outributions invited. That which you would to see in this department, let us know by pos card or letter, personally.

H. O. Haupt and wife visited in Buffalo on Monday.

Mrs. Henry Goff and son Frank, were PRESS visitors on Monday.

Edward Blinzler visited his St. Marys relatives and friends last Sunday. John J. Soble, of New York, was shaking hands in town on Sunday. Mrs. Henry Goff and son Frank left yesterday on a visit to Viaduct, Jefferson county. Harry Weaver, of Kane, was in Emporium between trains on Monday, visiting old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Gubben's of East Emporium, left on Saturday for a ten day visit with friends in Canada. Chas. Diehl, the hustling west ward grocer, visited his old friends at Portland Mills, Sunday and Monday. Simpson Robinson and wife, of Williamsport, came up to visit with their son and wife, before they left for Wisconsin.

D. C. Haves, Emporium's industrious drayman, liveryman, and ice man, was a brief business caller at the PRESS office on Saturday.

Jesse Loucks returned from Philadelphhia last Wednesday evening, where he purchased the finest team of blacks in the county.

Budd Kohler. Fred Lex and Mr. Johnson, of Renovo, were in town last Friday. The boys made the PRESS a short social call. We were glad to see them.

Mrs. A. D. Smith has been critically ill this week, but is now out of danger. W. H. Cramer and family now ocday. cupy the living rooms over their store.

Mr. Roland Gardner, of Oil City, is the guest, of his uncle, L. B. Munsell and family.

Mrs. Jennie Krapf, returned from Buffalo last Saturday, feeling greatly benefitted. Wm. Dougherty, of Driftwood, operator at Junction, is occupying the E. C. Davison residence. W. H. Howard will tell you just where that new flowing oil well is located, if you ask him.

Policeman Mundy desires the PRESS to say that bicyclists must keep off the walks, or suffer the consequences.

The new office work and interior decorations in City Hotel are greatly admired. Contractor Oswell did the work.

Mrs. A. J. Noble and Mrs. Wm. Noble and daughter, of St. Marys, were the guests of Mr. L. B. Munsell and family, a few days last week.

The Climax Powder Company are erecting a large electric plant at their works, in addition to many substantial improvements in the capacity of the works. J. H. Bennett, Ridgway's artistic painter and decorator is giving the interior of the Warner House a general overhauling. He is now at work on the dining room.

Mrs. Roy Branson, of DuBois, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McDonald, and no doubt called them down for being in such bad company last Tuesday.

The visitors from Emporium to the Democratic State Convention are ask ing themselves "were are those promised Parker delegates Hockley talked about?" Ask Guffey.

Ex-Sheriff Hamilton was doing business in Coudersport on Saturday last, returning to Emporium on the evening train. While here he ordered the Journal for the coming year.-Potter Journal.

Both Drs. Bardwell and Heilman have been laid up with pneumonia the past week. Dr. Bardwell is still very sick, while Dr. Heilman is making a desperate effort to look after his patients.

E.G. Coleman, who has one of the neatest homes in Emporium, is now beautifying the grounds surrounding his residence-or at least was before another winter broke upon us. He has arranged to place a fountain in front of his home. E. G. is taking solid comfort, which he richly deserves.

Mrs. B. Coyle, this morning received a telegram announcing the death of her sister, Mrs. Mary Craughn, at Wilkes-Barre. Mrs. Charles Seger and Mrs. Ed. White leave here tomorrow to attend the funeral, which takes place on Saturday-Mrs. Covle's health not allowing her to make the journey.

H. D. Burlingame, of Altoona, Pa., visited in Emporium last Saturday and Sunday, shaking hands with his old friends. Homer is district manager for Jacob Dold Co., with offices at Altoona, which gives him plenty to do. He is equal to the emergency and knows how to get business and keep it. Since he left Emporium he has be come quite an orator, judging from an able address of welcome he made upon the occasion of the late Maccabee convention at Altoona. Sorry we could not see you long enough to crack a few yarns, H. D.

ning Items Winter still holds on.

Clyde Jordan moved to Wyside Tues-

Barclay Bro's have a crew taking up their railroad at Wyside. Some big fish stories are on the list and L. C. called an extra session. Barélay Bro's shingle mill will start this week, D. W. Horn in charge.

O. L. Bailey has ordered an extra car load of coal owing to the continued cold weather John Logue is the boss sucker fisher of this section. He holds the larges record this year. Barclay Bro's mill is running full time with a full crew and are turning out lum ber at a good rate for a mill of its size. There have been but a few trout caught so far this season owing to the cold weather. The A. D. K. have their new uniforms and will make their appearance on the street some evening in the near future. The deer hunters of the First Fork were up to the county seat Monday to answer to charges of killing deer out of season.

Several parties of this place are going into raising ginseng this summer, as a business. L. E. N. Krebs has 60,000 plants started.

Mr. Sheridan P. Mead and Mrs. Anna Mafon were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in Buffalo, N. Y., on Thurs-day the 14th. May joy and prosperity go with them is the wish of all their friends.

H. B. Lightner, who has been in the grocery bussness the past two years, near the P. & E. depot, has retired from that business, having sold out his interest to his brother Robert Lightner and Harry Smith. The new firm will go by the name of Lightner, Smith & Co. DEBSE.
