, it is hoped,) and leave Arizona out in the cold for another year or two.

The Department of State is very active, and Secretary Hay is ably looking after the affairs of collective humanity. His note to the powers suggesting that the integrity of China must be preserved whatever the result of the war, is regarded as a blow to Russia. He also proposes that England, Germany and France shall assist the United States in limiting the sphere of actual hostilities; but it is not proposed to enforce this suggestion et armis. These propositions are purely benevolent, in the interests of the whole world. The prospect is that the United States will soon be forced to establish a protectorate over Santo Domingo. The conditions there are becoming intolerable.

For sale.

A good farm containing 72 acres, with necessary buildings and well watered. Part in good cultivation.
51-1f. CHAS. M. SPANGLER.

Bonfire the Cigarettes.

Bonfire the cigarettes is the agreement of Coudersport citizens, every merchant in the town, except one, having signed an agreement to neither sell the coffin nails or the papers. The same plan should be followed in Emporium, where the injurious and disgusting habit has assumed a terrible pace, especially among the young boys. The editor of this paper has noticed daily this winter, the large number of school lads, ranging from seven to 12 years of age, who have acquired the deadly habit. Parents, as well as teachers, should take stringent measures to put a stop to this death dealing practice. The Coudersport Journal in speaking of the crusade against the cigarette, says:

"The prevalence of cigarette smoking among the boys of this town led to the Journal's strong denunciation two weeks ago of the traffic in the pernicious goods, and the crusade against them taking practical shape, has led to a very gratifying result. Every dealer in cigars and tobacco in Coudersport borough has signed an agreement to keep or sell no cigarettes or cigarette paper. This agreement, when presented to the dealers, met with a very cordial reception from every dealer in town except one. That one had evinced a disposition to evade the law, and was not in a position to oppose the movement.

Some of the dealers had never kept either cigarettes nor cigarette papers. Others kept the papers (which are sent with smoking tobacco) but would not keep cigarettes. The sentiment was almost unanimous against the sale of either, and to the credit of our merchants, let it be recorded, they were willing to forego what little profit might be made by the sale for the sake of keeping them out of the reach of the boys. Those who had a stock on hand have agreed to take cost for them, if the money can be raised to pay for them, and in that case a bonfire will be made in the near future, a sacrifice in the cause of decency and right. In case they are not so bought, the few dealers who have a stock will close them out and not order any more."

Why The Press and Pulpit are Alike.

A minister in a neighboring town took a newspaper man to task in this way: "You editors do not tell the truth. If you did you could not live; your newspaper would be a failure." The editor replied: "You are right and the minister who at all times and under all circumstances tells the truth about his members alive or dead, will not occupy his pulpit more than one Sunday, and then he will find it necessary to leave town in a hurry. The press and pulpit go hand in hand, with white wash brushes and pleasant words magnifying little virtues into big ones. The pulpit, the pen and the gravestone are the great saint-making triumvirate." And the minister went away looking very thoughtful, while the editor turned to his work and told of the surpassing beauty of the bride, while in fact she was as homely as a mud fence.

A Hiding Place for Germs.

Rubbish forms a hiding place for vermin and a breeding place for deleterious germs; and Medical Talk, advising calling in the junk man for the purpose of clearing the house of all accumulations of superfluous stuff, such as unused chairs, benches, bottles, papers, magazines, old clothes and worthless books, says: Trim it down close. The more you get rid of the trash the better you will be off. Make clean every vacant place that is left by the absence of these things. Put on a coat of paint or varnish or whitewash. Something or other to take the place of the confusion.

A Puzzle Worth Having.

Dr. G. G. Green, of Woodbury, New Jersey, whose advertisement appears in our paper regularly, will mail to any one sending a two-cent stamp to pay postage, one of his new German Syrup and August Flower Puzzles, made of wood and glass. It amuses and perplexes young and old. Although very difficult, it can be mastered. Mention this paper. 51-3f.

Jensen Carnival Company, Feb. 20.

On Saturday night at 8 o'clock the last number of the season's Star Course will be given at the Court House. We believe that this will be a creditable closing number of what has proved an entertaining course.

The company is made up of Harry A. Jansen, magician, and Deronda and James Oliver Peet, literary and musical entertainers. These persons are represented to us as artists in their line, and we confidently expect a good entertainment. Read these flattering comments:

Camden (Mich.) Advance—Without a question the best musical entertainment given in this city for some time was that by the Peet Brothers. Both gentlemen are finished artists in their lines. The chimes and musical glasses were delightful novelties. J. Oliver Peet, funmaker and impersonator kept the audience in a roar throughout the evening. The singing of Deronda Peet pleased very much. He has a rich, deep barytone.

John S. Reynolds, P. E. R., Chicago Lodge No. 4, B. P. O. E.—Mr. Harry A. Jensen entertained us at our annual entertainment and gave us the best satisfaction of any magician we have ever engaged. I would recommend him to all wishing a clever and entertaining performance.

An entertainment fit to be given before any audience. Artists possessing rare ability. A program of unusual merit. A treat for all who heard them. What the American likes best—humor.

Politics in Potter.

Potter county has more politics to the square inch than any other county in the state and usually at this time of the year it gets "hot." We notice among the names filed as candidates two Republicans who are popular with our citizens.—Hon. A. R. Moore for Representative, and Henry E. Page for County Treasurer, both of whom are popular throughout Potter. Without wishing to dictate or interfere with the politics of Potter, it looks to us as though both Mr. Moore and Mr. Page would meet the demands of Potter. The former has made an excellent Representative, looking carefully and energetically to the needs of Potter. He should be accorded the re-nomination without a contest.

Mr. Page for County Treasurer, was formerly a citizen of Emporium, coming here in the early 70's from New York and entered the employ of the then W. N. Y. & P. R. R., as engine wiper, rapidly rising to engineer. He married in 1873, Miss Alice O. Taylor, of Emporium, daughter of D. H. Taylor, who was an esteemed citizen of this place, where they were all respected. Mr. Page is especially close to Emporium, being for many years a member of our Masonic fraternity and the A. O. U. W. The nomination of Mr. Page would be an exceptionally strong one and the many former Cameron county citizens, now residing in Potter county, will no doubt cordially support Mr. Page. We hope to hear of Mr. Page's nomination.

BRIEF MENTION.

A new depot is again the talk at the Junction.

Are Emporium fire plugs frozen? Who can tell.

Everything in the gents furnishings line at N. Seger's.

Big bargains in winter clothing at N. Seger's. Call and see him.

A fierce fire was raging at an early hour this morning at Milton—$25,000 worth of property destroyed. Frozen fire plugs.

"The Royal Slave which appeared at the opera house, last Monday evening was by far the best attraction that ever appeared here.

Olean had a $10,000 fire last Saturday, starting on North Union street, destroying the old Academy of Music and other buildings.

Call and see N. Seger if you want exceptional values at low figures. Clothes that give general satisfaction is all that he handles.

THE LATEST styles in Gents' Douglas Shoes at R. Seger & Co's. Finest and latest styles for early spring wear. To see is to purchase. They are dandies.

Why pay so much more for the same quality of clothing N. Seger handles. He can save you big money—make him a call. Reliable goods at low prices.

Messrs. Friendel & Hurteau visited Buffalo this week purchasing goods for their new store which will be opened next week, corner of Fourth and Chestnut street. See you later.

Ralph C. Davison, the expert electrician of this place, has secured the contract of wiring the new Methodist church at Ridgway for electric lights. Ralph is a good workman and the Press feels certain he will do the job up in nice shape.—Johnsburg Press.

A western editor has received the following unique letter: "Send me a few copies of the paper which has the obituary and verses about the death of my niece's marriage. And I wish you would mention in your locals, if it don't cost me anything, that I am going to have a few extra calves to sell. Send me a couple of extra copies of the paper this week, but as my time is out you can stop my paper, as times are too hard to waste money on a newspaper."

A National Calamity.

The death of United States Senator Marcus A. Hanna, aged 67 years, at Washington, Monday evening of typhoid fever, removes one of the most prominent American citizens—capitalist, statesman and great political leader. Entering political public life only a few years ago yet he rapidly advanced to a position of prominence. His devotion to the Republican party, loyalty to friends and a fixed principle made him a power in the land. His friendship for the late lamented McKinley, was a beautiful example of friendship, when the late President met financial misfortune that came near bankrupting him, his friend stepped into the breach and saved his property. His friendship continued for the lamented President until he saw him elevated to the Presidency. As a business man he employed thousands of laborers and enjoyed their confidence and respect. When the laboring man, of state or National organizations wanted a friend they invariably called on "Uncle Marcus," who never failed them. In spite of all his unselfish devotion to public interests, he was one of the most violently abused men and grossly misrepresented. He was a big hearted, broad-gauged man, honest to all.

New Writing Machine.

W. R. Sizer, of Sizerville, (everybody in Cameron county knows Will) has accepted the general agency for the Chicago Writing Machine, one of the most popular in the land and at the nominal price of $35. His "ad" appears in this issue of the PRESS which we received, accompanied by the long green for another year's subscription. Thanks, Will; hope you may have unbounded success and sell a million or more of those popular writers.

Recipe for the Popular Hermits.

One cup of butter, two cups of sugar, two eggs, one teaspoonful of soda, one and one-half teaspoonfuls each of cloves, cinnamon and nutmeg, one cup of sweet milk, one cup of chopped raisins, half cup of currants; mix for a cool place for several hours until cold. Roll thin and bake.

Marrried.

PELLWELL—HEALY—At Olean, N. Y., July 11, 1903, Mr. Harry Barclay Pellwell, of Altoona, Pa., and Miss Lenna Mae Healy, of Emporium, Pa., were united in matrimony.

February Election 1904.

Order of Golden Seal.

TO BE ORGANIZED IN EMPORIUM—THE ORGANIZER NOW HERE.

Mr. M. H. Dean, of Wellsville, N. Y., is now in Emporium for the purpose of organizing the order of the Golden Seal. Mr. Dean is stopping at the Commercial Hotel and will be pleased to meet any of our citizens and give any information desired.

It is perfectly safe as it is working under the insurance laws of the state and is therefore under the direct supervision of the superintendent of insurance. The books are examined by him each six months. One certificate pays $15 a week and two certificates $30 a week, for sickness or accident, and in case of death $5 00 for each month the member has held each certificate. At the expiration of every six years it pays a cash dividend.

The company cannot use but $11 for expenses of the order of the amount paid in by the member on each full certificate, the balance being taken care of by the State and would be returned to the member in case that there were no other earnings at the expiration of the six years.

It's a savings bank where you can place $2.00 or $4.00 a month (just as the member desires.) At the end of the six years will receive a cash dividend which will be about $347, as computed by the experience of others, working upon the same basis and the growth of the order so far.

The Golden Seal received its charter March, 1902. Jan. 1, 1903, it had 570 members with a surplus in the benefit fund of $5,000 00. On Dec. 1, 1903, we have 5,500 members with a surplus of $40,000 00 in benefit fund, which figures more money according to the number of members (than any order of the same kind) doing business.

The officers from the Supreme to the Subordinate Camp are under bonds for twice the amount of money received by them.

The officers of the Supreme Camp are:

- C. L. Andrus, Supreme Com., President Stamford National Bank, President Delaware National Bank.
- Arthur F. Bouton, Supreme Secretary, Roxbury, N. Y.
- J. D. Lawrence, N. Y., State Commissioner Forest, game and Fish.
- J. Duncan Lawrence, Supreme Vice-Commander, Bloomville, N. Y.
- Frank M. Andrus, Supreme Treasurer, attorney for Ulster & Delaware R. R. Co., attorney for Helen Gould.
- L. B. Gleason, Clerk to Senate, N. Y. State.
- John B. Grant, Judge of Delaware county.

A. W. Litchard of Rushford, N. Y., ex-Assemblyman of Allegany county, is a member of the Supreme Council. The order of the Golden Seal is not a so-called get rich scheme, but a legitimate business transaction, licensed by the government to do business the same as a savings bank, having to deposit a bond for $100,000 before it could receive its charter.

The order is open to either male or female applicants between the ages of 18 and 55 years.
