The ordinary Free-Trade newspaper is between a chill and a fever all the time. The New York "Post" detests regular Democracy in its rank and file because it means the ascendency of Tammany and the Hill, McCarren, Murphy type of statesmen, yet it confidently speaks of supporting Parker for the sake of promoting the doctrines of popular liberty.—Buffalo "News."

A Political Development.

There is considerable talk just now of Elk county having a third political ticket in the field this fall, and we understand that J. H. Bennett, the well-known Ridgway painter, has been selected as the candidate for Sheriff We have not yet learned who the other condidates will be, but Mr. Bennett admits that he is in it and in it to stay till the polls close. There is no denying the fact that Mr. Bennett is a hustler and he has a very wide acquaintance throughout the county. He is also quite famillar with some of the tricks with which this county has been carried in the past, and might be able to make things very interesting. -Ridgway Daily Record.

Triumphs of Modern Surgery.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely, bones are spliced, pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on the same principle. It is an antiseptic and when apcipie, it is an antisepte and when ap-plied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by Jno. E. Smith, Sterling Run.

The sins in our house are never so rge as those next door.

Huntley Notes Well, "Bruiser" is on deck again, but my time is limited on account of so much business. You see Willson Bro's took such a liking to me that they wanted me to accept a position as Assistant Superintendent and so I accepted it, and it takes about all my time to keep Harry Cloyes straight, and Billy Esterbrook too -he needs a little watching-then there is Roy Willson. I have a hard time to keep him away from the new licensed hotel, which just started. Of course Roy don't drink, but there seems to be such an attraction up there. I met Mr. Taylor coming down the road; he looked awful blue. I said "what is the matter, Charley?" "Why," said he, "I was just Unarrey: "Wuy, such as a sust up sampling a gin-cocktail and a few whiskey skins and then finished up on a few bottles of Blumle's lager beer." Well, said I, no wonder you look blue. I was over to B. J. Collins' inquiring C. C. I. Willer, I wanted to be see him for C. J. Miller, I wanted to to see him about some business matters, but B. J. said he had gone up on Mason Hill to clear away the brush trom his house to see if the forest fire had destroyed it. The thought just struck me and I said what do you think is going to happen? Why,said B. J. didn't you know that he expected to move his bride there in the near future? Well, said I, I never thought of such a thing, but that is the way Huntley goes and—pop goes the weasel. The next thing I saw, which was most curious, was W. R. Smith run-ning up and down the road swetting with all his might and I asked him what was the matter. He answered nothing, but kept on going as fast as he could. I began to get weary and thought maybe he had hydraphobia or some other awful disease, so halloed to him and asked again what was the matter. He replied he was trying to reduce the surplus fat, which had accumulated last winter, so he could peel bark with some comfort. I asked him why he did not work it off, when he said he never thought that he could do that. O! dear, such dumb people we do have here. Well, I under-stand the Consolidated Lumber Co., is doing a rushing business in Huntley's Run. They expect to erect a saw mill and a tannery in the near future. I was up to hear Brother Faus preach his Memorial sermon on Sunday, and able discoure. Quite a large audience was present. As news is scarce you will please excuse this short note. BRUISER.
