Holland is not among the countries that have signed the Berne literary convention. The only way to secure a foreigner's rights would be to enter into relations with a Dutch firm prepared to publish in Holland and reg ister in accordance with law. If it concerns a translation, such a pub-lisher is in a position to register it at the Society of Booksellers and Pub-lishers. The fees are about three floring ($1.20).

And all this takes place in the bonded warehouses of the country, with the full cognizance and consent of our excise and custom officers, who are actually cautioned not to interfere."

The New York Sun predicts that in 20 or 25 years from now Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri will be numbered among the great timber-producing states of the country. The broad prairies of these states which had been trodden bare by the wild buffalo, are now being planted with trees, the number of trees set out within the last three years having been larger than in the once great lumber supplying states portant affairs. If in them there are no of Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan.

A decision has been handed down by the New York supreme court affirming a decision in which a member of the New York stock exchange three railway companies were held liable for losses sustained through the unauthorized transfer of registered bonds. It was based on the suit of the home for children, the treasurer of which sold through a broker a lot of bonds, with which the home was endowed, and fled with the money.

A new cause for anxiety for those who are easily terrified by the thought coming in contact with dangerous bacteria has been found in such ink as is used in schools. Prof. Mark-mann, of Leipsic, has recently examined 67 kinds of such ink, and has arrived at the result that under circumstances it may be dangerous to wound one's self with an inky pen. Most of the inks he examined contained a large it has existed. quantity of micrococci bacteria and fungi.

Among the exhibits at the St. Louis exposition soon to open there is contemplated one illustrating domestic life in the Philippines, which from the space and prominent location set apart for it promises to be an attractive feature. Many native workmen are on and houses are ground, erected of wattled bamboo, without the use of a nail, showing much ingenuity, and structures that are well adapted for a tropical country. The work is being done by natives.

At Chingford, in Essex, an estate is held by a very curious condition. Everybody knows the fondness of the adult Chinese for kite flying. The Korean puts this pastime to a use altogether novel. When the time of good resolutions comes around at the new year the Korean writes on a kite all his faults. "Evil disposition, impatience, bad words, street fights," etc.

WHICH ONE SHALL RIDE "DEMOCRACY" IN THE FORTH- STATE CONVENTION. COMING GREAT CAVALRY BATTLE?

[By McCutcheon, in Chicago Daily Tribune.]

Are in Such a Confused Condition They Take No Notice of the Federal Constitution.

There is no mystery about the source of the present weakness of the opposition to the election of President Roosevelt for another term, remarks the New York Sun. That weakness is due chiefly to the failure of the democracy, asembled in primary and state conventions, to formulate distinctly the issues they wish presented at St. Louis.

The failure to consider and present the constitutional and economic principles on which the democracy desires the national government to be conducted has given to noisy demagogues their opportunity. So long as their opinions were uttered only in yellow newspapers here was no urgency for refuting them, but primary and state conventions of democratic voters are serious and imcommittees on resolutions, no discussion of issues, a fair inference is that the representative democrats there assembled take little or no interest in democratic principles.

It will not do to plead in extenuation that the national convention is the place for issues and that state conventions .re to keep silent. That is not traditiondemocracy, since national ventions began; and, besides, if state conventions meddle with candidates, why not with the ssues those candidates are to represent?

The feeling in the several states regarding principles cannot be definite or strong if the local democratic conventions are dumb. The situation is very serious when democrats in the several states do not manifest an interest in the federal constitution and in such an interpretation of the powers it has imparted to con-gress and the president as the democratic party has contended for ever since

The usurpation of power by congress and the president has never been so outrageous as since McKinley's death.

What is needed most of all is to put the ship of state back again on the right tack and to compel it to be steered hereafter as the constitution has prescribed.

Give back to the state governments, and prohibit to the national government, the regulation of things which Marshall declared do not come under national cognizance, and all will be well. Difficulties over corporations, commerce, as the yellow newspapers present them, will then disappear from congress, and will trouble it no more than marriage and divorce. The three democratic justices of the court have recently, by the vivid pen of Justice White, declared the boundary line between national and state affairs. Does the democracy intend to vindicate, or repudiate, that boundary line? What will the coming democratic state con-vention of New York proclaim in regard to that vital issue?

Cat's-Paw Hearst.

There is but little reason to doubt that the Hearst movement is a conspiracy against the democratic party devised and fostered for its overthrow by Bryan, whose resentment against the most loyal and patriotic representatives of the democracy who refused him their support in both his presidential campaigns is as virile and wrathful to-day as it was in the hour of his last ignominious defeat in 1900. Hearst does not know it, yet all the same he is as a presidential candidate the mere cat's paw of Bryan, for whom he is pulling the sweet chestnuts of revenge out of the fire.—Philadelphia Ledger.

IFIt is announced on behalf of Judge Parker that should that gentleman be nominated by the democrats for president and elected David B. Hill will accept no office under him. That state-ment seems to point pretty directly to the Parker hoodoo.-Troy Times.

The Hearst candidacy has had at least one gratifying outcome. By its leprous quality it has created a kind of sanitary alarm in all parts of the coun-Even Col. DEMOCRATS IN A MUDDLE. IN HONOR OF ROOSEVELT.

Notable Achievements of the Republican Administration Under His Guidance.

It is the fashion in circles opposed to this administration to characterize any happening that makes for the success of the president's plans as "Roosevelt's luck." This contemptuous way of be littling the man and accepting his measures may afford comfort to his detractors, but does not deceive the people a particle, says the Cleveland Leader. There are five conspicuous events of the Roosevelt administration that cannot possibly be catalogued as "lucky" can there be any minimizing of the credit attaching thereby to the chief executive. Reference is made to the

To these might be added the inauguration of the general staff system in the army, the investigation of the post office department and the punishment of proved criminals connected therewith, the solution, by arbitrators of this administration's appointing, of the vexed Alaskan boundary question, and pacification of the Philippines by the adoption of wise measures recommended by Mr. Roosevelt's cabinet or inaugurated by the president himself.

New York Republicans Hold Is in the Empire City

ROOSEVELT IS ENDORSED.

Platt, Odell, Bepew and Black Are New York's "Big Four"-Gov. Odell Chosen Chairman of State Committee.

New York, April 13 .- The republican state convention in session here Tuesday named as delegates at large and alternates to the national convention at Chicago: Senator T. C. Platt, alternate J. Sloat Fassett. Senator C. M. Depew, alternate

Senator C. M. Depew, alternate Louis Stern. Governor B. B. Odell, alternate Erastus C. Knight. Frank S. Black, alternate Henry C. Brewster.

The platform strongly endorses the administrations of President Roosevelt and Gov. Odell and the delegates at large to the national convention are "directed to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt."

There was some discussion over the fact that these "directions" included only the delegates at large, but Gov. Odell explained in this way: "Since 1880 when we abandoned the plan of selecting the district delegates, the state convention has not, and indeed cannot, instruct the district delegates. Those delegates are elected and, if desired by their home conventions, are instructed. This direction of the convention to the delegates at large to secure Mr. Roosevelt's nomination is the strong-est possible way in which the matter could be put."

The congressional dispute in the Thirty-third district between adherents of J. Sloat Fassett and present Congressman Gillet, was left practically without settlement so far as the convention was concerned, Charles A. Schieren, of Brooklyn, and George Urban, jr., of Buffalo, were named as electors at large.

Immediately after the adjournment the state committee unanimously elected Gov. Odell as chairman.

A Congressional Committee Reports on the Charges Against Certain Members of the House.

Washington, April 13.—The report of the special committee of the house appointed to investigate the report from the postoffice department print-ed under the caption "charges con-cerning members of congress" was made to the house Tuesday by Chairman McCall.

The important phase of the report is the finding regarding the connec-tion of members with the business of the postoffice department. This find-ing is as follows:

ing is as follows:
"After a careful consideration of all cases specified in the report numbered 1,395 (the report of the post-office committee on charges against members of congress') so far as they relate to present members of the house of representatives, which the committee assume to be the limit of their jurisdiction, they have unanimously reached the conclusion that nothing has appeared in connection with said cases that would justify the finding that any member of the house of representatives has profited financially in the slightest degree, or that any member was guilty of improper conduct in connection therewith, or that any member has done in connection with any of said cases nything that did not appear to be within the line of his official duty according to long established custom."

GIVEN UP FOR DEAD.

A Diver is Imprisoned in 70 Feet of Water - Futile Efforts to Rescue Him. Boonton, N. J., April 13.—William Hoar, a diver from New York who was imprisoned in 70 feet of water in was imprisoned in 70 feet of water in the Jersey City reservoir here Mon-day, was yesterday afternoon given up for dead by other divers who had come to aid in rescuing him. The divers worked until, under the influof the high wind, the waves on Judge Parker believes that the the lake caused the raft on which the United States should take its place as air pump rested to pitch so that it was impossible longer to supply the men below with air. Then the pump was removed to the stone dam and on the possibility that Hoar is still alive, air is still being sent down to him.

It is possible that Hoar's wonderful constitution enabled him to hold out until noon, as it seemed that he signalled feebly up to that time. In the rescue work the last diver to be brought to the surface was uncon-

Hearst Boomers Bolt the New Jersey Democratic Convention.

Trenton, N. J., April 15 .- A prac tically harmonious democratic convention of more than 1,200 delegates to elect delegates to the national convention at St. Louis which yesterday selected an uninstructed delegation, was followed by a bolting convention of the supporters of William Randolph Hearst for president iam Randolph Hearst for president The bolters numbered about 100 men who claimed they had been illegally deprived of seats in the regular convention.

The second convention was held in Masonic Temple, the hall having been engaged as a Hearst headquarters. The bolting convention nominated delegates at large and delegates from five congressional districts. The 14 men named by the bolting convention will go to St. Louis and contest the seats of the men selected at the regular convention.

The regular convention was held to the State Street Theatre and was presided over by Richard V. Linda-
