CAMERUN CUUNTY PRESS. H. H. MULLIN, Editor.

Published Every Thursday.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

ADVERTISING RATES: Advertisements are published at the rate of one dollar per square for one insertion and fifty cents per square for each subsequent insertion. Rates by the year, or for six or three months, are low and uniform, and will be furnished on application.

are low and unions, application. Degal and Omcial Advertising per square. Legal and omcial Advertising per square tion 10 cents per square. Local notices lo cents per line for one insersertion: 5 cents per line for each subsequent consecutive insertion.

consecutive insertion.

Obituary notices over five lines, 10 cents per line. Simple announcements of births, marriages and deaths will be inserted free. Business cards, five lines or less, 15 per year; ever five lines, at the regular rates of advertising.

over five lines, at the regular hising. No local inserted for less than 75 cents per

JOB PRINTING.

The Job department of the Press is complete and affords facilities for doing the best class of work. PARTICULAR ATTENTION PAID TO LAW PRINTING.
No pages with the complete and the present the complete and o paper will be discontinued until arrear s are paid, except at the option of the pub Papers sent out of the county must be paid tor in advance.

The War News.

In the war between Japan and Russia, reports of victories and defeats reach this country across 15,000 miles of the ocean's bed The tiny electric impetus put in motion by the key of the operator in far Nagasaki instantly plunges under the eastern sea and comes to land in China, near Shanghai, 476 miles away. Then that little throb works southward round the China coast to Hongkong, 945 miles. At Hongkong (British) it dives under the China sea to Saigon, in Anam (French), 951 miles; from Saigon it crosses the bed of the sea to Singapore (British), 626 miles. Or it might go by way of Labuan, Borneo (British), 1,971 miles. Through the Malacca strait to Penang (398 miles), and then a great plunge westward through the wild Nicobars and under the tropic Bengal sea (1,389 miles), to Madras. At Madras it takes to the land until it comes to Bombay. Never resting the brave little spark takes to the water again, traverses the broad Arabian sea to Aden (1.850 miles), threads its way up the scorching Red sea, flying ever westward, to Alexandria (1,534 miles). And from Alexandria it travels deep under the balmy Mediterranean to Malta, out to Lisbon, and so on to London (3,205 miles), and thence across the Atlantic. Every word forced so laboriously through these 15,000 miles of solid wire costs 65 cents. This is the newly reduced rate for press messages at which many thousands of words are being sent. For private messages the rate is three times larger. It is difficult to give any very definite idea of what the war will cost the newspapers for telegraphy. Probably few persons have any idea of the vast sums which would be swallowed up in a single day's news provided by the New York and Chicago newspapers on the occasion of, say, a great naval battle. For two short messages from Japan, consisting of about 100 and 150 words, respectively, the bare telegraphic cost approaches $150, although some of the "the's" and "and's" in such cablegrams as they appear in the newspapers would not be telegraphed. In the event of a big battle, it may safely be assumed that the big American papers pay thousands of dollars in cable tolls alone. If the war is to be a hardfought one, long drawn out, and with several severe engagements, that sum may easily be multiplied by 20. Colonization's Great Cost.

The price of colonization in Africa is a heavy one, both in life and treasure. Every European power which has African possessions pays it. The history of British interests in the great continent is bloody practically from the beginning, and it is still being written red in Somaliland: France has had her troubles in Algeria, and is constantly finding fresh ones to the south and along the Morocco frontier: one of the most dreadful episodes in Italian history was worked out in Abyssinia a few years ago; Portugal has had many conflicts with the natives; Belgium has the disgrace of the Congo atrocities, and now comes Germany with an uprising of blacks that threatens to overshadow anything of the kind that has occurred in Africa. Surely that vast territory was aptly named the Dark Continent.

In Mexico they have a way of doing things to pickpockets that certainly is discouraging to the profession. Instead of hauling them up before a justice and fining them "five dollars and costs" when they probably stole $25, as they do in Chicago, the Mexicans sentence them to serve in the army. Pickpockets are not likely to do a rushing business in the army, for if anybody ever heard of a Mexican soldier having enough money to be worth stealing he never told of it.

An old merchant says that circulars and booklets can reach but a limited number of people, and that the most widely circulated magazines are not read by a considerable portion of the public. The newspapers, however, are read by virtually everybody, and as "you can never tell who will prove a profitable customer," the chances are overwhelming that the newspapers will reach him where other agencies will not.

SENATOR M. A. HANNA SUCCUMBS TO THE GRIM REAPER

All the Members of the Senator's Family, with the Exception of Mrs. Hanna, and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hanna, Were in the Room When Death Came.

Simple but Impressive Ceremonies Are Held in the Hall of the Senate--- President Roosevelt, His Cabinet, Members of the Senate and House of Representatives, Supreme Court and Other Notables Were Present.

Washington, Feb. 16.-Senator | power. In 1888, Hanna was again Marcus Alonzo Hanna died at 6:40 o'clock Monday evening at the family apartments in the Arlington hotel, after an illness extending over nearly two months, filled with apparent re-coveries, followed by relapses and finally drifting into typhoid fever, which in his weakened condition he was unable to withstand. When the end came all the members of the sen-ator's family were in the room except ator's family were in the room except Mrs. Hannar, the senator's wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hanna. Mrs. Hanna had left the room only a few minutes before.

The last sinking spell began at exactly 6:30 o'clock, Drs. Carter and Osler were then in attendance. They did not conceal the fact that life was about to end and all members of the family were sent for. Mrs. McCormick, one of the senator's daughters, and Miss Phelps were present when the end came. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hanna were the first to arrive and they withdrew immediately to the chamber of the senator's wife to chamber of the senator's wife to summon her to the bedside. It was breathed his last.

sent to the republican national convention as district delegate, and worked for John Sherman.

In the days when Hanna had been devoting his time to the coal and iron business there was a strike in one of his western Ohio mines, and some of the discontented miners burned sev-eral of the mine shafts. Hanna went to the district to prosecute them, and lost his case. The lawyer for the miners was William McKinley, and although defeated by him, Hanna struck up a warm friendship for Mc-Kinley.

He began McKinley's preliminary in 1894 and presidential campaign in 1894 and 1895. In 1896 he was chosen as chairman of the national committee, and, after the hard fight of that year Mc-Kinley was elected president.

When John Sherman left the United States senate in 1897 to become secretary of state, Gov. Bushnell appointed Hanna to fill out Sherman's term in the senate.

In 1898 he was elected to the United summon her to the bedside. It was States senate by the Ohio legislature while they were absent the senator and was recently re-elected for another term.

MARCUS ALONZO HANNA.

In the meantime Mr. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Parsons and H. M. Hanna had entered the room. Mr. Dover stood in the door. There were no stood in the door. There were no distressing incidents attending the last moments. It was a sinking spell which terminated in ten minutes, Just after his eyes closed in death Mrs. Hanna came into the room.

We are indebted to the Cleveland

We are indebted to the Cleveland World for the following biographical sketch of Senator Hanna:
Hon, Marcus Alonzo Hanna was born September 24, 1837, at Lisbon, Columbiana county, Ohio. His mother came from a family of staunch, old Scotch Presbyterians of Vermont. His father's family had been Virginia Quakers for about a hundred warms back.

Leonard Hanna, the father was a Leonard Hanna, the father was a practicing physician in Lisbon, but finding it was not lucrative enough to support his family of eight, he moved to Cleveland in 1852, and organized the grocery firm of Hanna, Garretson & Co.

Marcus had attanded the schools of Marcus had attended the schools at Marcus had attended the schools at Lisbon and completed his public school education in Cleveland. He then started in at Western Reserve University, but after a year at that institution went to work as a clerk to his father's store.

In 1862 the elder Hanna died, and the management of the store devolved upon Mark. His close attention to business in the five years he had worked as a clerk stood him in good stead now, and he conducted the business very successfully until the firm dissolved in 1867.

At the age of 30 he married Miss Rhodes, daughter of Daniel P. Rhodes, and went into business with his father-in-law, of the firm of Rhodes & Co., dealers in coal, iron Rhodes & Co., dealers in coal, iron ore and pig iron.

In 1877. Mark became senior partner of this firm and changed name to M. A. Hanna & Co.

By this time he had learned the business thoroughly and had purchased mines until his firm was known all over the country. He irented his workmen like equals and known all over the country. He treated his workmen like equals and was therefore well-liked by them. was generally successful in

Up to this time he had dabbled a little in politics and had been sent to the republican national convention in 1884, pledged to nominate John Sherman The first step in active politics was to organize the Cleveland Business Men's Marching club. He got the business men of the city interested in it moved yesterday from the station

In 1900 he was again chosen as chairman of the national committee, and again won the fight for McKinley.

During Senator Hanna's political During Senator Hanna's political career he has also been successful in his business ventures. He was a director in the Globe Shipbuilding Co, and president until the recent consolidation of the Cleveland City Railway Co.

Washington, Feb. 18 .-- In the pres ence of the grief stricken family, of many friends whose sorrow was scarcely less pronounced, of the senate and house of representatives, of dignitaries of the other branches of government and of the chief official representatives of most of the for eign powers, the funeral of the late Senator Hanna occurred Wednesday in the senate chamber.

In the front rank of the assem blage gathered about the bier of the departed statesman sat the president. He was flanked by the members of his cabinet. Nearby were the tices of the supreme court of the United States, garbed in their black robes of office.

The religious ceremony was placed in the hands of Dr. Edward Everett in the hands of Dr. Edward Everett Hale, chaplain of the senate. The ceremony began shortly after 12 o'clock, but the gallery doors were thrown open long before that hour, and by 11 o'clock fully half the gallery seats were occupied. The casket borne into the chamber by a squad of capitol police, and was fol-lowed by the official committee with Senator Foraker and Gen. Grosvenor at its head. Slowly the little procession moved down the main aisle of the chamber and the casket was placed upon the catafalque which vas to hold it.

President Pro Tem Frye then ad-President Pro Tem Frye then addressed the senate, saying: "Senators: You have solemnly and lovingly dedicated this day to an observance of a proper funeral ceremony over Marcus A. Hanna, late a distinguished member of this body, and all business will be suspended to that end. We will unite in prayer with the chaplain of the national house of representatives." sentatives.

Chaplain Couden then offered his invocation.

Hanna's Body Back to Cleveland. Cleveland, Feb. 19,-No more touching tribute has been paid to the memory of Senator Hanna than than accorded the funeral cortege as however, the body of Senator Han avenue, on either side, mourning citizens stood in the biting cold with uncovered heads, to show their re-

At the head was a battalion of mounted police in command of Chief Kohler. Then followed the guard of honor, Troop A, mounted. The funeral car was immediately in the rear. This was closed.

It was just 12 o'clock Thursday

rear. This was closed.

It was just 12 o'clock Thursday noon when the casket containing Senator Hanna's body was carried into the chamber auditorium by his old friends, Gov. Herrick, Samuel Mather, W. B. Sanders, J. B. Zerbe, Andrew Squire, C. A. Grasselli, A. B. Hough and W. J. McKinnie.

From the entrance of the chamber building, through the lobby and to the exits in the rear stood a double file of soldiers, the engineers, O. N. G. Their blue coats, with bright red capes, added a touch of color to the somber scene. As the coffin was car-ried slowly down the alsle the engineers stood at "present arms. gineers stood at "present arms." Slowly the pallbearers bore the casket to its resting place on the bier, which stood in the middle of the auditorium. This bier was the one used at Canton at the time of President McKinley's funeral, and the flag that draped it then was used again Thursday. Behind the pallbearers walked Secretary Tod Galloway, the governor's staff and Gen. Mylett, regovernor's staff and Gen. Mylett, re-tired, U. S. A. Then came the direc-tors of the chamber of commerce, then a delegation from the Builders exchange, and in the rear a delega-tion from the Tippecanoe club and a committee representing the Cuyahoga legislative delegation.

After the casket had been placed beneath the great canopy of black that hung over the bier the lid was removed and an opportunity given for the close friends of the senator who had borne his body to take a for the close friends of the senator who had borne his body to take a final look at his face.

After the pallbearers had viewed the remains they were followed by the others who had entered with the casket. The doors of the auditorium had meanwhile been closed in order that the public might be excluded unthat the public might be excluded un-til the floral pieces, a carload of which was brought from Washing-ton, might be arranged. This took some time and it was almost 1 o'clock when the doors were thrown open to when the doors were thrown open to the immense crowd that had been waiting outside in the cold. With the snow drifting about their feet and the icy wind blowing into their faces, thousands upon thou-sands of Clevelanders stood for hours Thursday afternoon waiting for a change to pass into the auditorium of chance to pass into the auditorium of the chamber of commerce. Seventy-five policemen soon had the crowd re-duced to double ranks. Two abreast they passed into the cham-ber.

The first services to be held in Cleveland over the remains of Sena-tor Hanna were those conducted by the members of Memorial post, G. A. R., Thursday evening. At 9:30 the chamber of commerce auditorium was cleared of the general public and only members of the post admitted.

Senator Hanna's Funeral.

Cleveland, Feb. 20.—At noon Friday the casket containing the body of Senator Hanna was lifted from the bier on which it had stood for 24 hours, while Cleveland citizens by the tens of thousands had passed by for a last sight of the dead, and was a last sight of the dead, and was borne to the hearse.

For five hours Friday morning, from 6 to 11, the public was given its last opportunity to see the face of Senator Hanna.

The funeral services were held in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Euclid and Case avenues, beginning at 1

It was past the noon hour when the pallbearers carried the casket through the doors of the chamber of ommerce to the street. itely the procession formed in line for the journey to the church. At the head rode Chief Kohler with a squad of mounted police. Next rode three platoons of Troop A, on black three platoons of Iroop A, on black horses with swords at carry.

The troop preceded the hearse, which was followed by 100 carriages carrying the official guests. The pro-cession reached the church at 12:55.

The pallbearers took their seats as oon as they had deposited the casket in the nave. Gov. Herrick and his staff filed in and were seated. The senators and congressmen composing the congressional delegation took the seats reserved for them Secretaries of the cabinet, Gov. Dur bin, of Indiana, and his staff, members of the state senare and house representatives of the National Civi Federation, Loyal Legion of Honor Sons of the American Revolution and other organizations followed.

After a pause of a few minutes the services began, conducted by the church door. St. Paul's choir chanted the psalms beginning, "Lord, let me know the number of my days, that I will be certified how long I live," and "Lord, Thou hast been our refuge from one generation to appear to the contract of the refuge from one generation to another." President Pierce of Kenyon college, read the lesson from I Corin-thians, beginning with the 20th verse, "Lead, Kindly Light," a favorite hymn of the dead man, was sung by the choir. Rt. Rev. W. A. Leonard, bishop of the diocese of Ohio, delivered an address eulogizing the sena-

The anthem, "Lord, Let Me Know Thy Name," and a benediction pro-nounced by the bishop concluded the nounced by the bishop concluded the service. The pallbearers again took up the easket, and as they bore it from the church, followed by the mourners, the choir sang the recessional, "Now the Laborer's Work is

By request, the congregation kept its seats while the body was being carried out and the members of the family were leaving the church and taking their places in their carriages. Long before the church was empty, business men of the city interested in business men of the city interested in to the chamber of commerce. For ing place in a crypt in Wade memorward caucuses, and made the club a more than two miles along Euclid ial chapel at Lake View cemetery.

RESTRICT OUTPUT.

Publishers Up in Arms Against the Paper Trusts.

If the Tariffon Wood Pulp Were Abolished, It Is Claimed, the Trusts Would Be Forced to Alter Their Methods - Will Fight Combine

New York, Feb. 19.—An important resolution, touching on the trust question, was adopted Thursday by the American Newspaper Publishers' association, in convention here. The resolution follows: "Resolved, That the American Newspaper Publishers' the American Newspaper Publishers' association request the president of the United States and the attorney general to institute a suit against any of the three paper combinations to test the legality of their existence and whether they do not stifle com-petition." petition."

petition."

During the discussion preceding the adoption of the resolution Don Seitz and John Norris, business managers of the New York World and Times, respectively, attacked the methods of the International Paper Co. On behalf of the World Mr. Seitz offered $10,000 toward a fund to carry on a national agriculton for the carry on a national agitation for the emoval of the duty on wood pulp for paper making, claiming that this step was necessary for the welfare of the newspaper industry.

Mr. Seitz said that the paper situation in the United States is steadily growing worse, the drouth of the last three or four months emphasizing the predicament of the newspaper. ing the predicament of the newspaper industry through the operations of the International Paper Co. The company, he said, controlling every factor of the paper-making industry, had, instead of increasing its facilities and accumulating a reserve stock for emergencies, deliberately set, out for emergencies, deliberately set out to restrict the output of printing paper in order to secure complete domination of the market.

During the five years of its exist-ence, he said, it had not put in a sin-gle new machine, had reduced its output of news paper at least 300 tons per day and had perfected arrange-ments with independent mills to maintain prices. Overcapitalized to begin with, he said, it was impover-ishing itself in purchasing wood lands at high prices to shut out competition and to enrich insiders, the whole to the ultimate burden of the newspapers, which could not well inthe price of their papers or advertising.
Mr. Morris, of the Times, declared

Mr. Morris, of the Times, declared that newspapers are today threatened with a paper famine, many of the papers being on a "hand to mouth" basis, and that the manufacturers had deliberately shut down on production.

Mentioning the various combina-Mentioning the various combina-tions in the paper industry, he de-clared that these methods suggested the remedy and he urged the forma-tion of a pool of newspaper publish-ers to offer inducements to capital-ists to establish independent mills outside the trust and onsure resource. outside the trust and ensure reasonable prices for paper,
At the afternoon session the committee to which the subject had been mittee to which the subject had been referred reported in favor of the accumulation of a fund of $100,000 to promote an agitation "for release from the oppression of the paper combination," and this report was unanimously adopted by the association. tion.

KILLED IN HIS OFFICE.

A Brooklyn Business Man Is Murdered

A Brooklyn Business Man Is Murdered by a Man from Hilnols.

New York, Feb. 19.—George B. Jennings, president of the Jennings Adjustable Shade Co., was shot and killed Thursday in his office in Brooklyn by Frank McNamara, superintendent of one of the departments of the Elgin Watch Co.'s factory at Elgin, Ill. According to two of Jennings' clerks, who were in the office, Jennings and McNamara were engaged in a heated dispute, the subject of which is unknown, when McNamara thrust a revolver against Jennings' sid. and fired, the bullet passing through his heart and death ensuing instantly. ensuing instantly.

McNamara threw away his revolver and ran out into the street, pursued by the two clerks who captured him and turned him over to the police. McNamara refused to say why he shot Jennings. He came here a week ago from Elgin, where, it is said, he has a wife and eight children.

BOGUS TENSPOTS.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Is Flooded with Counterfelt Money that Fools Even the Experts. New York, Feb. 19.—The experts at the United States sub-treasury in this city have discovered that Brooklyn is being flooded with an extraor-dinary good counterfeit of the "Buf-falo" ten-dollar bill. About 15 of these bills have been turned in by CITY HOTEL, banks in the last fortnight, and nearly every bill came out of Brooklyn.

The counterfeit bills are declared by the experts at the sub-treasury to be the best ever seen there. The en-graving of the bills is so good as to enable them to defy detection even ith a glass, and the counterfeiters are discovered a way to imitate the government paper to perfection. only by the "feel" of the bills that the specimens have been discovered so far. The notes are so like the real ones that the tellers at the banks have been completely deceived

Statehood for Oklahoma.

Washington, Feb. 19.—As the result of the territorial hearings for statehood, the prediction is made from reliable sources that a bill will be reported in the near future from the house committee on territories joining Oklahoma and Indian Terri-tory into a single state under the name of Oklahoma. This state will not be admitted, however, until after the allotment of lands by the Dawes the allotment of lands by the Dawes commission has been completed and the school land question has been settled. This will take two years. The state when admitted will have a population of shout $80,000.

Just Wait!

Mr. Tucker—I think I shall give up my business, my dear. I might as well have some good out of my money.

Mrs. Tucker—Ga, not yet, Samuel! But when one of us dies, I shall give up housekeeping and see a little of the world .- Town and Country.

Big Girls Popular

Watchout—Is Sawdoff really engaged to that woman? She is twice as big as he is.

Kickedout (enviously)-Y-e-s; but think how handy such a girl is to hide behind when the old man comes around. -N. Y. Weekly.

The Latest News.

"So you are engaged, I hear, and when Does the wedding come off," asked Teddy. Said Ned, with a sigh for what might have

"I'm afraid it is off already."

LAYING DOWN THE LAW.

Lady (entertaining friend's little girl)-Do you take sugar, darling?

The Darling-Yes, please.

Lady-How many lumps? The Darling-About seven; when I'm out to tea I start with cake.

—Punch.

There was a young scoundrel named Law-

There was a young scount to rence,
rence,
The constable showed him two wawrence;
Said he: "Well, I'll go,
But I want you to know
That I go with the utmost abhawrence!"
New Yorker.

It Would Seem So. "Say, pa," queried little Johnny Bumpernickle, "what's a flying machine?" 'A flying machine, my son," replied the old man, "is a vehicle used by peo-ple who dwell in air castles."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Unrecorded History.

Hamlet was giving his soliloquy.
"He's so glad to get a chance to talk," whispered Ophelia; "he just came from the barber's. In the light of this explanation, it was simple to see why he said so much. Brooklyn Life.

Deep Reasoning. Photographer-Don't assume such a fierce expression. Look pleasant. Murphy—Not on your life. My wife is going to send one of these pictures to her mother, and if I look pleasant she'll come down on a visit.-Philadelphia Record.

Business Cards.

B. W. GREEN,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,
Emporium, Pa.
A businessrelating to estate, collections, real estates, Orphau's Court and general law business will receive promptattention. 42-1y.

J. C. JOHNSON.

J. P. McNarney

OHNSON & McNarney,

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW*

Emponion, Pa.

Will give prompt attention to all business en rusted to them.

16-1y. J. P. MCNARNEW

Collections promptly attended to. Real estate and pension claim agent, S5-1y.

THOMAS WADDINGTON.

Emporium, Pa. CONTRACTOR FOR MASONRY AND STONE-CUTTING.
All orders in my line promptly executed. All:
inds of building and cut-stone, supp 'ed at low prices. Agent for marble or granite monuments. Lettering neatly done.

AMERICAN HOUSE,

East Emportum, Pa.

JOHN L. JOHNSON, Prop's,

JOHN L. JOHNSON, Prop's,

anticonsection of this old and natronage of JOHN L. JOHNSON, Propr.
Having resumed proprietorship of this old and well established House I invite the patronage of the public. House newly furnished and thoroughly renovated.

48ly

F. D. LEET. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW and INSURANCE AG'T. EMPORIUM, PA

EMPORIUM, PA

To LAND OWNERS AND OTHERS IN CAMERON AND ADJOINING COUNTIES.

I have numerous calls for hemlock and hardwood timber lands, also stumpage &c., and parties desiring either to buy or sell will do well to all on me.

WM. McGEE, PROPRIETOR
Emporium, Pa.
Having again taken possession of this old and popular house I solicit a share of the public patronage. The house is newly furnished and is one of the best appointed hotels in Cameron county, 30-1y.

WM. McGEE, PROPRIETOR

THE NOVELTY RESTAURANT, (Opposite Post Office,)

(Opposite Post Office,)

WILLIAM McDonald, Proprietor.

I take pleasure in informing the public that plave purchased the old and popular Novelty Restaurant, located on Fourth street. It will be my endeavor to serve the public in a mannes that shall meet with their approbation. Give me a cail. Meals and luncheon served at all hours.

NOV. 1979. Wm. McDONALD.

ST. CHARLES HOTEL,
THOS. J. LYSETT, PROPRIETOR
Near Buffalo Depot, Emporium, Pa.
This new and commodious hotel is now opened for the accommodation of the public. New nad its appointments, every attention will be pair to the guests patronizing this notel.
27-17-1y

MAY GOULD,

PIANO, HARMONY AND THEORY,
Also deaier in all the Popular sheet Music,
Emporium, Pa.
Scholarstaught either at my home on Sixth street or at the homes of the pupils. Out of town scholars will be given dates at my rooms in this place.

P. C. RIECK, D. D. S.,
DENTIST.
Office over Taggart's Drug Store, Emporlum, Pa.
Gas and other local anaesthetics administered for the painless extraction of :eeth.
SPECIALTY:—Preservation of natural teeth, Laduding Crown and Bridge Work.