Valuation Increased.

The Republican County Convention held last March, passed the following resolution: "We favor the re-assessment of all unseated lands in our county and insist that all non-resident owners and the state government be compelled to pay equal taxes with resident owners."

At a recent session of the County Commissioners the timber lands were raised to $20 per acre. While the move in the right direction a $50.00 per acre would be a going and home taxes, yet will help it in the past.

Baptist Church. Rev. L. B. Twichell subject on Sunday night Being Weighed in The will pay a passing tribune patriot and courage

The Democratic Middle.

The Democratic National Convention finally adjourned last Sunday morning after making a cowardly change in their platform by striking out the sound money plank, thereby going before the people without an issue, not having the courage to face a question of so vital importance. Before nominating Judge Parker for the Presidency he wired them that he did not endorse the platform, then the blue sulphur flew around in good old bourbon style. Ex-Senator H. G. Davis, of West Virginia a good old man, aged 81 years, was nominated from that safe and reliable Republican state for Vice President.

The Philadelphia Press sums up the work of the convention in a lengthy editorial, from which we extract the following:

"Judge Parker's unexpected telegram was a thunder-clap. It threw the convention first into passionate uproar and indignation and then into sullen resentful helplessness. The immediate impulse was to throw overboard the presumptuous candidate who condemned and spit upon the convention and platform, and plunge into a wild struggle for a new standard bearer. But it did not take long for even the embittered leaders who felt that they had been deceived, misled and put in a grotesque position to see that this would only aggravate their troubles, and that, galling as it was, they had better swallow their humiliation, and find some way out of the dilemma. The result was an answer to Judge Parker which was equivalent to saying: 'We have made fools of ourselves on the money question; we are hopelessly divided, we can't say anything, and you can do as you please.'"

"It is plain from all reports and from every act that the convention was the most disorderly, the most inept, the most vacillating and inconsequent of any within public memory. It was incapable in its speeches, riotous in its conduct, and double faced in its action. Many able men participated in its councils, but the deep-seated taint of a reckless, irresponsible organization seemed to infect its whole being. The majority were half hearted and uncertain in their beliefs and the minority were aggressive and defiant. They reached nominal harmony through violent discord only by finally agreeing on suppression and silence. The whole proceeding from beginning to end was typical of an ineffective party which is unfit for government and disqualified even for serious and competent opposition."

A Glorious Success.

Emporium has every reason to be proud of her Fourth of July demonstration. The town was crowded with people from all the adjoining towns, as far west as Kane, Olean on the north and Williamsport east. Every person who ever resided here was in evidence if they could get here. The day opened early, or rather the boys with the cannon opened the eyes of those sleeping when the clock struck twelve. The ball games started at eight o'clock, between Driftwood and Renovo, resulting in a victory for Renovo. The Emporium nine made the victors bite the dust in the afternoon.

The grand street parade at eleven o'clock, was the best ever witnessed in Emporium and admirably arranged. A plenty of music by Sinamhonung and Emporium Bands and Major Galt's Drum Corps, the marching band, several organizations were present. The great hit of the day and most pleasing were the floats representing the States, as well as two floats, each containing a large number of Emporium's handsomest ladies. The floats representing our business houses were young and well gotten up. We like to give more space to describe them but space will not permit.

A heavy rain at six o'clock, cut short at Keystone Park and committees to transfer the opera house and rendered of fireworks a failure. Several committees having in charge the arrangements, worked with should feel highly repaid. They were a grand success and gave them to try again in the future. The decorations were fine and especially the floats. They were designed and decorated by Mr. J. H. Beunett, in charge of this part of the work. He certainly made a fine display and aid in making the parade a success.

Program for Firemen's Convention.

The committee of the Warren Fire Department, who are engaged in listing attractions and making preparations for the convention and carnival to be held at Warren during the week beginning August 7th, are busy with the arrangements and thus far have met with much success. The carnival is certain to prove a great attraction and the interest shown by the firemen, who are deservingly of the general support of the community. This is not a money making affair. The firemen are only desirous of entertaining the firemen of the Northwestern Pennsylvania Firemen's Association and the visitors in a proper manner. The merchants will profit from the great crowds that will visit Warren and they should co-operate in making the week a gala one.—Warren Mirror.

Gents furnishings at N. Seger's are the handsomest in this county. Call and see them.

DR. EUGENE O. BARDWELL.
Republican Nominee for County Treasurer.

DR. EUGENE O. BARDWELL, Republican nominee for County Treasurer, was born in Warren county, Pennsylvania, March 12th, 1854, and is a thorough-bred American if there are any such, as he is a direct decedent of Serg't Robert Bardwell, of Hatfield, Mass., who had command of a company at Hatfield, during King Philip's war in 1675 and 1676, and was one of the most noted Indian fighters of the day.

Our candidate's father, Dr. Richard R. C. Bardwell, began the practice of medicine in Lottsville, Warren county, Pa., but removed in 1857 to Penn Yan, N. Y., where the subject of this sketch obtained his early education, receiving the Certificate of Scholarship of the Regents of the State of New York at the age of 12 years.

The Doctor spent two years as a clerk in a drug store, but at the age of 21 he decided to become a Doctor of Medicine, a decision which met his father's unqualified approval, and in February 1879, he was graduated from the Medical Department of the University of Buffalo, and began practice in Emporium in April of the same year.

With the exception of three years spent in the west and at his old home about 20 years ago, and two or three months in the south more recently, Doctor Bardwell, has resided in Emporium, during his entire professional life, over 25 years, and has always shown a lively interest in the welfare of the county.

Doctor Bardwell, was one of the leaders in the organization of our very effective Fire Department, and the first foreman and drill-master of the Mountaineer Hose Company, and has always given freely of his time and professional attainments for the benefit of the community.

For seven years he served as Health Officer of Emporium, without fee or emolument of any kind. Three years he served as Burgess or Mayor, with the same salary. During the past nine years the Doctor has been County Medical Inspector for the State Board of Health, re-appointed each year, and is considered by the State authorities to be one of their ablest officials. He has served fourteen years as Secretary of the Board of U. S. Pension Examining Surgeons at Emporium, and is a member of various Medical Societies, County, State and National.

Doctor Bardwell, holds the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy, and also of Master of Arts conferred upon him by the Illinois Wesleyan University, after regular study and examination.

Those who know Dr. Bardwell best and who have most closely watched his administration of the public offices he has graced, are perfectly satisfied that he would be an honor to any office in the State, and that any office he may hold will be administered honestly, fairly, intelligently, and for the best interest of all concerned.

Dr. Bardwell is a gentleman of education and fully competent to transact the business of the office, will if elected faithfully discharge the duties of the position personally, having since the nomination repeated his pledge made when nominated to conduct the business of the office himself. Located in the central part of the town he is always to be found in his office, which will be a convenience to the public especially those having business to transact at the Bank. During the Doctor's residence in this county, he has faithfully discharged, without recompense, every duty devolved upon him with honor to himself and the people. His popularity with the masses, regardless of party, will ensure his election.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

HALEY.
PATRICK HALEY, aged about 59 years, died Sunday morning from the effects of a paralytic stroke. Sunday morning, July 3rd, at an early hour, while attending to his duties as watchman at the Emporium tannery he was stricken down, but succeeded in making sufficient noise to attract the attention of engineer Murray. The faithful watchman was taken to his home on South Broad street and Dr. Bardwell summoned. He continued to grow worse and finally passed away last Sunday morning at seven o'clock, having been unconscious most of the time since his illness commenced, surrounded by his faithful wife and children.

Patrick Haley and wife came from Ireland in 1863, locating at Emporium, having been married just before sailing. Their only companion was the late David Murry, who also made his home in Emporium. Mr. and Mrs. Healy reared a family of eight children, four girls and four boys, viz: Mary, Ella, Margaret, Annie, Thomas, John, James and William, all of whom are living and present at the funeral, except Thomas in Montana, John in Colorado and Annie who is sick at Olean—her husband, Mr. Edward May and daughter, however, being present.

During the 41 year that Mr. Haley resided here he has been energetic and accumulated a good home and retained the confidence and respect of our citizens. His glad hand was always extended to a friend when "up at" Haley was a friend, he was one you could bank on; if he was not a friend you would know it in no unmistakable language. Farewell, old friend; we shall long remember a friendship that existed between the writer and yourself that could not be broken by the strife of this world.

THE FUNERAL.
The funeral services were conducted at St. Mark's Catholic church, Tuesday morning, when High Requiem Mass was celebrated. The large church was filled with friends of the deceased, comprising all creeds. Rev. Father Downey's remarks upon the occasion were solid truths and sank deep in the hearts of all listeners.
The deceased was a member of the C. M. B. A., and carried $2,000 insurance.

HOLBROOK.
MISS MAY HOLBROOK, aged 40 years and ten months, died very suddenly about mid-night, Wednesday, July 6th, having been taken seriously ill about six o'clock. Dr. DeLong, who resides next door to Miss Holbrook was summoned and rendered all the aid he could but her weak heart soon failed and she passed away, surrounded by a few of her intimate lady friends. Miss Holbrook, who had been a cripple all her life, had during the past year or more failed very rapidly in health. In fact at the time of her death she was preparing to go to her sister, Mrs. E. E. Forbes at Marietta, Ohio, to have a serious operation performed. Deceased was a member of Emmanuel Episcopal Church and Emmanuel Guild and while she lived somewhat of a retired life she attended and contributed cheerfully to all church work, having considerable means of her own. In spite of her dire affliction she was cheerful and bright, as well as witty. Since the death of her mother, ten months to the day, she had resided in the old homestead, which she inherited from her mother, together with a number of other properties.

Mr. and Mrs. Forbes were promptly telegraphed for, the sister arriving here Thursday evening and Mr. Forbes the following day. The shock to Mrs. Forbes was severe when she arrived in Emporium to learn her sister had passed away.

The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon from the family residence, Rev. J. M. Robertson, Rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church officiating and the church choir conducting the singing. Although the day was very disagreeable and rainy, quite a large number of old friends were in attendance at the services. Interment was made in Newton Cemetery in the family lot, beside her father and mother.

LOGUE.
Died at Huntley, Pa., July 3rd, 1904, on the farm on which he was born and lived for 84 years, HARRISON LOGUE, a man beloved by his children, respected and esteemed by all who knew him, a model man, honest and upright. Never in his long and useful life did he wrong a human being. He never had an enemy, Harrison Logue was married to Elizabeth Nelson in 1843. She died nearly 17 years ago. Mr. Logue was the father of eight children all of whom are living, 40 grand children, 31 of whom are living and seven great grand children of whom six are now living.

The funeral took place Wednesday, afternoon, July 6th, at two o'clock at the old Huntley Church. Truly a good man has gone to rest. A short time before he died, he said, "Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord forever." His daughter Mrs. Emeline Whitney, grand-daughter Mary and grandson Harry, of Superior, Wis., arrived the day he died. He recognized them all and spoke to them. At the close of a quiet, peaceful Sabbath day, typical of his own life, he breathed his last. At his bedside were four of his children, Mrs. Alonzo Nelson, of Wharton, Pa., Mrs. James D. Whitney, of Superior, Wis., William and David Logue, both of Huntley. Mrs. Clark Johnson, (Charlotte N.) of Owego, N. Y., arrived in time for the funeral. Potter Journal please copy.
