Womanly Health, Strength and Beauty

Strength and beauty in woman depend entirely upon her complexion. A woman cannot look her best if suffering from one or more of the many ailments peculiar to her sex. These ailments invariably cause, sooner or later, the loss of her symmetry of form and freshness of complexion.

AUNT DINAH'S OLD VIRGINIA Herb Tea

Makes Strong and Beautiful Women.

It is a most pleasant and effective remedy for the troubles which cause so much suffering among women the world over. It relieves immediately and eventually cures all cases of disordered menstruation, female weakness, chronic constipation, sick head ache, nervousness and sleeplessness. These are the ailments which deprive a woman of her youth and beauty and make her old before her time. The use of the Herb Tea will enable her to retain these qualities. It clears the complexion and improves the form. A cupful at bed time will give a woman health and strength.

Hamilton Wizard Oil Co., Chicago, Ill.
Gentlemen—My wife had been suffering with female weakness and extreme nervousness which latter the physician who has been attending her for a long time attributed to her being unable to sleep. After using about all night she would invariably rise in the morning with a terrible headache. The doctor seemed to be able to do nothing for her and she was constantly getting worse. She decided to try your Herb Tea and drank a cupful before retiring. In the morning she arose feeling better than she had for some time. She has continued taking it during the past few months and has forgotten what a sleepless night means. She is feeling splendid and every one remarks how well she is looking. Her complexion is as clear as a young girl's and her figure has improved wonderfully.
Yours truly,
V. H. TAYLOR,

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)
Washington, May 28, 1904.

Editor Press:—

The reports of a general sagging in business, which reach this city, while undoubtedly exaggerated, cause some uneasiness in political circles. There is what Mr. Samuel Gompers president of the American Federation of Labor, calls a "reaction," quite natural after the high tide of prosperity. He keeps in touch with labor, and feels sure that the general prosperity will continue, and that anything like a panic is many years off. That his views have weight is evident from the fact that the President invited him to the White House yesterday for a prolonged conference. During the past year this country has sustained great and extraordinary financial losses by flood, fire, an unusually severe winter, the cotton boll weevil and other pests, the falling off of imports, the drain upon gold and the numerous labor troubles. These things combined, which are neither political nor partisan, have produced a condition of serious thoughtfulness on the part of political managers. But, as Senator Foraker of Ohio, who is in this city, says there are no fundamental differences among Republicans, and President Roosevelt is popular. His views on public questions are well known. The season is propitious for good crops, and there should be no falling off in production. The greatest liability is the possibilities of the industrial and labor situation.

This reminds one of the old-embracing and preemptory order which the President issued not long ago about enforcing the law in Nebraska against the sheep and cattle growers who fenced in public lands for the exclusive use of their flocks, contrary to law. The President commissioned Col. John S. Mosby, a special agent to the Land Office, to go to Nebraska and cut down the fences. Once on the field, ax in hand, he went to work with such vigor that consternation spread among the cattle men, and a small physical, if not a political revolution, came near being the result. But the work was well done so far as it went. When the Secretary of the Interior called Col. Mosby to Washington, he was received at the White House with distinguished consideration. A few days since, for his gallantry in the field, he was made Asst. Atty. Gen., in the Department of Justice, at an annual salary of $2,400. The president loves a strenuous man.

Many Senators and government officials remain in town. Senator Cullom is one. He says the fight in Illinois is a good natured one and will leave no scars. Senator Spooner is back from his contest with the Governor of Wisconsin. He says conditions in that state are not as desperate as the press represents. Senator Gorman has returned from Maryland elated with his political success in that state. He says he has not spoken in favor of or against Parker. He is in a receptive mood. Senator Fairbanks is back in town from Indiana and strange as it may seem, it is said he can still have the Vice presidency if he wants it. He has had a long conference with the President.

I gained in strength and flesh and have been well ever since. Mrs. M. Grove, Plum Pa.

Worst of all Experiences.

At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered."
