Prof. Daly closed his dancing school, Tuesday evening, until after Lent.

Messrs. Allen and Shaffer, of Austin, took in the Hamilton dance last Friday night.

B. W. Green and family leave for Florida very shortly, to be absent several weeks.

Miss Agnes Wade, of Sterling Run, while transacting business in town, on Monday was a Press visitor.

Miss Lenora Coppersmith and Master Neil Coppersmith went to Olean, last Thursday to visit with friends.

Miss Margaret Lynch, who had been visiting in town the past week, returned to her home at Olean on Monday.

Rev. Knox and wife, accompanied by Miss Barry, his wife's sister, went to Niagara Falls yesterday, to take in the beautiful sights.

Mrs. Jennie Krapf, who has been seriously ill for several days at her home on Fifth street, is now somewhat improved under Dr. Bardwell's treatment.

Frank McCabe met with a painful accident while on his rounds Sunday evening. His many friends, especially among the gentler sex, are very anxious over his speedy recovery.—Austin Autograph.

Mrs. R. C. Moore and Mrs. Ed White, of town, were Press callers yesterday, the former renewing for another year the Press sent to her sister, Mrs. M. J. Byrnes, Mt. Alto, Pa.

Esquire Blodgett, of Sinnamahoning, was in town yesterday, introducing his rapid money maker. The squirrel called on Cashier T. B. Lloyd and Postmaster Seger but failed to strike a bargain.

H. J. Newton, of Shippen, one of our reliable citizens and good Republicans was a Press business caller on Monday and carried away a receipt for another year's Press. Mr. Newton has for many years been one of our most valued subscribers.

Councilman Chas. G. Catlin of Middle Ward was a Press business visitor on Tuesday and not only paid for a year's subscription to the Press but included a copy to his son at Renovo. Mr. Catlin is a conscientious, intelligent citizen and conducts a feed mill at this place, which is a great benefit to the farmer as well as the general public.

J. Edgar Good, son of Dr. H. W. Good, after spending a few weeks in Philadelphia, returned home last Friday and entered the P. & E. freight office at this place as clerk under Mr. Thos. Gallagher. He is a bright young man and we feel confident will make an efficient clerk. Russell McQuay, whose place he takes, has been promoted to a position at the Junction.

Franklin Housler is quite ill.

F. P. Strayer visited Ridgway and Johnsonburg to-day.

G. S. Wiley, of Galeton, Pa., transacted business in town yesterday.

Glenn Johnson, of Mich., formerly a resident of Emporium, is visiting old friends in town.

Dr. Heilman made a trip to Logue's, East Fork on Tuesday, to examine John Williams, an old soldier, for a pension.

Mrs. J. W. Norie and baby are very ill, having contracted a severe cold on the train, returning from Williamsport.

H. T. Nelson, of Coudersport, is calling on Emporium citizens this week, being interested in a patent sewer pipe.

Hon. J. C. Johnson is confined to his bed, suffering with a severe cold, contracted while visiting his son Fred at Carlisle, Pa., over Sunday.

Frank S. Coppersmith, a hustling member of the reliable hardware firm of Murry & Coppersmith Co., was a brief caller at the Press office yesterday. He failed to tell about his trip to Bradford and Olean—too busy.

Misses Rose Daly and Carrie Whitman, two very estimable ladies of Du Bois, Pa., visited the former's brother, P. V. Daly, last Friday and Saturday, while en route for Renovo. The ladies met many of our citizens, while attending the Hamilton ball.

Rev. Poole and wife, of Summerville, N. J., have been guests of Mr and Mrs. A. P. Van Gelder at their pleasant home on Sixth street—the Rev. gentleman and wife being Mrs. Van Gelder's parents. Dr. Poole is very prominent in church work, being corresponding Sec'y of the Board of Missions of Dutch Reform Church, with office in New York city.

The Press goes to the Alaska to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mills. Mr. Theo. Boutain called at our office yesterday, ordering and paying one year in advance. Hope our young friends will enjoy reading the news from home, although it is a little stale by the time it reaches the frozen country. Mr. Mills has extensive mining claims near Dawson City, taking his family there for the winter.

The ladies of the L. C. B. A., Branch No. 119, gave a Euchre party in the Lodge room, Feb. 15th, for the benefit of St. Mark's Church. During the evening the dishes and quilt which were left over from the St. Mark's fair were chanced off, Mr. Gust Hout winning the dishes and Matt. Mosemiller the quilt.

Ships of Novelists. Andrew Lang in Longman's recalled certain slips of the novelists. They, too, have their loose ends:

"A skilled person might make a pleasant essay on what we may call the dropped threads of novelists. Thus Pip's vision of Miss Havisham hanging to a beam in the deserted brewery has always puzzled me. It seems to have been meant to lead to something other than what occurs. In Mr. Marion Crawford's 'Tiquisara' much turns on an entranced medium who could give two strokes in the hole and a beating to Mrs. Piper. We expect her successes to be normally explained, because stress is laid on her one-eyed servant, whose one eye (blue) marks her as the sister of her mistress. Bosio observes this; the poisoner, Matilda, does not. Apparently something was to hang on that fact. If so, the thread was dropped. Again, why had Charles Wogan clay on his clothes at the end of 'Clementina'? Like the priest in the 'Lays of Ancient Rome'."

"I know, but may not tell."

Edith's horror at meeting Florence in the darkening house of Mr. Dombey is a dropped thread which Dickens tried to take up, but failed. Research would probably discover many such instances."

Queer Doings of a Rifle Ball. I myself made the most extraordinary shot at an antelope that I ever heard of, which, however, has nothing to do with good shooting, but rather with the erratic course that a rifle ball may take. With several scouts, white men and Indians, I rode over a hill to see three or four buck antelope spring to their feet, run a short distance and then stop to look. I made a quick shot at one, which dropped, and on going to him I found him not dead, though desperately wounded. The animal had been standing broadside on, his face toward my left. The ball had struck the left elbow, splintering the olecranon; passed through the brisket, broken the right humerus, turned at right angles and gone back, cutting several ribs; broken the right femur, then turned again at right angles and come out through the inside of the leg and struck the left hock joint, which it dislocated and twisted off so that it hung by a very narrow string of hide. I never again expect to see so extraordinary a course for a rifle ball.—Outing.

He who cannot bear humility cannot wear honor.

L. TAGGART SUCCESSFUL. After a great deal of effort and correspondence, L. Taggart the popular druggist, has succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard Co., to make a special half-price introductory offer on the regular fifty-cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

Dr. Howard's specific has been so remarkably successful in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles, that L. Taggart is willing to return the price paid in every case where it does not give relief.

So great is the demand for this specific, that L. Taggart has been able to secure only a limited supply, and every one who is troubled with dyspepsia, constipation or liver trouble should call upon him at once or send 25 cents, and get sixty doses of the best medicine ever made, on this special half-price offer, with his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

There are thirty-four Democratic candidates in the field up to the present time. There ought to be some sort of a political sieve to separate the little nuggets from those not quite so big.

Nearly Forfeits His Life. A runaway almost ending fatally started a horrible clear on the leg of J. B. Omer, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for Bruises, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c at L. Taggart's Drug Store.

The giving of grace depends on the grace of giving.

A Newspaper Worth Reading. The Pittsburg Times is a conservative, careful newspaper for particular people. Its statements of facts and comments on them are concise and correct. Its departments are in charge of experts, and its authority in all matters pertaining to the events of the world at large and of the community it represents more particularly is recognized. It has no Sunday edition, and its position in that regard in Pittsburg, is as unique as its thorough reliability in every way. Staunchly Republican in political policy it yet gives all the news of all parties. Its moral tone is high, and churchmen of every creed find in its columns more news of their interests and work than in all its contemporaries combined. Sports are given the prominence they deserve and no more. The news concerning them is bright, timely and adequate, for the work is done by a master. Theaters in The Times as in no other paper have the truth told about them and the plays they offer. No business considerations ever interfere with the publication of criticisms that really criticize, and in this department, too, the work is done by a master. Society and the affairs of women find careful and complete exposition on the page devoted to them. Industrial matters are accorded the prominence they merit in a Pittsburg paper, while the stock market is given the attention that has brought The Times into the front rank of financial authorities. Above all The Times is a model not only of brevity of statement but of dignified simplicity in its typographical appearance. It offends neither the eye nor the sensibilities. The things that are of importance are treated accordingly. Those that are unimportant are handled in keeping with their value. Each issue of The Times is a day's history of events the wide world round. Its price is one cent daily or $3 a year. 48-3t.
