Sad ending of a young girl's life by suicide on First Fork on Monday afternoon. Dory Peno left the house as her mother supposed on an errand but not returning, search was made and her dead body found near the barn with a revolver near and a bullet through her heart. Deceased was the daughter of Mrs. Fred Peno, of First Fork. No cause is known for the rash act by the young girl's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Peno have the sincere sympathy of all their friends and neighbors in their sad bereavement.

Sad death by drowning. Our little hamlet received a sudden shock Tuesday forenoon when news was brought that Mrs. Austin Murray and her two little girls were drowned and a little boy was going down the creek on an overturned boat. Every one left their work and rushed to the place of the accident and J. R. Batchelder and Geo. Mead arriving first rescued the little boy from his perilous position but no traces of the mother and two little girls could be found. Mr. Murray not being at home at the time Mrs. Murray started to take the children across the creek in a boat so they could attend school at Grove, when about mid-way of the stream the boat upset throwing all four of them into the water, drowning the mother and two little girls, the little boy about nine years old coming to the surface, caught hold of the boat which was upside down and thus saved his life. Mrs. Murray leaves a husband and two children to mourn her untimely death, one about two years old and the little boy who was with her and saw her drowned. The cries of the father and husband of the drowned family were heard rending to all who were in the search. Mr. Murray has the sympathy of all in his sad bereavement. None of the bodies have been recovered up to noon Wednesday although about 100 men are dragging the creek in the search of their dead bodies.

The Banquet.

Congressman-Editor W. O. Smith, of the Punxsutawney Spirit gets off the following:

"About the most enervating and stupid style of entertainment that was ever devised, and is still the most popular, is the banquet. To sit for five or six hours between people you do not know, eat and drink stuff you do not like, listen to a lot of tiresome speeches on matters that do not interest you, laugh at heavy jokes when you feel like taking the jester by the neck, and all that sort of thing, is the joy of a big banquet. Behold how much more joyous it is to take a sandwich or two, some hard boiled eggs and sit under the shade of the forest trees beside a spring with a few chosen friends."

When the Sap Rises.
Weak lungs should be careful, Coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Fenner, of Marion, Ind., says, "I suffered with a cough until I run down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by R. C. Dodson.

The British Empire.

The British empire occupies about one-fifth of the surface of the habitable globe and consists of the United Kingdom, with its attendant islands, and about forty-three dependencies under separate and independent governments varying in size from Canada, which is thirty times the size of the United Kingdom, to Gibraltar, the area of which is two square miles. Thus the area of the British empire is ninety-eight times that of the United Kingdom, while the area of the self governing colonies alone is nearly sixty times as large as that of the mother country.—Lord Trenchard in Nineteenth Century.

A Bit of Holmes' Wit.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, the poet and wit, wrote to a committee declining to accept an invitation to deliver a lecture. "I am far from being in good physical health," wrote the doctor, "and I am satisfied that if I were offered a fifty dollar bill after my lecture I should not have strength enough to refuse it."

Provoking Blunder.

They were re-releasing their parts in an amateur drama. "Oh, I beg your pardon," said Herbert, looking at the book again. "I kissed you at the wrong place." "Isn't that too bad?" exclaimed Amelia. "Now we'll have to do it all over again!"—Chicago Tribune.

Touchy.

She—Is it really true that the blind can determine color by the sense of touch? He—Certainly. I once knew a blind man who was able to tell a red-hot stove by merely putting his finger on it.—Illustrated Bits.

Ambiguous.

Mrs. Justwed—My dear, when we were engaged I always slept with your last letter under my pillow. Justwed—And I, too, darling, often went to sleep over your letters.—Chicago Journal.

No Chance.

Mrs. Jones—It's queer that baby doesn't talk. She's almost two years old and hasn't spoken a word yet. Mr. Jones—I know, dear, but do you ever give baby a chance?

Throat affections should never be neglected. Sore Throat leads to Quinsy and Diphtheria. It is of vital importance to have a remedy at hand in the early stages of troubles of this nature. Many are the deaths that have resulted from a neglected Sore Throat.

Hamlins WIZARD OIL

Animas City, Colo. Last summer I suffered constantly with Sore Throat and had the best doctors I could get, but they gave me no relief. The first application of Hamlins Wizard Oil gave me relief and by using it a few days I was entirely cured. A bottle of Hamlins Wizard Oil is worth its weight in gold to any person. C. A. BRYANT.

Washington, La., Sept. 4, 1900. My wife suffered with Sore Throat for a year, and though she doctored and doctored nothing seemed to help her. I procured a bottle of Hamlins Wizard Oil and it has done her more good than anything in the world. HENRY WADE.
