How rare a thing to find a woman who is perfectly healthy. Fully seventy per cent. of the sex suffers from ailments which often render life a burden. These ailments cause nervousness, irritability, melancholia, hysteria, etc. They entirely unfit a woman for life's work and deprive her of most of its joys.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, July 30th, 1904.

Editor Press:

Nearly every young man of social position in Washington expects to serve two or three years in the National Guard of the District, and reach at least the grade of First Lieutenant. For the past week there has been much activity at the local armories making ready for the encampment at Harper's Ferry, which will continue from Aug. 1st to the 13th. The camp is near the junction of the Shenandoah and Potomac rivers, and there will be an excellent opportunity to learn the art of swimming. The departure of the boys for Virginia reminds your correspondent of a unique incident which he witnessed at the beginning of the war with Spain. Suddenly all the District militia was ordered to go into camp in the grounds of the Soldier's Home, some three miles north of this city. Their departure was witnessed by an immense crowd which assembled in the vicinity of the Center Market Armory. There was the usual weeping, kissing and handshaking, for some thought the boys would soon be on the battle field. They tramped up Seventy street to the grounds of the Home, only to find the gates locked and admittance refused. Finally the old soldier on guard let them inside. There were no preparations for sleeping on the sodded turf; no tents; no beds; nothing to eat. For one night the boys slept under a wet moon with the sky for a blanket, and mosquitoes for companions. The next day they came back to town, band playing and flags flying disgruntled and disgruntled. Quite a number of resignations followed. They doubted the wisdom of going to war with officers capable of making war so cruel.
