Current Comment.

The "cattle kings" of Nebraska, who have violated the law, or may do so, in the matter of fencing in the public lands for grazing purposes, will continue to be prosecuted by the Government just as fast as Marshal Matthews of Omaha can get witnesses and money to pay the jurors.

When Lord Roberts, of England, visits the United States, as he says he hopes to do at no distant date, and shakes hands with our young Soldier President, Roosevelt, Ambassador Choate says he would like to be at the White House and see the two sitting together, cheek by jowl, from the rising to the setting of the sun, exchanging views on war. Mr. Choate thinks public business will be suspended on that day.

Visitors to the St. Louis Exposition will want the July Woman's Home Companion because it is such an interesting souvenir of the Fair. Frederick Smith tells of "A Little Journey Round the St. Louis Fair" and about adventures on The Pike, while Arthur Hoyt describes the opening day. A feature of especial timeliness is "Celebrating the Fourth of July in Uncle Sam's New Possessions." The pictorial features are the "Wash-Day of All Nations" and "Sports on an Ocean-Liner." The Editors announce that Margaret E. Sangster, so dear to the hearts of all American girls, will henceforth conduct a department for women in the Woman's Home Companion. There is plenty of lively midsummer fiction, and many of Miss Gould's excellent fashion suggestions. Published by The Crowell Publishing Company, Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

You can nearly always flatter a man by telling him he can't be flattered.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)
Washington, June 18th, 1904.

Editor Press:

The past week has been a busy if not an anxious one for the President. The near approach of the Chicago Convention is bringing political matters to a climax. The platform is being thoughtfully considered, especially what shall be said about the tariff and reciprocity. As to the Vice Presidency, Mr. Roosevelt is not bothering himself, although it is remarkable how many men profess to be anxious to dodge the nomination. The highest opinion now is that it will naturally go to Senator Fairbanks, of Indiana. The "drift" is conceded to be in his direction, and if he should be snowed under with votes at Chicago, he will take the compliment very kindly, even sacrificing his feelings and inclinations. The labor question in Colorado begins to loom up, and all sorts of frantic appeals come to the White House urging the President to take some decisive action. This he cannot do, of course, until called upon by the Governor of Colorado. But the matter appears to be assuming national importance, and may have a political effect.

In common with all citizens the President has been shocked and deeply stirred over the terrible disaster in New York. He has ordered Secy. Cortelyou to make a thorough, short, sharp and decisive investigation putting the blame where it belongs. The inspection of steamboats is a function of Federal government, conducted by Federal officers if there has been any neglect of duty, or bribery, the President wishes to know it. As he said in his speech last Saturday, at the unveiling of the Rush statue, all he asks from the subordinates of the Government is "decency and efficiency." The charges are that the life-preservers on the Slocum were rotten and worthless; that the life-boats could not be lowered; that the pumps would not work; that the old steamer was but a tinder-box of wood; that there was no discipline among the crew and that the inspectors were corrupt. All these matters it is the duty of the Government to investigate, and if there is inefficiency in the inspectors of office in New York the inspector wants to know it. Another matter which the President realizes is of some gravity, is the difficulty surrounding the case of Gen. Tyner, who has appealed to him for vindication. He has had in consultation Atty. Gen. Knox, Secy. Cortelyou, Murray Crane and Holmes Conrad, who will doubtless suggest the reply which will be made. It is thought it may contain some surprises for Gen. Tyner.

Admiral and Mrs. Dewey expect to remain in Washington until the last of June. The sending of Gen. H. C. Corbin to the Philippines just as soon as he gets through with his big sham battles on the Rull Run battle field, comes as a surprise. But it is generally understood that this service in foreign parts is but a stepping stone to make him the Lieut. General of the Army. Senator Alger and wife, of Mich., sail for Europe in July.

A Strong Heart.

Is assured by perfect digestion. Indigestion swells the stomach and puffs it up against the heart. This causes shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart and general weakness. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures indigestion, relieves the stomach, takes the strain off the heart and restores it to a full performance of its function, naturally. Kodol increases the strength by enabling the stomach and digestive organs to digest, assimilate and appropriate to the blood and tissues all of the food nutriment. Tones the stomach and digestive organs. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boesche's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size, 75c. At all druggists. 49-ly.
