

Woman's Ills

How rare a thing to find a woman who is perfectly healthy. Fully seventy per cent. of the sex suffers from ailments which often render life a burden. These ailments cause nervousness, irritability, melancholia, hysteria, etc. They entirely unfit a woman for life's work and deprive her of most of its joys.

AUNT DINAH'S OLD VIRGINIA Herb Tea

WOMAN'S SAFE GUARD.

Those suffering with disordered menstruation, female weakness, prostrations, etc., will find immediate relief from the use of Aunt Dinah's Old Virginia Herb Tea and in the majority of cases it will bring about a complete cure. It is a positive cure for chronic constipation, sick headache and indigestion. In case of nervousness and sleeplessness this tea will be found indeed a boon. It has a soothing and quieting effect on the nerves and invariably induces sound, refreshing sleep. A cupful at bed-time is all that is necessary to make a woman well and keep her well.

Marysville, S. C., Dec. 8, 1902.
Two years ago I suffered with female complaint and used your Aunt Dinah's Old Virginia Herb Tea with great success. I have just begun taking it again and I feel much younger and stronger. If every woman sufferer could know the relief she would experience by using your Herb Tea she would never be without it. It is a most wonderful remedy and I take pleasure in recommending it to any lady who is suffering with female troubles.
MISS C. L. CARPENTER.

May, Lee County, Ark., Dec. 1, 1902.
I am greatly pleased with your Aunt Dinah's Old Virginia Herb Tea. Indeed I think there is nothing like it for headache and stomach troubles and I find it exceedingly good for clearing the complexion. I would not be without it. Yours truly,
MISS NETA MCGIBBLE.

A Great Bridge.

For over a month I had been troubled with a lame back and neck. The pain was severe that I could not sleep. I bought one bottle of Thompson's Barosma or Kidney Cure and before the bottle was used up I was as well as ever and wish to speak a good word for Barosma the "Bridge that carried me safely over." E. Do It To-Day.

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" This is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Boecher's German Syrup which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. 49-ly.

Huntley Notes.

Well dear readers of the Press, please excuse me as I am no good at writing items, but an awful good at telling stories. I will give you a few hints about Huntley; so you will know that every thing is alive and prosperous, I am not a very elegant writer but I am an awful good speller. I have not time to enter into all the details this time, but I will give a few. I have been traveling around for a week to pick up something to say. I run across some curious things. The first thing I saw when I come up the road was B. J. and Clyde Collins plowing up the old flat; they had two teams and were running races. Clyde passed B. J. three times in fifteen minutes and then threw the dead turrow in the railroad ditch and buried it. Then I went on up and who did I meet but the Hon. Richard Bates and Dr. Wm. Hickey both looking well, hadn't saw them for a long time. Next I saw John Jordan spading up his garden he said all the farmers were so busy that he could not get his garden plowed. I saw Thomas Kilburn who had just come from Emporium. He said he was going to buy a house and lot up there in the near future. I did not ask him whether he was going to keep bachelors hall or not. I saw a very bad accident happen in Wilson's mill just as I entered. The edger man got his hand cut off with the saw. I tell you there was quite a little excitement there for a while, and Ray Wilson took him to Ridgeway Hospital. I went on up the road and I met Dan Kilburn limping home with his leg half cut off, he said he was working with a "green horn" half-breed by the name of Smithy who threw the ax at his leg to knock off a bumble-bee before it stung him; he knocked off the bee alright. I heard this morning that there was a new company operating in Huntley's Run, called the Consolidated Lumber Co., but I did not investigate the matter. I went on up to Bennies hollow and found two young men trying to peel bark they had both climbed to the top of the tree and were trying to peel down, I asked them why they didn't cut the tree down and they said they had never thought of such a thing before. O dear, such curious people as we have here. It was quite dark by this time, so I did not see any more things on my travels.

BRUISER.

Can the Blood be Purified. Scientists agree that it cannot while the kidneys are weak or diseased. All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys every three minutes and is filtered by them. In order to have the blood cleansed properly the kidneys must be well and strong. Thompson's Barosma is the greatest kidney cure known. Thompson's Barosma reduces all the inflammation, neutralizes the acid and dissolves gravel, carrying off all matter that is poisonous to the blood, kidneys, stomach, heart and other organs. The only effective prison bars are those we forge with our habits.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Metre of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by L. Taggart Druggist. Trial bottles free. Regular size 50c, $1.

Sanitation is not salvation, but salvation will include sanitation.

Relief at Once.

Immediate relief from backache, pain in the side, groin or hips is experienced by taking a large dose of Thompson's Barosma or Kidney and Liver Cure. A continuation of use will make a positive cure. Thompson's Barosma does not contain opiates and a large reward is offered for any injurious drug found in its composition. It is purely vegetable and a remedy adapted to all ages. Druggist. Mystery of the Popular Novel.

"We are apt to think," says the New York Evening Post, "that the selling of poor novels by the hundred thousand is a modern phenomenon in the book trade; but, in fact, it is not entirely new. In one of the group of Hawthorne's letters he says: 'What is the mystery of these innumerable editions of "The Lamplighter" and other books neither better nor worse?—worse they could not be, and better they need not be when they sell by the hundred thousand.' The question is a little pathetic when we remember that Hawthorne a little before this time had spoken of himself as the least read author in America. It shows, too, that the mystery of the popular novel was as great then as it is today. One could understand why a thrilling tale of cheaply concocted adventure might captivate the multitude, but the curious point is that some of the high sellers are simply dull and respectable. These things, too, lie on the knees of the gods."

A Stitch in the Side.

A "stitch in the side" is the popular and expressive term for a sharp stab felt in the side, an acute spasm, producing pain, like the thrust of a needle, which is felt especially in the intercostal muscles. Probably its simplest form is due to muscular cramp connected with respiration and frequently brought on by violent exercise after a full meal, in which there is a greater accumulation of carbonic acid than can be readily assimilated or carried off. Such slight stitch is often removed by stooping; hence the old time popular remedy was to make the sign of the cross upon the foot.

Such a stitch is also associated with pleurisy, and then it is caused by a stretching of the not uncommon adhesions between two pleuritic surfaces. At other times the source is neuralgia. In any case to persist in muscular exertion when the stitch is severe is to take a great risk.

Credit With Pawnbrokers.

That men can and do establish a line of credit with pawnbrokers is a proposition beyond belief to the man who has been offered only $20 on a watch that cost $75. The fact remains, however, that all pawnbrokers have favored patrons on their books who can always get the amount of money they want upon almost any old thing that takes the shape of jewelry or other "hockable" personal property. A local sport tried to raise $50 on his split second stop watch the other day and was offered $30 less than the value of the case melted. A friend who has an established credit took the same watch to the same pawnbroker and got $75 on it without a question being asked. It was the man, not the watch, that made the loan possible.—Philadelphia Record.

Setting Her Right.

Noah Webster, the learned compiler of the well known dictionary, was an unconventional man who loved his unconventional friends, but his wife was a stickler for propriety. Once, says the Idler, the good lady left home on what was supposed to be a prolonged visit, but some interference caused her to return unexpectedly, and she found her husband in his shirt sleeves, holding carnival over strong waters in company with a number of friends also in shirt sleeves. The shocked lady gazed at this disreputable gathering for a moment in silence. Then she said, "Well, I am surprised!" "No, my dear," said the lexicographer mildly, "I am surprised. You are astonished."

Bait.

Izaak Walton is the patron saint of all good fishermen. Here is his advice as to bait: "Let your bait be as big as a red worm as you can find, without a knot. Get a pint or a quart of them in an evening in garden walks or chalky commons after a shower of rain, and put them with clean moss well washed and picked and the water squeezed out of the moss as dry as you can into an earthen pot or pipkin set dry, and change the moss fresh every three or four days for three weeks or a month together. Then your bait will be at the best, for it will be clear and lively."

Strange Provision of Guardianship.

The following is a literal transcript of the second clause of a will filed and probated in a Wisconsin county a few years since: "I hereby commit the guardianship of all my children until they shall respectively attain the age of twenty-one years unto my said wife during her life and from and after her decease unto my much esteemed friend, —, his executors and assigns."—Green Bag.

Agreed.

"I'd hate to feel," she said, "that I was the wife of a man who had bought me simply for my beauty."
"Yes," her friend replied. "I don't blame you. Being married to a blind man would be awfully disagreeable, I should think."—Chicago Record-Herald.
