A World Wide Reputation.

A World Wide Reputation. Wherever men are there will be illness, and wherever people are i? Dodd's Kid-tey Pills will be found a blessing. Solely way into almost every part of the civil-ized world. Their reputation as an hon-est medicine that can always be relied on has been built up by the grateful praise of those who have been cured. The two following letters indicate just how the graphical bounds. The sick and suffering all over the world are asking for Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dear Sirs: I have been suffering for some months all over the world are asking for Dodd's Kidney Pulls. Dear Sirs: I have been suffering for some months from a Kidney complaint. The doctor who attended me recommended me to take your "Dodd's Kidney Pills." After two boxes I got some relief. But unfortunate-ly I have not been able to go on with the treatment, being unable to find any Pills in Cairo. The Chemist who sold me the two boxes has informed me that he had sent an or-der for some, and has been keeping me waiting for more than one month. Thus is the reason why I am writing to you to request you to have the goodness for which I will pay as soon as I receive them from the post. Kindly let me know at the same time where your branch agency in Egypt is to be found. Thanking you in anticipa-tion, WOHAMED BACHED

CAIRO, EGYP1. Dear Sirs: I want to purchase six hoxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, but I don't know exactly where to apply at Buffalo or London. I suppose they can be sent by express or registered mail from either place. Please advise me of how to proceed in order to get the pills without delay. J. P. Simonson, Viborz, V. Mark, DENMARK.

JAP'S VIEW OF ENGLISHMEN.

Says His British Brother Works with Powerful Hands and Long Legs-Calls Them Cunning.

It is both interesting and import-ant to know at this juncture what is the Japanese opinion of the English-man. Here it is as written by a Japanese: "The England which occuman. Here it is as written by a Japanese: "The England which occu-pied of the largest and greatest do-minion which rarely can be. The Eng-lishman works with a very powerful hands and the long legs, and even the eminenced mind, his chin is so strong as decerved iron. He are not allow-ed it to escape if he did sfezed some-thing. Being spread his dominion is thing. Being spread his dominion is dreadfully extensive so that his coun-trymen boastfully say 'the sun are Testamony of English said that he that lost the common sense, he never any benefit though he had gained the complete world. The English are cunning institutioned to establish a great empire of the Paradise. The Englishmen characteristics great empire of the Paradise. The Englishman always said to the an-other nation 'Give me your land and I will give you my Testamony.' So it is not a robbed but exchanged as the Englishman always confide the object to be pure and the order to be holy, and they reproach him if any them are killed to death with the contention of other man."

Pliny Was Too Slow.

Here is another case where the poets have antedated the scientists, according to the New York Tribune. Dr. Francolini, of Rome, Italy, has published a statement to the effect that the source of the Clitumnus, a small Jumbrian river secred to the small Umbrian river sacred to the Romans, may contain radium, basing his opinion on a description of Pliny and on passages in the works of many writers and poets, from Virgil to Byron. The waters at the source of the river are the color of violet. The matter is being investigated by sci-

And the patriotic then, and let me march again With my few comrades who are left, and call us "countrymen." Once more I feel the old time thrill that's always sure to come Whene'er my ear detects the stirring sound of fife and drum; The years roll from me all at once, I'm ready for the fray!-But soft, the country rests in peace, 'tis Decoration Day.

We march, a remnant of the ranks that marched so long ago, Our coats as blue, our hearts as true, but heads with touch of snow. We march, but now no duty calls us on with hurrying feet, And fear no longer marks the faces lined along the street. We carry now no loaded guns, there is no call to fight, carry now no loaded guns, there is no call to fight, But in our hands are gailands fair of blossoms sweet and bright. They are the tributes that we bear on comrades' graves to lay, Remembrance of a nation's love on Decoration day.

With that they started for the garden.

Everybody knew Aunt Ruth, and none knew her but to love her. She none knew her but to love her. She was one of those elderly women — shall we say, rare?—who had pre-served a sweet, happy nature, free from disagreeable habits, both of speech and manner. Although over 60 years old, she still possessed that blessed faculty of adaptability which made her a coveted companion of made her a coveted companion of both young and old. #### Gained Twenty Pounds.

Gained Twenty Pounds. Harford Mills, N. Y., May 16.—This neighborhood is aroused as never before by some wonderful cures by Dodd's Kid-ney Pills. These began with the case of Mrs. J. D. Wallace, who had been in very poor health for a long time and who had got so bad at last that she couldn't walk from her home to the vil-lage and back, a distance of about eighty rods, without being tired out and in pain all over.

Tage and back, a distance of about eighty rods, without being tired out and in pain all over. She had only used a few of Dodd's Kid-ney Pills, when she noticed a change for the better and in a very short time she was able to walk any reasonable distance and do any kind of woman's work with-out feeling any bad effects. She has gained twenty pounds in weight in three months and is now as well a woman as could be found. She declares the Dodd's Kidney Pills deserve all the credit for her wonderful restoration.

Mrs. J. E. Finn, 83 East High street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Gentlemen :- "A few years ago I had to give up social life entirely, as my health was completely broken down. The doctor advised a complete rest for a year. As this was out of the question for a time, I be-gan to look for some other means of restoring my health. "I had often heard of Peruna as an excellent tonic, so I bought a bottle to see what it would do for me, and it certainly took hold of my system and rejuvenated me, and in less than two months I was in perfect health, and now when I feel worn out or tired a dose or two of Peruna is all that I need."-Mrs. J. E. Fin.

Mrs. J. W. Reynolds, Elkton, Ohio, writes:

"I owe my health and life to Peruna. We rarely call in a physician, in fact it has been years since I have taken any other medicine than yours. I am afraid of drugs, and although I have been sick many times I have taken only your medicines. They are wonderful indeed. We have a very large house and enter-tain a great deal, and I do all my own work, thanks to Peruna."—Mrs. J. W. late hours. She must attend receptions and balls. Her system becomes completely run down as a consequence. She soon finds herself in a condition known as systemic catarrh. This has also been called catarrhal nervousness.
If every society woman could know the value of Peruna at such a time, it they could realize the invigorating strengthening effect that Peruna would have, how much misery could be avoided.
Letters from society women all over the United States testify to the fact that Peruna is the tonic for a run down, depleted nervous systemi.

BAD DREAMS

Indicate Improper Diet, Usually Due to Coffee.

One of the common symptoms of coffee poisoning is the bad dreams that spoil what should be restful sleep. A man who found the reason says

"Formerly I was a slave to coffee. was like a morphine fiend, could not sleep at night, would roll and toss in my bed and when I did get to sleep was disturbed by dreams and hobgoblins, would wake up with headaches and feel bad all day, so nervous I could not attend to business. My writing looked like bird tracks, I had sour belchings from the stomach, indigestion, heartburn and palpitation of the heart, constipation, irregularity of the kidneys, etc

"Indeed, I began to feel I had all the troubles that human flesh could suffer, but when a friend advised me to leave off coffee I felt as if he had insulted me. I gould not bear the idea, it had such a hold on me and I refused to believe it the cause.

"But it turned out that no advice was ever given at a more needed time, for I finally consented to try Postum. and with the going of coffee and the coming of Postum all my troubles have gone and health has returned. and sleep well now, nerves steadied down and I write a fair hand (as you can see), can attend to business again and rejoice that I am free from the monster Coffee."
